Batchelor's Banquet.

On Monday evening at the studio of Wm. Kellogg, occurred one of the greatest events of the season, being a farewell party given by the "batchelors" of Red Cloud, in honor of Mr. Alva Sellars, who on Tuesday evening left the ranks of "single blessedness," and joined the ranks of "benedict." The batchelor gentlemen went into permanent organization and elected the following officers:
 President.—E. J. Overing Jr.
 Vice President.—L. E. Tait.
 Secretary and Treasurer.—R. C. Cather.

After the organization of the club, and the formation of bylaws, the guests threw away all business cares and went in for a good time. They enjoyed themselves with crokinole, whist and numerous other games until midnight, when they repaired to the Star Bakery where Mr. and Mrs. Wiles had prepared the finest repast ever served in the city. The dining room and tables were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns carnations and American Beauty roses. The banquet was served in eight distinct courses and the bill of fare would have been a credit to any metropolitan hotel where such feasts are made a specialty. The following is the menu as served.

Crabs on the Half Shell.
 Radishes.
 Bouillon En Tasse.
 Queen Olives.
 Southerne.
 Vol Au Vent of Sweetbread a La Tomblause.
 Asparagus Beurre Noir.
 Russian Caviar. sandwiches.
 Roman Punch.
 Chicken in Aspic.
 Cream Potatoes.
 Pickles.
 Lettuce and Egg Salad En Mayonnaise.
 Nut Sandwiches.
 Claret.
 Ice Cream and Strawberries.
 Assorted Cake.
 Raisins.
 Cafe Noir.
 Nuts.
 Wafers.
 Cigars.

After the supper was served, George Overing was appointed toastmaster and the toasts given were delivered in line shape and "to the point." They were as follows:

Where Ignorance is Bliss 'tis Folly to be Wise.—Donald Pope.
 Successful Courtship.—John Tulleys.
 The Joys of Matrimony.—E. J. Overing Jr.

Good Old Times.—R. C. Cather.
 Just Before.—Alva Sellars.
 The club will be known as the Batchelors Club, and the bylaws read that when a member enters into married life, they shall tender him a farewell banquet after which he shall be forever barred from attending their meetings or banquets. The following "batchelors" were in attendance: R. C. Cather, E. C. Emigh, Charles Fort, F. J. Grace, Wm. Kellogg, F. E. McKeely, Robert Mitchell, George Morhart, George Overing, E. J. Overing Jr., Oscar Patmore, Donald Pope, A. B. Sellars, L. E. Tait and John Tulleys. After making the welkin ring until 4 o'clock they dispersed, wishing Alva a life of joy and happiness, and declaring their appreciation of the wonderful effort Mr. and Mrs. Wiles had put forth to make the banquet one of the greatest social events in the history of Red Cloud. From beginning to end there was nothing happened that would mar the pleasure of the evening.

Warning to Marriageable Ladies.
 To the marriageable ladies of Line Township:

You and each of you are hereby notified that you must hereafter cease your advancements towards me with a view of marriage, for the reason that my birth precludes an alliance in holy matrimony with any person of inferior rank to that of my ancestor on the maternal side, and for the further reason that I am now in correspondence with a lady of such rank. This is the reason why I have never sought female society in the said township. Please govern yourselves accordingly. Unless this request is complied with I will be compelled to take the law on you.
 F. J. WOBBERMAN.

Examination Notice.
 Regular examinations for persons desiring to teach in Webster county are held in the superintendent's office at Red Cloud, the third Saturday in each month.
