

MINER BROTHERS.

A Pleasing Mid-Summer Sale!

WE COULD ADVERTISE WILDLY

and frantically. Exaggeration flows easily and smoothly from many retail sources but claims for supremacy are ineffectual unless backed by facts. We prefer to credit the people with intelligence and powers of discrimination—printing our statement in cold type—fearlessly quoting prices that competitors and all alike may read them—then awaiting the pleasure of the buying community.

You can easily have a waist that is comfortable and fashionable. There are many beautiful patterns with us in summer weights and colors. ALMOST FORGOTTEN.

Incidents of Every Day Life Which Very Few People Stop to Think About on Account of Their Littleness.

We are going to do a little more kicking.—We don't kick for ourselves, but for the dear people.—What we want to point to is the crosswalk leading from Grice's corner east.—This walk is built of stone and a good walk but ever since it has been put down it has been covered with mud.—We do not know where the blame for this state of affairs should be laid.—It certainly can be remedied.—If the walk is too low it can be raised.—If improper drainage is the cause, why not fix it?—What's the use of having a good, costly stone walk covered by three inches of mud?—Somehow or other it seems that this walk has always been in bad condition while the west and north walk has always been in good condition.—If the city authorities cannot look after these matters let them resign and we will find somebody who will.—Owing to the unusual amount of disasters which occurred from their attendance at the Fourth of July celebrations at Riverton and Guide Rock last year the young folks went to Blue Hill this year.—This cuts off Editor Newmyer from having a good item about the boys and girls having to camp out on the school house steps.—Some of them are singing the old refrain, "Only a Year," while others are singing "Rock-a-bye, rock-a-bye, papa ain't here."—We have not said anything for some time in regard to the building of an opera house.—Now that we are to have a three story brick block and a brick hotel, the building of an opera house should come next.—Our home talent of late have been putting some shows on the boards which would perhaps have been better patronized and appreciated had they had a clean, well ventilated and safe place to show them in.—Their last production was "A Box of Coffin Nails" and next will be Ten Nights in a Bar Room.—This play as seen in a Red Cloud opera house should be called "One Night in a Kansas Blind Pig," as the stage was never clean enough to represent a bar room.—The dramatizer of this famous play must have been drunk in a Kansas joint when he produced the stage settings.—A bar room today is as a general thing cleaner than the average housewife's kitchen.—The item of news following is late.—We have been told that the managers of the present opera house will tear-out the partitions and throw the whole house into one room, raise the roof, raise the floor, build a balcony, put in a new drop curtain and stage settings, electric fans, and new dressing rooms out over the rear end of the building which will at least hold the feminine star's wardrobe.—This report is not authenticated and as we are from Joplin we are not going to get enthusiastic all at once.—Red Cloud lacks one thing which would go far toward making the city active in the accomplishment of much good.—This is a commercial club.—The rustling portion of our business men should organize so as to look after the welfare of the city.—The commercial club of Smith Center looks after the getting of attractions that will bring people to the city.—Our city should have some kind of amusement each week which will bring people to the city.

OBITUARY.

Clarence F. Winters was born May 28, 1883, and died June 23, 1901. His age at demise was 19 years and 26 days. Clarence was a Nebraska boy having been born and reared and educated in this state. Most of his life was as a growing boy full of life, ambition and hopes; ever studious and quiet, but ready at any time to enter heartily into any good work about his home, the public schools or the church. His parents John F. and Mrs. Laura Winters removed to Lincoln, Nebraska, for better business and school privileges and in his two years in the Lincoln High School Clarence had done his work so well that he was not required to stand examination being graduated May 31, 1901. The fatal fever (typhoid) began its work of destroying his fine physical frame and promising life in the middle of May and for five weary weeks the battle was on. The best of medical aid and nursing was called on to restore him but the dread disease left him too weak to rally and he slipped quietly out of this life into the great beyond on Lord's day morning June 23.

Clarence was appreciated and admired by his teachers in both the public and Bible schools he attended and was serving the Central Christian church as secretary to the time of his departure. The funeral service was conducted from the home 1408 F street, Lincoln, at the request of the family, by the writer, on Tuesday, June 25, 1901. The attendance of grieving friends in and out of the city was large. The music was under the direction of Prof. N. K. Griggs of the Central Christian church of Lincoln. The pallbearers Messrs. Martin, Hubbard, Hutton, McCulloch, Beebe, Kile, Anderson, and Laverty were chosen from his graduating class. Elders T. J. Thompson, W. P. Aylesworth and Rev. Luther P. Ludden assisted in the services. Loving tributes in letters of condolence and choice floral pieces and cut flowers in profusion came from a great host of friends, classmates and teachers as tributes of a tender love in memory which had bound their hearts to Clarence.

Clarence F. Winters had been conscientiously and carefully trained by his christian parents. He "obeyed his parents in the Lord, for this is right." He "honored his father and mother." He remembered "his Creator in the days of his youth." He "kept his heart with all diligence." He was "pure in heart" and will therefore "see God." If he, so strong, so ready for a long career here with great opportunities of success, must fall in death, surely all, both frail and strong must bow to the fell destroyer. Are we as ready to go into God's presence and eternity as Clarence was? The mourning parents and sister and brother are commended to God our Heavenly Father for consolation and kind providence in this sore bereavement and may they be blessed of Him in time, death and eternity; the same Loving Divine One to whom we commend all men.

The Scenic Route to California.

Don't make a mistake and select any other route than the Burlington when you go to California at the time of the Epworth League meeting in July. The Burlington with its connections forms the scenic line of the world. It takes you through the very heart of the Rockies, past all the glorious mountain scenery of Colorado and Utah. Come back by way of Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Billings. Costs a few dollars extra—and it is worth it. Beautifully illustrated folder giving full information about this, the greatest holiday opportunity ever offered, will be mailed on request. Base Ball at Superior.

The grand stand and fence at Superior's new base ball park has been completed and everything is arranged for the opening and dedication which will occur Thursday and Friday, July 11 and 12, on which dates the Fairbury team will appear. The personnel of the Superior team is practically the same as last season and Fairbury has an exceptionally strong team, so that their games are sure to be very interesting.

On Thursday July 11, there will be a parade of both teams in uniform, headed by the Superior band. At the grounds there will be a few short speeches and the throwing of the first ball.

This new ball park is located just south of the B. & M. depot and only two blocks from the business center of town. A large grand stand has been built facing the southeast, making it cool and comfortable for spectators, and furnishing an excellent view of all parts of the grounds, and we might add, that no extra charges are made for admittance to this grand stand.

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected they need strength for two instead of one. Women, weak, nervous, just able to drag around, find themselves confronted with coming maternity. They have not strength enough for themselves, how can they have strength to give a child? We don't look for the birth of strong ideas from a weak mind. Why should we expect the birth of strong children from weak mothers?

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It encourages a natural appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wish to let you know the great benefit my wife derived through taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. Robert Hargens, of Brandon, Manitoba, Box 23. "It was when her baby came. We had heard so much of your medicine that my wife decided to try it (I may say my wife's age was thirty-three and this was her first child). She commenced to take 'Favorite Prescription' five months before her child was born. We have a fine healthy girl, and we believe that this was mainly owing to the 'Favorite Prescription,' taken faithfully according to directions. We shall certainly recommend it wherever we can."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
