INAUALE.

As the Dutchman said "the corn, he is laid by now."

We have been having some scandalous weather lately—even the wheat is shocked.

Some of our young bloods are to start for the promised land of Oklahoma next week.

The Modern Woodmen B. B. club of Inavale is prepared for anyone now. All challenges accepted.

Bill Labor and partner have purchased a new steam threshing machine. Listen and you can hear it hum.

Mr. and Mrs. Himan Holdredge have returned from their trip to Texas where they spent the winter and spring and are satisfied.

At the school meeting last week Bill Renkel was elected director again and the regular annual levy was made for a fence around the school house yards.

The yield of wheat in this neighborhood is much better than was expected and the grain of a very fine quality. Most of the wheat raisers are feeling quite good.

"There's a new coon in town," two of 'em in fact. Bert Holdredge has them, but they are not the lucky kind, they have too many limbs for that. Bert didn't know the difference when he got them. He supposed all coons were lucky.

The distant roll of the political car juggernaut can be heard and three populist candidates have thrown themselves in its way ready to be crushed. Two of them want the office of sheriff and one wants to be clerk. Some of the most knowing ones think that they cannot all be nominated.

Word has been received here that Oliver Hedge has been enjoying a long sick spell caused by taking a bath in the creek. No one thought Oliver would do a risky thing like that but later it was learned that the creek was high and he thought it would be a good opportunity to wash his feet and as he sat on the bank performing these ablutions he lost his balance and fell in all over. It was a narrow escape for Oliver and he will be more careful in future with water.

The Fourth was justly celebrated at Inavale this year the same way that other and larger towns do. Quite early in the morning Swede Hunter started the ceremonies by setting off a whole bunch of firecrackers at once. A little later Pete Mellhinney and Milt Michael gave an exhibition to a delighted audience of the many art of self defense together with considerable heavy jaw work. Soon after this last exhibition G. W. Olmstead and Franklin House secured a large firecracker and went over to the depot and deliberately fired it off with much eclat, thus rudely waking up Agent Paul who had fallen asleep between Nos. 15 and 144 and was blissfully dreaming of the hour when he would be in Oxford or somewhere else up the road where so many little square letters are mailed to him. After this performance was over nothing was done except watch the freight trains come and go until about 3 o'clock when a good share of the crowd wended its way to the ball ground to see a "match" game between the M. W. A. team and the Rustic Rangers. The game was rudely broken up in the second inning by a terrific hail and rain storm and the crowd had to run to get under cover at the butcher shop before they got wet. In the evening there was a grand ball lasting until another rain sent them all home.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Several of the boys had girls that never had 'em before.

The fireworks were grand—simply out of sight—in a few minutes.

Several couples came over from Womer in the evening and reported it much nicer here.

It is variously estimated that "Butch" sold over a thousand dollars worth of ice cream and ginger ale during the day.

Some of the girls who went home after the dance in the rain had black streaks around their shirt waists about the size of a coat sleeve in the morning.

They explained this to their mamas by saying that the rain ran off the buggy top onto them.

Altogether the day was a success and if, as a result, wedding bells don't ring in a year or two it will not be the fault of the little winged god.

The contest to see who could make a dish of ice cream go the farthest was won by Jim Overman, Ed. Palmer getting second money. Jim Broomfield did not enter the contest.

The slow foot race was won by Henry Simons with Wesley Wilson a close second and Low Olmstead securing third money. Alf McCall had been picked for the winner and odds were placed on him but just at the close of the race a land turtle took after him and to get out of it's way, he had to move up faster and thus threw dust in his competitors' mouths.

GUIDE ROCK.

The new lumber yard is about completed.

Agent Carroll started for Buffalo Sunday.

Geo. Crow was up from Beloit, Kansas this week.

Guide Rock has four firms buying hogs. Take your choice.

A. J. Hayes, wife and son and L. C. Cone started for Colorado Monday.

J. E. Hayes, the popular traveling man from Lincoln was in town Wednesday.

James Colvin writes that there is plenty of rain and good crops around Noracur, Kansas.

Floyd lost all the cattle he had, eleven head, last Monday from eating cane. Several others have lost in the same way.

I. B. Colvin has sold F. A. Vance's farm to J. W. Shall of Bruning, Nebraska, and F. A. has bought a farm of D. M. Hunter.

AMIDOWN.

LINE.

Hot and dry. Mrs. Reeve was the guest of Mrs. Harris Sunday.

Reuben Keagle and wife were the guests of James Keagle this week.

Lee Parsons of Garfield was on a business trip in line one day this week.

Mrs. Ed. Mohler and daughter Mary of Garfield were the guests of Mrs. J. E. Fox this week.

E. W. Anderson has discontinued the milk route. W. G. Shannon now hauls the milk to the creamery.

Mr. Pardons of Walnut Creek were the guests of Chas. Turner one day this week. They were enroute to Oklahoma.

Labon Aubushon, wife and daughter, Mrs. Richard Keagle, were the guests of Mrs. Witwer of Smith county, Kansas, Sunday.

Rev. D. H. Dillon of North Branch gave a lecture on his travels in Palestine at the Dutch Flat school house last Sunday to a large and attentive audience.

Mrs. John Marsden of Rocky Ford, Colorado, was visiting friends in Line last week. She will soon join her husband enroute to Oklahoma where they will make their future home.

Cutting grain is a thing of the past. The whistle of the thrasher engine is a signal for the farmers to get their grain threshed. The Fruit boys are doing most of the threshing in Line at this time.

WOMER, KANSAS.

Mrs. Pounds is still very poorly.

Barney Ring says it was the darned chicken. No more chicken for Barney.

Ans Pounds has bought another farm. Ans will soon be a bloated land holder.

If Homer Beaugard don't stop coming here so often Womer will lose one of her best girls.

Harvesting is over, corn is looking fine and everyone seems to feel good. Wheat is a fine crop but oats are poor.

The celebration at Womer was a grand success. The number of people on the ground was estimated at 3,000. The music by the Bellairs band was all that could be asked for, and the ball game between the Cora and Womer nines was a hotly contested one and resulted in a score of five to seven in favor of Womer. The rain in the evening put a damper on the platform dance and the boys felt bad. Ask the doctor for dance tickets, he has some to spare.

During the rain Uncle Dan got in a mix up, but Dan always comes out on top.

One of the Misses Cooper fainted on the grounds and was unconscious for some twelve hours.

Some of the boys got awful mad at each other over calling some bad names, and but for the timely arrival of the marshal the creek could not have held the dead.

Mr. Sprague from Kansas City delivered the oration. Mr. Sprague is one of the finest speakers it has been our lot to hear for some time. He passed one of the neatest tributes to the past and present future greatness of our nation that came near making some of our old mossbacks blurrh for McKinley.

BYRON.

An old man from the country would not believe that he could hear his wife talk a distance of fifteen miles by telephone. His wife went to a neighboring city one day and the old man went to satisfy himself by experiment with the telephone. He went to the telephone exchange office and told them he wanted to talk to his wife. They told him how to operate the phone and the old gentleman walked boldly up and exclaimed "Hello Jane." At that instant lightning struck the telephone wire and knocked the old gentleman down, and as he scrambled to his feet excitedly cried, "That's Jane, by gosh,—Ex."

"Don't move the men," said the justice of the peace, rising from the checker board. "I have to step into my office and marry a couple, but I shall be back in five minutes."

At the end of an hour he had not returned. A messenger was sent out for him. He was found in a high state of perspiration, with his coat off, his necktie awry and his collar wilted and forlorn, trying to marry two couples bearing these names:

Wladislaw Katarzynskynkewski, Jozevinska Dobrzawitkowitz, Stanislaus Bjordrazekoniatowski, Katarzinska Berkawitzzwzw.—Ex.

"I did not sleep a night for seven long weeks."

That prolonged period of sleeplessness is most expressive of the pain and suffering caused by womanly diseases.

It is pleasant to contrast the medical inefficiency which said "I could not be cured" with the prompt and permanent cure effected by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This great medicine for women establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's medicines to other suffering women," writes Mrs. Mary Adams, of Grassycreek, Ashe Co., N. C. "I had internal trouble very badly until it resulted in ulcers of the uterus. I was troubled with it so that I did not sleep a night for seven long weeks. The doctors said I could not be cured, but I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets. After taking two bottles I could sleep all night, and after taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of 'Pleasant Pellets' my case was cured. I had told my husband that I would have to die, as it seemed I could not live. He told me to put faith in Dr. Pierce's medicines, for it had cured others and would cure me. So it did, and I thank God and your medicine for saving my life."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in cloth binding, or only 25 stamps for the paper covered volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
