Opening of the Bon Ton.

This week we chronicle the formal opening of the Bon Ton bakery, restaurant and cafe, which event occurred last Sunday. This place is one of the boasts of the city, being one of the handsomest and best appointed places of the kind in the state, not even excepting Lincoln nor Omaha. Lack of space forbids us publishing the menu, but suffice it to say that it contained a large variety of dishes, among which were many kinds of green vegetables procured especially for this occasion. Over 150 people were served. Billy, as he is familiarly known, is a hustler and a firm believer in the value of newspaper advertising, of whose columns he is a frequent patron and to which he may point as one of the causes of his success. We bespeak for him an abundance of patronage and as much success.
