RINGLING DAY NEAR.

The Visit of the World's Greatest Shows Rapidly Approaching.

Kingling day is almost here. The coming of Ringling Brothers' famous big circus next Friday, Sept. 15th, is the one subject of conversation. Expectation has been aroused as never before. The public confidently looks forward to seeing a great show, and it will not be disappointed. The parade which inaugurates circus day would be sufficient to stamp the show as the monarch of all tent amusements. This stupendous display engages the services of over a thousand men, women and children, and fully five hundred thoroughbred horses. There are over a hundred magnificently carved and gold illuminated cages, dens and tableau floats. Each of the thirty great sections in which the parade is divided would be a lavish display for any other circus. The procession will leave the show grounds at ten o'clock, and the route will be the usual one over the downtown streets. Do not miss it. It will be the spectacle of a lifetime. The magnitude of the parade will prepare the public in some measure for the wonders of the exhibition. Imagine a vast hippodrome pavilion, with seats for 18,000 persons. Fill this great amphitheatre with rings and stages, and a bewildering maze of aerial apparatus. Surround the rings with a great fourth-mile racing track, and fill rings and stages, track and mid-air with an endless array of performers and acrobats, riders and racers, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the others in grace dexterity and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a noble introduction to a noble show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act, three troupes of remarkably trained elephants, embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscidiens; an inter-national horse exhibit, introducing beautifully-effective high-class menage riding by Mme. Ada Castello and Miss Allie Jackson; a complete company of aerial artists headed by the great Fishers; the world's greatest possible acrobats, the incomparable Da Comas; a score of famous bareback riders, including Micheal and John Rooney, Edward Shipp, Julia Lowande, Elena Ryland, Olga Reed, and Albert Crandall, whose sensational act of equestrinism is performed upon the back of a mule; and scores of others equally famous. The menagerie is the finest collection of rare wild animals to be found within the boundaries of civilization, and the show in its entirety is a revelation of what menagerial ability, progressive originality and unlimited capital can do in creating a great public amusement. Reserved numbered seats and admissions show day without any advance in price at Gotting's drug store.

INAUALE.

E. TURNER AND FAMILY.

The pain of a burn or scald is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It also heals the injured parts more quickly than any other treatment, and without the burn is very severe does not leave a scar. For sale by H. E. Grice.

William J. Turner an old and respected citizen and pioneer of this county passed away at his home south of the river on Friday, September 1st.

The deceased was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, March 16th, 1816, and was at the time of his death 83 years, 5 months and 16 days old.

He was united in marriage in August, 1842, with Martha Kamebrick of the same county. He then moved to Scotland county, Missouri, where Richard Turner, his first and only son was born. He then removed to Hancock county, Illinois, where a second child, a daughter was born. He later removed to Andrew county, Missouri, where another daughter was born. He lived there until 1878, when he emigrated to Red Cloud, Nebraska, where he has resided with his son Richard Turner up to the time of his demise.

He was a soldier in the late rebellion and a member of the 5th Missouri cavalry and during his service was badly wounded. He was a member of the Masonic order for sixty years.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in this city on Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. under the auspices of the Masonic order. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Darby of the Methodist church and the remains were laid to rest in the Red Cloud cemetery.
