We have it! A new couch is just the thing you want for Christmas. See them at Taylor's.

Your wife needs a rocking chair why not make her a Christmas present. See them at Taylor's.

Rain, snow and lots of mud is not the general weather for Nebraska but we have had all this week.

Lew Clapp has resigned his position as driver of the street car and has taken a position with B. F. Mizer.

W. H. McKimney of Norton, Kansas, was here Saturday looking after business matters and greeting old friends.

Samuel Dyer and a force of hands are kept pretty busy these days preparing turkeys and ducks for the out-of-town markets.

E. L. Allen, for many years a deservedly popular traveling salesman making this point, passed east on No. 16 Saturday morning.

Before you buy a heating stove see that "Retort" heater at Wright's hardware store. It is a wonderful heat producer and saver of fuel.

Don't buy a stove until you have examined those cast stoves with steel oven plates at W. W. Wright's. They are guaranteed better than any steel range on the market.

When you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this, than all others combined. C. L. Cotting.

Overcome evil with good. Overcome your coughs and colds with One Minute Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe, and all throat and lung diseases. C. L. Cotting.

The holiday trade was never more satisfactory in Red Cloud than during the past week. The good times that were looked for so many years are at last here. Our people are prosperous, contented and happy and have managed to reach that condition without the aid or consent of any other nation on earth.

Miner Bros. experienced considerable trouble this week in trying to get a carload of furniture from the factory. The load was shipped from Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and at Chicago the car broke down. It was repaired and again started for its destination, only to meet with another breakdown at Blue Hill. A force was sent from here to repair it and the belated car arrived Wednesday.

List of letters remaining uncalled for at the postoffice at Red Cloud, Nebraska, for the week ending Dec. 22nd, 1898.

Cunningham, Father Davis, Roy Wildoner, Tom

These letters will be sent to the dead letter office Jan. 5th, if not called for before. When calling for above please say advertised.—T. C. HACKER, P. M.

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Congregational church at Miss Hadell's millinery store on Saturday was a success in every way. The articles on sale were neat and attractive and among them could be found presents suitable for the little tots and the older folks and all designed to catch the eye and open the pocket book. Refreshments were also served during the afternoon and evening.

Dr. Moranville and wife met with a serious mishap on last Saturday while the Doctor was out on a professional visit. When coming down what is known as the Dickerson hill, five miles west of town the strap holding the neckyoke broke causing the tongue of the buggy to drop and frightened the horses so that they ran away. Mrs. Moranville becoming alarmed jumped from the buggy receiving a sprained ankle. The Dr. remained in the buggy until it upset and as a result had both ankles badly sprained.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. But early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. C. L. Cotting.

We do not wish to cast any reflection on any of the young ladies who allowed themselves to become subjects for a hypnotists power, but it must seem nice when they think to themselves that they can now be put in the power of any unscrupulous man who has learned or desires to learn this art.

In all Conditions of Debility

whether from overwork, in protracted illness, or in convalescence, the digestive organs partake of the general weakness, and are unable to assimilate sufficient food to build up the wasted tissues. In such cases is just the nutritive tonic you need. It gives tone to the stomach, and stimulates the appetite. It aids the digestion of food, and brings refreshing sleep.

Pabst Malt Extract
The Best Tonic
