Chas. L. Cotting,

THE DRUGGIST

A Ten Dollar Suit!

We mean that the man who wants to pay $10.00 for a suit shall have the biggest Ten Dollars worth he ever had.

We know that it may result in lots of men buying these suits who intended to pay more, but that doesn't deter us when we can increase the values we offer.

Our $10.00 suits have always equaled the $12.00 grade anywhere else. $13.50 or $15.00 would be nearer their comparative worth.

There's no more style in any garments than you'll find in these suits.

The styles are new patterned Cassimeres and worsteds—the right spring cut, but it's the value in them that makes them remarkable at the price. Take a look.

A large number of their young friends participated in the event and all pronounce the young ladies first class entertainers. The Italian orchestra, which had been retained for the occasion, furnished the music for the occasion and it is needless to say it was excellent. Dainty refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, fruit and other delicacies. The merrymaking was kept up until the wee sma' hours and all report a very pleasant and enjoyable time.

Postmaster Hacker Married.

The marriage of Postmaster T. C. Hacker of this city is taken from the Ogden items in the Salt Lake Herald of April 25:

"Rev. W. E. Mason yesterday morning officiated at the wedding of T. C. Hacker of Red Cloud, Neb., and Flora H. Buchanan of Montpelier, Ida."

There is evidently an error in the lady's name, as it was understood here that Mr. Hacker was to marry Mrs. Sophia Buchanan of Nemaha City, Neb. THE CHIEF joins with the many friends of Mr. Hacker in extending congratulations to the happy pair upon their return to Red Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Hacker will live in the Sar Temple property, which is being fitted up for their reception.
