

The Eyes and Health

Nothing is more important for the preservation of good health and clear business judgment than the careful care of the eyes. Defective vision produces irritation and nervousness, and in this condition no person is capable of giving to business matters or to the ordinary affairs of life the attention necessary to success. Perfect fitting glasses will overcome nature's defects. You can have your eyes examined free by Every farmer should keep an accurate account of just what he raises, what it costs, including his own work to run the farm a year, and what he receives from all sources, as does a firm doing any kind of mercantile business. Otherwise how can he know whether it pays to farm or not?

Convalescing

is more or less a very slow process, according to the severity of the sickness. Vitality, when at a low ebb, works at a great disadvantage, and more time is required to regain the lost strength and power.

A populist paper at Beatrice says: "It is not easy to speak of individuals without knowing their environments. It is safe to say, however, that the man who wants work, and doesn't find it, is an indifferent hunter." The good brother should be more careful how he admits the advent of prosperous times or he might be banished from the ranks of populism.

Mayor L. H. Beck retired from that office Wednesday night and turned over the cares and troubles connected with the mayoralty to his successor, Mr. White. I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war, and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GRIGGAM, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by H. E. Grice.

At the meeting of the fire department Monday evening a committee was appointed to solicit the necessary funds for a Fourth of July celebration, and have succeeded in raising nearly enough to defray the expenses, and judging from present indications Red Cloud will celebrate.

At their recent city election Tecumseh's citizens voted to refund her $21,000 water bonds at a lower rate of interest. Only eight persons voted against the proposition. Their present bonds are six per cent and they can refund them for four and one-half per cent. Here is a good example for Red Cloud to follow, and it is to be hoped the new council will look into the matter. This city could save one-fourth of the money now expended for interest on water bonds by refunding and issuing 4 1/2 per cent bonds in place of the ones now outstanding, and as low a rate as four per cent might be secured.

The third Quarterly meeting of the Red Cloud circuit of the M. E. church will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 6th and 7th, as follows.
