

"With this ring
I wed thee."

—Shakespeare.

The ring of love and the ring of goodness should be blended in the wedding ring. A man wants nothing in life that he wants to be as sure of as he does the quality of his wedding or engagement ring. He wants the best—he wants just what he pays for, and he wants to buy it quietly and secretly. Goodness and secrecy are two strong points in our wedding and engagement ring selling.

F. V. Taylor last Monday received a handsome new pair of church trucks, to be used for moving coffins through the aisles of churches, etc. The new trucks are a good thing and will be of great benefit in stopping the crowding necessary for pall bearers to get through a small church aisle with a coffin.
On Wednesday night burglars forced an entrance to the residences of G. W. Lindsey and Al Galusha. At Lindsey's they got some money, one of his fine gold nuggets, and a receipt for money paid on his ticket to Cape Nome. At Galusha's they secured a gold watch and chain. No clue to the robbers has as yet been secured.
In district court this week the case of Oscar Wohler charged with the theft of Oliver Hedge's team and in whose possession the team was found, was heard before a jury. Although the case against the young man was deemed a hopeless one by attorneys and those who were conversant with the case, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal.
The Duff Elevator Company who have had a foundation laid for an elevator building for several months past have a force of men here and will begin the erection of the building at once. This is another good move in the right direction and with a good, energetic manager Red Cloud ought to buy her share of the grain which is now being hauled to nearby towns. A little competition in this line will not be a bad thing either.
The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co. now have their house cleaning done and the first consignment of their new spring stock in shape. The store room has been newly papered and painted and with the new and bright spring stock presents an elegant appearance which is attractive and pleasing to the eye. This firm has a reputation for running a first class store where up-to-date clothing and gentlemen's furnishings can always be found and a glance through their store and over their stock will convince anyone that they are justly entitled to the reputation they have gained.

J. B. Zook, the new stock buyer arrived in this city from Diller the fore part of the week, and since then the hog market has been on the boom. The gentleman is here for business and Red Cloud can now boast of as good a market as can be found anywhere.
Mrs. A. Teel, a representative of the Royal Neighbors lodge which is the ladies auxiliary to the Modern Woodman, is in the city this week endeavoring to establish a lodge here. She has been fairly successful so far and the lodge will be soon organized.
W. S. Bense this week received his new soda water fountain and as soon as the weather warms up will commence serving the public with ice cold sodas. The fountain is a handsome one and adds greatly to his already complete restaurant.
A change of time will go into effect on the B. & M. Sunday Passenger train No. 14, from the west will now arrive at 8:45 p.m. instead of 8:15 p.m. as formerly. No. 13 passenger from the east will now arrive at 8:05 a.m. instead of 7:35 a.m. as formerly. No. 66, freight for the east will leave at 6:45 a.m.
The regular March term of the district court convened in this city last Monday, with the new judge, Hon. Ed. L. Adams presiding. A large number of cases have been disposed of and the judge has given general satisfaction to the attorneys. Owing to the long and continued hours the court kept in session we were unable to secure a list of the cases disposed of this week.
The following was handed us by Rev. Roscoe A. Barnes for publication. "Anti-Saloon League meeting. The saloon must go. Mr. J. B. Carnes, state superintendent of the A. S. L. of Nebraska, will lecture in the Congregational church on Monday evening, and in the Christian church on Tuesday evening of next week. All citizens are requested to be present. Come out and hear the best lecture of the year. Seats free."

Some are of the opinion that as the Nebraska Mercantile Company has sold out their business in this city that the city would lose one of its former foremost business men, Mr. Alfred Hadell. In this they are mistaken. The large room in the Moon block, formerly occupied by F. V. Taylor as a furniture store, is now being repapered and painted and will be occupied by Mr. Hadell in the near future with a full line of dry goods. The public will be glad to know that Alfred will still continue in business in this city, and THE CHIEF wishes him success in his new venture.

This week the dry goods and grocery stock of the Nebraska Mercantile Co. was sold to A. H. Kaley & Sons. The former proprietors, Olney & Gaston, will in the future devote their time to their musical instrument business. The new firm needs no introduction to the people. They have been connected with many business ventures in this city, and the junior members have lived in this community since childhood. The new firm intends to conduct the business in the same manner as it was formerly conducted. The grocery stock, which is at present in the same room with the dry goods, will be transferred back to the room in which it formerly was, as soon as the remodeling is finished. The new firm has our best wishes for success.
