FUELING WARSHIPS.

One of the greatest triumphs of the war which has been hidden from public observation has been the work of the several bureaus of the navy department in furnishing supplies and equipments for the troops, says a Washington dispatch in the Chicago Record.

As Secretary Long remarked in a recent interview, their duties have been quite as valuable as those of the fleet in Cuban waters or the harbor of Manila. But for their foresight and executive ability the ships might have been helpless for the lack of fuel, ammunition and food. The superiority of our naval organization and the ability of our bureau chiefs has been demonstrated in a striking manner. One of the most remarkable has been furnished by the bureau of equipment in the distribution of coal. No matter how frequently or suddenly the scene of naval activity is changed, the vessels must have fuel, and it has been Commodore Bradford's business to see that loaded colliers were on hand when they were wanted.

Without the employment of an extra clerk and without the slightest parade he has succeeded in keeping the bunkers of every vessel in the navy full of coal from the beginning of hostilities, no matter whether they were on the North Atlantic coast or in the Caribbean sea, or in the ports of the Pacific or the Philippine islands. At the same time he has been able to furnish fuel for the army transports in both oceans without allowing his coal piles at the source of supply to be diminished.

Some idea of the magnitude of this task is suggested by the fact that within the last four months 150,000 tons of coal have been delivered to the ships of the United States navy in various parts of the world, at a cost of nearly $1,000,000. Over 80,000 tons have been distributed from Key West alone and 20,000 tons from Honolulu.

AN ANCIENT BOOK.

It is a Mammoth Volume 950 Years Old and is Owned by a Massachusetts Man.

One of the recent additions made by George Walter Vincent Smith to his collection at the art museum is of unusual interest. It is an immense book or missal dating back to 1539, in which are inscribed the words and music of the Gregorian chants of the old Catholic churches, says the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

The work in this book is beautifully done, and its great antiquity is evident from the first sight. The words are inscribed by hand in Latin, and the music is written out in some obsolete kind of notation. The pages are of parchment, and in an almost perfect state of preservation. The initial letters are beautifully illuminated.

A single page is nearly four feet long by about two feet wide, and one man can hardly handle the wood. It is bound with boards of wood, covered with leather, somewhat worn, and the brass which is used for trimmings is corroded. The book was evidently intended for use on some kind of a stand in some fine old cathedral.

It is said to have come from Seville, Spain, some time ago, and to have been sold because of the poverty of the parish in order to make repairs on the building. There is said to be but one other such book in this country, and that is at Detroit.

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory Rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried many patent medicines, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try S. S. S. Before allowing me to take it, however, my guardian, who was a chemist, analyzed the remedy, and pronounced it free of potash or mercury. I felt so much better after taking two bottles, that I continued the remedy, and in two months I was cured completely. The cure was permanent, for I have never since had a touch of Rheumatism though many times exposed to damp and cold weather. ELEANOR M. TRIFEL, 3711 Powelton Avenue, Philadelphia.

Don't suffer longer with Rheumatism. Throw aside your oils and liniments, as they can not reach your trouble. Don't experiment with doctors—their potash and mercury will add to your disability and completely destroy your digestion.

S.S.S. For the Blood will cure perfectly and permanently. It is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
