FROM ILLINOIS.

DIXON, Ill., July 30, 1901.
 KIND READERS:—With the permission of the editor I will chat with you for a few moments through the columns of the dear old 'CHIEF'. The first thing I will tell you about is our trip to Fuller's Cave, three miles up Rock river. Fastening our boat, the party which consisted of two Chicago girls, the German professor and yours truly, proceeded to the cave, which is similar to numerous ones found among the Arkansas hills, but can not compare with them in their wealth of onyx and beautiful stones which those mountains alone can boast. A spring, the first I had seen in Illinois, was flowing from it and babbling down the hillside. The sides of the cave were covered with names written in ink and pencil and a few cut in the rock; of course we followed suit. The base of the hill was fertile with shrubs and vines, among them blackberry and gooseberry bushes. Climbing its steep sides we found ourselves on a level slope of country covered with grass and trees among which nestled wild strawberries. Clambering down the side above the cave we gathered honeysuckles and other wild flowers. About four o'clock we descended and refreshing ourselves with the cool waters of a spring house, also the first of its kind that I had seen here, we launched out again and rowed two miles further up the river. We passed daisy-dotted islands, on which were seen fishermen's tents while they were out in their boats drawing in nets of fish. As the sun began sinking in the west we turned homeward and passed Steinman's college a large stone edifice standing alone on the banks of the river. The country was broken on either side reminding my companions of Virginia while I thought of the Arkansas hills. Straits of Juniata, My Old Kentucky Home, and other favorites floating o'er the water together with boats skimming homeward and all nature preparing for its night of repose created a scene that was beautiful indeed. A trip of great interest and pleasure to me was an excursion to Whitefish Bay six miles from Milwaukee on Lake Michigan, over two hundred miles northeast of Dixon. We left at 6 a.m. and passed through several stations before we stopped a few minutes at west Chicago, sixteen miles farther and we made a short stop at Chicago, passing through the western side of the 'Windy City'. We saw very little of the metropolis. Fort Sheridan is a lovely place but we did not even make a halt there and had very little time to admire its beauties. Coming to Racine, Wisconsin, we passed by the immense breweries and iron works of that city and I must not omit the occasional glimpses of Lake Michigan in the distance with steamers gliding o'er her bosom having the appearance of white swans. At last we reached Milwaukee where the train stopped a few moments and we ventured on terra firma once more and going to the wharf gazed on the beauties of the lake; as the bell began to ring we scrambled for the train and were soon at our destination. A short walk brought us to the park overlooking the bay and after lunch we went down on the beach and spent about two hours picking up pebbles and listening to the waves. To one who had never seen a large body of water it was a treat indeed and the many beautiful shades of green and blue depicted on the surface, together with the dashing waves is a never-to-be-forgotten scene. Unfortunately there were no boats to be secured and we were denied the pleasure of taking a boat to Milwaukee, but instead took the electric cars and as our time was limited we did not see much of that great city, but I noticed some of the most beautiful fountains it has ever been my fortune to see. On going back we stopped at Coney Island, a village about midway between the city and the bay. There we saw numerous parrots and in a large cage bearing the inscription 'A Happy Family' were old monkeys and baby monkeys, a white pig, a black pup, a goose, a duck, and one poor little lone chicken; a rather ly family they were as well as happy. There was also a balloon ascension and after the concert we took the next car for the bay and on reaching the park found our party engaged in a game of ball in which we soon joined. The professor was determined to stay till eight as it was rumored that the last train left at eleven, but we finally persuaded him to come and on reaching the train found it was the last one and started at seven. There was one feature especially caught my attention and that was the sale of beer on every street and corner and wherever I went I was confronted by advertisements displayed in large and conspicuous letters. The most popular kind was Schlitz, the beer that made Milwaukee famous. Contrary to my expectations there did not occur to my knowledge a single fight or trouble of any kind although there were beer bottles on every side. A boy went through with a half bushel basket gathering up the empty bottles and had it nearly full when he came to our car. News of an accident to the section ahead of us caused a stop near Racine and we were informed that we could not reach Dixon before five the next morning, but it was a false report; and we arrived safely at 1:30 a.m. feeling well repaid for our trip. I, for one was not prepared for the surprise in store for us, i.e. my much loved teacher had been quietly married to the 'College star baseball pitcher of the west' and though we wanted her all to ourselves we have to be content with the new order of things.

GUIDE ROCK.
 It is reported that we are to have a colored barber, Mr. Samuels. Guy & Garrison have sold several corn binders. The farmers intend saving their fodder.

I. B. Colvin and wife were both on the sick list last week.
 H. Barcus' new house is nearing completion.
 J. B. Reeve and R. White were down from near Cowles today.
 H. Bird is in Oklahoma prospecting. Henry Gilham was looking after fences here this week.
 A Mr. Williams from eastern Nebraska was here this week looking for a location and likes it here.
 I. B. Colvin sold I. H. Bird's farm this year for $4,500.
 I. B. Colvin and J. E. Garrison were at the county seat Wednesday.

LINE.
 Some local showers.
 Mrs. Richard Keagle will leave for her home at Cambria, Wyoming on August 4th.
 Laben Aubushon threshed 600 bushels of wheat from seventy acres.
 Rev. Campbell and Elder Hester of North Branch will be at District 8 Sunday, August 11, at 11 a.m. for the purpose of arranging for a grove meeting to be held in the near future. They closed a very successful camp meeting at North Branch on July 29th with 25 conversions.
 The Fruit boys have finished threshing in Line and have gone to Kansas.

If a dealer asks you to take something said to be "just as good as Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Company," ask him if he makes more money. C. L. Cotting.
 The CHIEF and Chicago Inter Ocean are year for $1.25.

WOMER, KANSAS.

Womer had one of the best rains of the season Saturday night.
 Mathes Bros. buy hogs right along just as if it had never been dry.
 Corn is looking fine since the rain and some farmers are still cultivating.
 Mrs. B. T. Ring has been quite sick but is getting along nicely now.
 Mrs. Pounds is improving nicely.
 Emma, Edie and Ora Clark and Sadie Armitstead were the guests of Miss Tenn Pounds Sunday.
 J. Rosencrans and Miss May Rosencrans were guests of Rev. Armitstead Sunday.

Edd Mottes, Byron Gress and Uncle Dan went to Franklin Sunday to camp meeting. Uncle Dan says he talked with friends who had been dead ten years by the help of some of the spiritualists Sunday. Dan says them a, ritualist women nearly get a fellow in the notion of dying so he can be with them all the while. One more trip to Franklin and the boys will be daft sure.
 Miss Ayers is teaching music to a number of our young folks in and around Womer.

Steam threshers are quite common here at present, three in sight at a time.
 Joe McCracken and Mr. Prout have a new power thresher and are keeping right up with the steamers.

Fritz Coats lost his pocketbook and $37 on his way to Womer lately. Fritz says: "Ain't that the darndest luck anyway, it was all the money I had."

The creamery is going right up again and will be doing business in a few days. The loss of the creamery has been sorely felt during this hot weather as only a few could take care of their milk.

Ice cream and pop are on tap every day at Womer.
 Two more new families for Womer. That means two more residences. Womer is on the boom. Come along or your chances to get a town lot will be like BRYAN.

The beauty thief has come to stay. Unless you drive the pimples and blackheads away; Do this; don't look like a fright; Take Rocky Mountain Tea tonight. C. L. Cotting.

THE RACE

Does not depend on the start but on the finish. It's staying power which carries many a runner to victory. It's like that in business. Many a man starts off in the race for business success with a burst of speed which seems to assure victory. Presently he begins to falter and at last he falls and fails. The cause? Generally "stomach trouble." No man is stronger than his stomach. Business haste leads to careless and irregular eating. The stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition become diseased. The body is inadequately nourished and so grows weak.
 Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach and so strengthens the whole body which depends on the stomach for the nourishment from which strength is made.
 There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.
 Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is no medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and allied organs.
 "Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has performed a wonderful cure," writes Mr. M. H. House, of Charleston, Franklin Co., Ark. "I had the worst case of dyspepsia the doctors say that they ever saw. After trying seven doctors and everything I could hear of, with no benefit, I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am cured."
