Last week we were in error in one particular in our report of the second amputation in the Charles Etherton case. While we did not receive our information from any of the physicians in the case we took it for granted that the party who informed us was correct in his statement. In order to set matters right we will state that the operation was performed by Dr. Damerell assisted by Dr. Beck and that Dr. Walden was present through courtesy of the other physicians.

Sheriff Wells and Deputy Burdick left on the early morning train Sunday armed with an assault and battery warrant to see if they could locate the parties who committed the assault on the McCall boys. They located a man and woman at Endicott who were supposed to have been in the crowd and brought them in Sunday evening but the next day they were turned loose as not being the parties wanted. The rest of the gang were located down in Kansas but they were too shrewd to be induced to come into Nebraska on an assault and battery warrant.

A man who loved to fill his interior with the vintage of '49, and also with vintages of later dates, was complaining of the hardness of the times and the unpainted and tumbled down appearance of his house. And the man's horse, who had stood out many a cold night unblanketed and unfed while his master gathered in a jag, hearing the complaints, said: "If that master of mine had spent half as much money in painting his house as he has in frescoing that nose of his, he might have had it looking like a picture gallery inside and out.—Kansas Mail and Breeze.

A Kansas City judge has just rendered a decision that will interest the young fellows who take their girls out riding. A young man hired a team for this purpose, telling the liverman the fact, and in the course of the drive the team ran away and demolished the buggy. The owner sued the young man for damages, but the judge gave the verdict to the young man saying that it was the duty of the liverman knowing that the young man was going to take his girl out riding, to give him a team that he could drive with one hand.—Beaver Valley Tribune.

Elder Hussong's sermon last Lord's day evening was a fitting one for the last service which Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Winters were privileged to attend with the church they have faithfully stood by for years, ere their departure for their new home at 1408 F. St., Lincoln, Nebr. There were many tender tributes to the helpfulness of Mr. Winters as Senior Elder, and of the faithful work of Mrs. Winters as deaconess and clerk. They and their children will be missed greatly from the church, Bible school, C. E. and Junior work. Many eyes were dimmed with tears at the station Monday as "God-Speeds" were spoken on their departure.

From the disgraceful assault which occurred at the B. & M. depot at a late hour Friday night last it will behoove people who go to take the early morning train to prepare for hostilities by carrying a gatling gun. Cecil and Joe McCall accompanied by their sister and cousin Nora McCall came to the depot on the night mentioned, as the girls were going to take the early morning train for Fremont where they will go to school. A crowd of about six or eight tough characters who had two women along with them and who came here from the reunion at Bladen and were going to Endicott were also at the depot. One of the women who was along with the tough crowd thought she was being laughed at by the McCall girls while they were sitting in the ladies waiting room and used abusive language toward them. The brother of Miss McCall stepped in from the outside and requested the woman to desist when the woman went to the door and screamed. This brought the men portion of the crowd who made an assault on the McCall boys and beat them up considerably. No effort was seemingly made by anyone to call for assistance either at the time of the assault or afterward and it is said that the sheriff was not notified until after the boys had gone to their home in the country and their father had come back to town next day. On the arrival of the train which arrives here at one o'clock and immediately departs, the toughs took their departure.

For county judge the informal ballot resulted in bringing out the names of C. B. Crone, Samuel West, I. B. Stanser, T. H. Quiggle and Jno. May. C. B. Crone received eighty-one votes on the first formal ballot and was declared the choice.

The rules were again suspended and Mrs. E. J. Case was declared the unanimous choice of the convention by acclamation.

At this point it was discovered that the secretary had made a mistake in adding up and announcing the vote on clerk and that the third ballot on clerk stood McNeer 67 instead of 76. Reed 68 of 58 and Cowley 2. A motion prevailed that the convention proceed to ballot on clerk, and upon the third ballot, Clarence Reed was chosen as the choice of the convention, the vote standing Reed, 77; McNeer, 57, Cowley, 4.

A motion then prevailed to reballoon judge and superintendent as vote on clerk had to a certain extent influenced the nomination. This resulted in the selection of a new candidate John May on the third ballot.

Mrs. Case was then renominated by acclamation.

The informal ballot on sheriff resulted in bringing out a list of candidates too long for publication. After several ballots, and none of the candidates showing any strength, the Pleasant Hill delegation sprung a dark horse in the person of Mert Adamson, one of the first Nebraska just returned from the Philippines, and secured the nomination.

Dr. Hall and W. E. Thorne of Bladen were chosen for coroner and surveyor respectively by acclamation.

The ballot for commissioner in the first district resulted in the selection of D. H. Haley of Pleasant Hill, and in the fourth district James Overman of Red Cloud precinct was nominated.

The following are the delegates chosen to attend the district convention at Hastings on the 19th inst:

T. H. Quiggle, O. J. Lum, H. C. Colburn, A. D. McNeer, Jos. Salades, Oliver Hedge, Robt. Harris, E. U. Overman, G. P. Cather, W. B. Roby, J. R. Mercer, R. T. Potter, G. W. Baker.

The delegates to the judicial convention were instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of A. M. Walters of Blue Hill for district judge.

The following is a list of the delegates chosen to attend the state convention at Omaha on the 21st.

Cather was chosen temporary chairman and E. J. Overing Jr. secretary, and U. G. Knight assistant secretary. A committee of five on credentials was appointed consisting of J. R. Mercer, Hugh Hunter, John May, Chas. Hunter and W. J. Matheny.

The temporary organization was upon motion made permanent. A committee of five on resolutions consisting of W. B. Roby, E. Peters, A. B. Pierce, A. M. Walters and A. E. Springer was chosen, after which the convention took a recess until 1:30 p. m. to give committees time to report.

The convention reconvened at 1:30 p. m. and committee on credentials reported that they found credentials all correct and there being no contests report was adopted.

The report of the committee on resolutions was presented, read and adopted.

Resolved, that we heartily commend the administration for the successful prosecution of the war with Spain and obtaining an honorable peace from the same. Also for the course the administration has pursued in the Philippines.

Resolved, that we fully sustain our soldiers, regulars and volunteers, and we fully sympathize with them in their hardships and sufferings, and we condemn the traitorous fire in the war of Atkinson and his men.

Resolved, that we condemn the action of Governor Poynter in vetoing the joint resolution commending the First Nebraska for bravery and devotion to duty in the Philippines.

Upon motion the convention then proceeded to the nomination of candidates for the various county offices as per list in call.

Clerk of District Court was first on the list, and a motion was put before the convention to suspend the rules, and declare Jas. Burden the unanimous choice, but owing to a slight objection a vote was necessary which resulted, Burden 104, Kaley 6. Motion then prevailed to make the nomination unanimous.

The next, county treasurer, was made by acclamation without a dissenting voice, and C. D. Robinson was chosen the unanimous choice.

The informal ballot on clerk brought out three candidates, McNeer of Potsdam, Reed of Red Cloud and Cowley of Glenwood. The first formal ballot resulted McNeer, 67; Reed, 65; Cowley, 4. Some persons say they are never influenced by an advertisement.

It is not expected that any one will buy Ivory Soap solely because it is suggested by an advertisement, but if you have never used Ivory Soap, an advertisement, but to ask some friend about it: surely you may be induced probably will—that she is enthusiastic in its praise, then you may try it.

Millions of people use Ivory Soap; they use it because they like it. You too will like it. There is a difference in soaps.
