District Court Proceedings.
 The following is a list of the cases disposed of by the district court which convened in this city last Monday:
 State of Nebraska vs Michael Berry, burglary. On the 20th day of June, 1900, this case came on to be heard, on motion of county attorney asking for a default of the recognizance heretofore given in this case, and it being made to appear to the court that the defendant is now confined in the jail of Adams county, charged with a criminal offense, and has been and is unable to give bonds in said county for his appearance at his preliminary hearing, which is set for Friday, June 29, 1900. It is ordered by the court that a hearing on the motion for default be continued, and should said defendant be set at large that the clerk of this court issue to the sheriff of said county a warrant authorizing said sheriff to proceed and take said defendant and bring him before the county judge of Webster county, who shall have authority to take a new recognizance, in default of which defendant shall be committed to jail.
