What makes the happy relation between man and woman is an eternally interesting question, and a clever discussion of why marriages fail, presented by Rafford Pike in his article "The Woman's Side," is certain to be given the very wide consideration which has been given to that author's previous articles on the discussion of woman versus man. The July Cosmopolitan seems to be almost equally divided in interest between men and women. "An Experiment in Domestic Finance" is another entirely novel article which will appeal to women, while some twenty pages devoted to the "Captains of Industry" will receive the consideration of men in all classes of business. The Cosmopolitan has undertaken to present a series of brief sketches of the men who are leaders in finance, manufactures and commerce, not prepared in an offhand way, but by writers of the greatest ability who have an exact knowledge of their subjects. While the press has presented an endless number of illustrations of the Montezuma disaster, the illustrations in the July Cosmopolitan, printed on fine paper with the most careful art, give a clearer idea of just what that disaster meant than anything hitherto presented.

Bryan and the Reorganizers.

From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.
Bryan, of course, was wise in refusing the Nebraska fusion nomination for governor. He knew his party would be defeated in any case, and a defeat for him at the head of the state ticket would hit his prestige very hard. The fact, however, that both elements of the coalition wanted Bryan to accept, and the further fact that the conventions of the democracy and populists in Kansas were overwhelmingly Bryanite in sentiment, show a situation which will give some trouble to the reorganizers. Bryan will never be president, but he can and will throw obstacles in the way of any anti-Bryan democrat who attempts to reach that office in the next few years.

Price of Meat Will Remain High.

From the St. Joseph Gazette.
"I don't expect meat to get any cheaper before late next spring," said prominent stockman, to a Gazette reporter Sunday. "People who have thought that the trust agitation would bring down prices are mistaken. I don't know whether the packers have a trust or not, but that makes no difference."

"Meat is high because feed is high and cheap feed will not begin to affect meat prices before next spring."
"The farmers are getting most of the benefit of the high prices. Cattle and hogs haven't been so high before in many years. They are getting high prices because they demand them. The corn they feed costs money."
"Now, suppose there is a big corn crop this year and the farmers have plenty of hogs to feed it to. The corn won't be fed before November. Then it takes about six months for the stock to be prepared for market. The cheap corn will not be for sale as live stock before April or May, and consequently cheap meat can't be expected until then."

Jefferson and Booze.

When Thomas Jefferson drafted the Declaration of Independence he had no idea that 120 years thereafter a celebration to commemorate its adoption would depend, for fervent patriotism, upon the illegitimate flow of unconstitutional booze.

He made no provision in that document against the time when the strong wings of the American eagle would have to be soaked in the foam of outlawry; made no provision for leading the proud bird into the bosom of a "snake store," or joining the "Utopian society" to fire up.

There was a time when the Bird of Liberty could clutch a parcel of pointed arrows and spread out over the stripe-covered shield free from the smell of gin-fizz or whiskey sour.

There was some evidence to support the theory of continued potency but, unfortunately, Mr. Jefferson never got his prophetic eye focused on the conditions prevailing in Clay Center.—Clay Center Times.

Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the womanly function upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout, weighed 120—the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen; then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. I felt I could not give her up as she was the only child I had, and I must say, Doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave today. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb.

Vice-President Women's Domesticity Club of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life, Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
