Word was received here Tuesday evening that Claude Wilson, son of C. H. Wilson was in a critical condition at Omaha from being overcome by gas.

As gleaned from an Omaha paper it seems that young Wilson went to the Metropolitan hotel in that city at 4 o'clock Monday morning and was given a room. At about one o'clock the landlady went to the room and finding it locked and receiving no response to her knocks at the door, informed the landlord. He went to the room and climbing over the transom found Wilson on the bed unconscious, the room full of gas and the jet turned on full blast. Physicians were called and Wilson was taken to Clarkson hospital. The window and transom in the room were partially open, to which fact he most likely owes his life.

Mrs. Rebecca Murphy of this city passed away at her home on Monday last after an illness of several months. The deceased was born in Lewis county Kentucky, September 1st, 1831, and was therefore over eighty years of age at the time of her death. The funeral services were held in the Christian church on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the services being conducted by Rev. J. H. N. Cobb.

A case in which a man's fondness for cabbage may lead to serious trouble for him occurred the first of the week. Turnure Bros. had a car of cabbage on the track at the depot and a man named Thornton pried open the car and appropriated enough to fill a spring wagon. After having loaded up he started out the west road peddling out the cabbage as he went. He was apprehended at Inavale by officers and brought back and lodged in jail. He will probably have plenty of time in the future to ruminate on the sinfulness of stealing cabbage.

C. W. Kaley arrived home Thursday evening from a trip east.

From the way in which one of the present county officials is exerting himself for the welfare of the populist candidate for sheriff gives rise to the remark that if McArthur is elected he will be sheriff in name only and perhaps might, circumstances permitting resign in some other persons favor.

We are called upon this week to chronicle the death of Richard Ferris, who passed away from earthly cares on Tuesday morning. Richard Ferris, was the son of Abraham and Elizabeth Ferris, and was born in Wisconsin January 19th, 1860. He came here with his mother, sister and brothers a number of years ago and has resided here up to the time of his death. Some four years ago he was stricken with a malady which medical attention could not subdue and which caused him to be practically an invalid for the rest of his days. Under the devoted care and nursing of his only sister and the ministering care of many friends he passed the many months of suffering without complaining. The funeral services were conducted from the late residence by Rev. Xanders on Tuesday evening and the remains were taken to Mineral Point, Wisconsin for interment.

Probably no candidate on either ticket is causing as much comment as is the candidacy of G. R. Chaney for county judge. Just why our fusion friends should make such a bitter fight for this office we are at a loss to understand. During the past two weeks all kinds of stories have been afloat concerning him. At times he has been reported as confined to his bed, weak in body and mind, almost dead, as good as dead, or anything else that was calculated to induce a vote for the populist nominee, but notwithstanding these stories, Mr. Chaney persists in putting in a goodly portion of his time on the streets each day and with good effect. While it is true that Mr. Chaney has suffered from a stroke of paralysis, it is also true that he has also nearly recovered, and today his health is better than it has been for a year. No one can doubt of his capabilities and competency. He has lived here most of the time during the past eighteen years and has always been a ready and willing worker in the republican cause. Why a republican should refuse to vote for him is more than we can understand. He is a good man for the place and we have not the slightest doubt but that when the votes are counted next Tuesday it will be found that Mr. Chaney has not only received his own party vote but also a good number of fusion votes.

Are you Mixed on the Overcoat and Suit

QUESTION?

It is pretty hard to know what to do, isn't it, when every clothier in town has "the best at the lowest price," and all give "satisfaction" and "money back"? And all beat the tailors to pieces and save you "half to a third" and all that. It comes down to a question of faith in somebody. Is there in Red Cloud that has been conspicuously faithful for years, whether it sold you a collar button, a hat, suit of clothes, for whatever it was? Is there in town that usually does more than it says? Is there in town whose buyer wants and demands the best? Is there in town that has made prices lower? Is there in town that has built up standards all through its business? When you name the store you have named this store and you can get your Overcoat or Suit here from $3.75 to $14.00 and take no risk.

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE
