body has a little catarrh" that many easy going people payslightattention to it. Yet no class of disease is so difficult to shake off. Many people well advanced in years find themselves in the toils of catarrh. Mr. and Mrs. Collum, of Giddings, Tex., found help in Pe-ru-na. Mr. Collum's letter follows: Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O. DEAR SIRS:-"I think your Pe-ru-us is the best medicine I ever tried for catarrh. I have tried all the catarrh medicines that I could hear of and none of them did any good until I tried yours. I and my wife have both used the Peru-na and Man-a-lin, and we are about well. I am 70 years old and my wife is 66. When we commenced to take your medicines we were not able to see after our work, but now she can tend to her work and I see after my farm.

TEACHES BIRDS TO SING. Bow Young Canaries Are Taught Popular Airs by Means of a Music Box.

An interesting and successful experiment with canary birds has been performed by a gentleman living in the vicinity of Twenty-first and Vine streets, reports the Philadelphia Record. This gentleman takes a dilettante interest in the breeding of these song birds. As soon as the young birds are hatched he takes them and puts them apart in a room where he has placed a small music box that imitates the tone of a canary and is constantly playing the same piece. Here he keeps them by themselves, allowing them to hear only the tone of the music box, so that the young birds, accustomed to hear the same air played continually by degrees become masters of it and sing it alone. All that is necessary to start them when they are silent is to whistle the airs, and the birds will im-mediately join in. He has already taught quite a number of young birds to wing and is now engaged in teaching three young ones the air "Coming Through the Rye." Although they are only seven weeks old they sing the air very clearly, and in two more months they will have it quite perfect. The gentleman does not teach the birds with a professional object, but as a pleasure and a pastime, and takes much pleasure in showing his wonderful pets to his friends.

CHINESE PREVENTIVE OF RABIES

Eating the Liver of the Dog Recommended as a Cure for the Bite.

A French missionary in China witnessed recently how two of his carriers were bitten by a rabid dog and was very much worried about it, says Modern Medicine. Several Chinese who haprened to be there told him that his worry was absolutely uncalled for, since they had an undoubtedly safe preventive against the polson of a rabid dog taking effect, and to prove the assertion ive Chinamen who had been bitten in March of last year by a mad dog were presented to the missionary. He found that Chinamen eat of the raw liver of a mad dog after being bitten, and if they partake of this within a given time after the accident, it is said they will not be subject to hydrophobia. It is curious that Plinius in his natural history recommends eating the liver of a mad dog. if bitten, as raw as possible, and they who could not swallow the liver raw should have it cooked and drink the broth therefrom. It is not positively known whether this remedy is efficacious, but it appears to be worthy of investigation, particularly since this seems to be the actual beginning of the sopathic treatment since perfected by Pasteur and Koch.

Where Women Smoke. This (Porto Rico) is indeed the land for women who love the weed. A few smoke cigarettes and pipes, but the majority like partajos, perfectos, Napoleons, and other rolls of the weed larger than those usually seen in our own land. They smoke them at home and in the streets, at the table or on the balcony, lying in hammocks or hurch. The moment mass is over terest; "I left it at San Juan." and they emerge into the sunlight the first thing the women do is to light a fresh cigar and then climb into the saddle.-Porto Rico Letter.

He Hadn't Got 'Em.

Three men sat over the ashes of a fire in the gray light of a winter's dawn. On the table behind them were a rat scurried across the hearth into the darkness beyond. The three men shifted their feet and looked at each said, "you think I thought I saw a rat. I didn't."

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash venue, corner Jackson street, one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by H. E. Grice.

A Springfield, Ill , coffin factory recently furnished an $600 gold trimmed profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's coffin for the remains of Bozzel Foster, an eccentric farmer of Attica, Indiana, who for forty years would not speak to a woman. Just before his death he surprised all, inasmuch as he had been reputed miserly, by making arrangements for the most costly funeral ever held in Indiana. Among other things every available conveyance in and around Attica, was hired and a free ride was provided for hundreds at the funeral. The grave was lined with broadcloth and decerated with expenive flowers.
