

Do You Realize What a Convenience a Fountain Pen

is. It almost an indispensable article to any one who does any writing. We have the best.

All 14k Gold Pens with hard rubber holders.

Every school teacher in the county—in fact everyone who does not want to be left in the rut, but who wishes to be up to date, should have one. Prices

$1.00 to $5.00.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Newhouse Bros.

WEEK'S HAPPENINGS

Choice baled hay at Roby's.

W. W. Wright went to Geneva Wednesday morning.

W. N. Richardson was in Guide Rock Wednesday.

Mrs. I. Shepardson of Riverton was in Red Cloud Wednesday.

Joe Fogel has some good light harness which he is selling cheap.

Peter Albright is very sick at his home in the northwest part of the city.

Ludlow Bros. have a quantity of fine brick for sale at their yards north of town.

Walter Kaley, now located at Del Norte, Colorado, is expected home in a short time.

Mrs. George Morhart went to Guide Rock Wednesday for a visit with her parents.

W. W. Wright returned Friday evening after an extended tour of the eastern states.

Miss Anna Jarboe is visiting for a few days with her brother and friends west of town.

Mrs. Grace Wiles arrived Saturday from Orleans for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fort.

For a clean, easy shave or an up-to-date hair-cut, call at Ward Hiatt's barber shop. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. James Brown and young son returned home Tuesday after visiting relatives in Long Island, Kan., for two weeks.

Mrs. E. W. Moranville returned home last Thursday evening after a two months' visit with her mother at Lawrence, Kan.

Miss Minnie Rieber, who has been in Campbell for some time, returned Tuesday to her home north of this city for a short visit.

Miss Frances McChesney, who has been visiting with Miss Beulah Hall in this city, returned to her home in McCook Monday evening.

Otto Skjelver, daughter Ada and brother Hans passed through this city Monday on their way to St. Paul, Minn., where they go for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

At the regular business meeting of the Congregational church, held last Friday afternoon, it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. D. D. Hamby to the permanent pastorate of the church. Mr. Hamby has not yet definitely decided to accept the call.

SCENE ONE—A private conversation. You old fool. (1) You will, will you. (2) I'll learn you to go and buy a lot of cheap Harness and Hardware before you get J. O. BUTLER'S prices on first-class goods of the same kind. (3) Take that, (4) and that, (5) and that. Now you old chump will you learn some thing!

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Read Argabright's surprise "ad."

Chas. Hunter of Inavale was in the city Tuesday.

Frank Sheffer of Alma was in the city Tuesday.

If you want job work of any kind call and see us.

"Doc" Hull of Blue Hill was in the city Wednesday.

Chas. Bushee and Will Ely were in Guide Rock Tuesday.

L. Pyle of Blue Hill was transacting business in this city Monday.

E. H. Cox of Bladen was transacting business in this city Tuesday.

Ora Montgomery of Guide Rock was a Red Cloud visitor Tuesday.

Albert Overleese of Riverton was on our streets Tuesday of this week.

George Clauson is at work near Cowles this week rebuilding bridges.

For Sale—A thread cabinet and a second-hand showcase. F. Newhouse.

C. A. Ferguson of Orleans, Nebraska, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

J. M. Dority of Bladen was attending to business matters in this city Tuesday.

M. O. and E. E. Meeks of Superior were looking after business matters in this city Monday.

C. J. Wilson of Smith Center, Kansas, came to this city Tuesday for a visit with relatives in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Wade, mother of Mrs. M. P. Dixon, departed for her home in Fort Scott, Kansas, after an extended visit in this city.

Person, the sewing machine expert, repairs organs and sewing machines, at the second store. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

Mrs. C. D. Lloyd of Galveston, Texas, is visiting with Paul Storey and wife. Mrs. Lloyd was formerly a resident of Webster county and resided near Cowles.

Robt. McBride and wife came to this city the first of the week for a visit with relatives and friends. Robt. will go to Omaha and Chicago before returning to Kearney again.

When you awake in the morning feeling like the end of a misspent life, your mouth full of fur and your soul full of regrets, take Rocky Mountain Tea. Great medicine. C. L. Cotting.

A. C. Hosmer who has been identified with the editorial and mechanical departments of the Nation for some time past has resigned and been succeeded by J. E. Kesler who has held a position on the CHIEF for many years.

J. O. Early, who has been night operator for the B. & M. at this place for some time, has been transferred to Fort Morgan, Col., and left for there Monday evening. G. W. Overstreet of Macon City, Mo., arrived here Tuesday morning to take his place.

Elmer Ross had the misfortune to lose a good horse Monday night. When the horse was fed in the evening it was apparently all right and as well as ever, but in the morning it was found dead in the stall. The horse had apparently died without a struggle.

F. Bradbrook and Chas. Shultz went to Campbell Tuesday morning and returned in the evening. They went up after their photographic apparatus which they used in the car at that place and which they no longer operate, it having been sold to J. Ross of Riverton.

Miss Charlotte Worly of Lincoln has been elected principal of the Red Cloud high school for the ensuing year. Miss Worly comes highly recommended as a teacher of marked ability. Chancellor Andrews of the State University speaks in the highest terms of her worth and scholarship.

G. Hildreth of Franklin was a Red Cloud visitor Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Hildreth is treasurer of the Interstate G. A. R. Reunion association and came to this city for the purpose of securing brick and brick masons. He states that it is expected that there will be several new brick buildings erected in Franklin this fall.

It is estimated that the damage done by the high water of the past few weeks will be such as to require the whole of the tax levy for this year to repair, as the damages will run up in the thousands of dollars. Work of repairing and replacing bridges has already begun and is advancing as fast as possible. The county is just a little handicapped now, owing to the fact that there is but one pile driver.

Invitations are out for the wedding of J. R. Greenhalgh of Cowles to Miss Emma Truscott, in the Christian church of Deer Lodge, Mont., on Thursday of next week. Mr. Greenhalgh is one of Cowles' most progressive business men and a member of the firm of Greenhalgh Bros., and is well liked and respected by all who know him. THE CHIEF unites with his many friends in wishing him much joy, and may his only troubles be little ones.

Turnip seed at Roby's.

Wm. Hlavaty of Sping Ranch, Nebraska, was in the city Wednesday.

M. E. and G. N. Fairfield of Guide Rock were in the city Wednesday.

Geo. Hollister was in McCook Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

F. V. Taylor, undertaker and embalmer, opposite Cotting's drug store.

Save money by using a water meter Morhart Bros. will put one in for you.

Clara and Mattie Abel leave this morning for a visit with friends in Chicago.

Mrs. Chas. Bushee went to Guide Rock Tuesday for an extended visit with relatives.

A. C. Hosmer left Thursday morning for Omaha to attend to some business matters there.

Chas. Beck who formerly clerked in a store in this city left for the west Monday evening.

John Griffith and wife entertained a number of friends at an informal supper Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. Calmes, an old time resident of this county, is visiting at the home of her father, L. Dehart.

Chas. Spence and wife of Bladen were in the city Monday attending to some business matters.

Wanted.—A good girl to work. Good wages. Enquire of Hubert Neuerberg at depot lunch counter.

Wanted.—A couple of young pigs. Enquire of F. Newhouse or at Newhouse Bros. jewelry store.

C. W. Kaley left Tuesday morning for Lincoln and Omaha to attend to business matters in those places.

Why not get one of those good fly nets for your horse, of Joe Fogel, while he is selling them so cheap?

J. R. Mercer and wife returned home Wednesday from a pleasure trip to Denver and other Colorado points.

Oliver Wright has accepted a position in the blacksmith shop of Wolf Bros., recently vacated by Ira Wolf.

Clare Nesbit, who is now a brakeman on the B. & M. out of Oxford was in the city the fore part of the week.

A good second hand horse-power threshing rig for sale cheap. For further information inquire of Pope Bros. C. D. McMillan who spent a week visiting with the folks here returned to his home at Malvern, Iowa, Saturday.

C. F. Moore of Orleans has taken a position as helper in the B. & M. freight house here, formerly held by W. K. Hayes.

Miss Vance Foe returned to her home in this city on the early train Monday after a visit with relatives in Denver.

Mrs. Elmer Delong and children arrived in the city Monday for an extended visit with her sister Mrs. W. A. Mitchell.

Mrs. C. C. Rants who has been visiting with her son N. S. Rants, for some time left for her home in Juniata Thursday.

The annual picnic of the M. E. church has been postponed on account of the serious illness in the family of some of its members.

Phil Fitzgerald and wife of Garden City, Kansas, came to this city Monday for a visit with relatives in this city and vicinity.

Mrs. Wm. Smith departed for her home in Randall, Kan., Monday morning after a short visit with James Burden and family.

Miss Ella Mehl of Grinnell, Iowa, arrived in this city the first of the week for an extended visit with C. B. Crone and family.

Wm. Brown and wife of Colorado City, Col., came to this city Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Susie Brown.

Miss Vivian Gossard of McCook came to this city Monday morning for a visit with Mrs. W. G. Black, wife of the proprietor of the Fair store.

Machine Oils.

We have only the best grades and can give you low prices.

Owners of threshing machines are invited to inspect our oils and obtain our special low prices in quantities.

Chas. L. Cotting,
THE DRUGGIST

Why experiment with a paint that is "just as good" when you can get the old reliable HEATH & MILLIGAN that has stood the test for half a century? I have a complete stock.

H. E. GRICE.

Amos McClintock of Riverton spent Sunday in this city.

Miss Howser of Dowagiac, Mich., a niece of Mrs. S. C. Dickson, arrived in the city Tuesday morning for an extended visit.

Mrs. Taylor of Benkleman, Nebraska, arrived in the city Monday morning for an extended visit with her old time friends J. H. Smith and family.

The series of entertainments which were to have been given last night by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church were postponed on account of the storm.

Reuben Keagle's barn, south of the river, burned yesterday. Loss about $600. The building was insured for $300 in the Union Fire Insurance Company of Lincoln.

Wm. Larue, engineer of the switch engine here, is laying off this week and is taking care of his little son who is seriously ill. Mr. McKaim of McCook is taking his place.

Rounds out the hollow places; smooths out lines that creep about one's face; woos roses back to faded cheeks. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. C. L. Cotting.

Married, at the office of the county judge, Wednesday, July 16, James B. Bradshaw, aged 21, to Bertha M. Dunafon, aged 19, both of Franklin county, Judge Edson officiating.

Don't be persuaded into taking something said to be "just as good" as Madison Medicine Co.'s Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it. 35 cents, no more, no less. C. L. Cotting.

Miss Carrie Holsworth living three miles north of the city was the fortunate finder of the balloon sent up on the evening of the 4th of July by Hadell & Co. and which drew prize No. 1 consisting of a ladies' shirt waist.

Rev. Geo. W. Hummel of Blue Hill was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Hummel has just returned from Iowa and reports crop conditions there very much the same as here—if there is any difference it is in favor of Nebraska.

We observe that there has been a change made in the officers of the Peoples bank. The officers now are J. L. Miner, president; H. C. Miner, vice president; W. A. Sherwood, cashier and Miss Irene Miner, assistant cashier.

Mrs. L. H. Van Cleave, daughter Nettie, and granddaughter, Blanche Hurlburt, left for their home in Ashland, Neb., last Monday morning after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Van Cleave's daughter, Mrs. Fred Wolfe of this city.

A. J. Tomlinson left last evening for Cape Nome where he goes to do the assessment work on his claims. John says the trip will only take him eleven days far enough that he expects to go down far enough on his claims to tell whether there is anything in them or not. John has fourteen claims in the vicinity of Cape Nome.

Services at the Methodist Episcopal church: Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. M. P. Dixon; Sunday school, 10 o'clock, L. P. Albright, superintendent; Junior Epworth League, 3 o'clock, Mrs. Bruner, superintendent; Epworth League, 7 o'clock, Mrs. Mitchell, president.

Episcopal services: Every first Sunday in the month: Morning, at 10:30, litany, holy communion; evening, at 7:30, evening prayer and sermon. Every third Sunday in the month: Morning, 10:30, morning prayer and sermon; evening, 7:30, evening prayer and sermon. Everybody welcomed. E. U. Brun, rector.

The work of grading Fourth avenue east of Webster street was begun last Monday morning. Hereafter the surplus water from this street will flow toward the east, and not down the main street. It is understood that as soon as the work of grading is completed Mr. Crabill will extend the street railway tracks and keep his cars under cover.

Services at the Church of Christ will be held as usual next Lord's day. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the minister, T. A. Meredith. Bible school at noon, Trace Sherer superintendent. Junior C. E., 3 p. m., Mrs. Meredith acting superintendent. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. Special music at morning and evening preaching services. We will make you welcome. Come and give us the opportunity.

A Summer Sermon on CLOTHES.

We are selling Hot Weather Clothing so cheap that you are foolish to be uncomfortable this hot weather.

Men's Hot Weather Suits, 75c to $6.00.

Flannels, Serges and Crashes.

Men's Straw Hats, 25c to $1.75.

The Prices on Everything Cut to Smitherens.

Biggest Reduction on Clothing, Men's and Boys', Ever Known in Red Cloud.

Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.

THE STORE THAT NEVER DISAPPOINTS.

A Twenty Year Life Policy

In an Old Line Company is the best kind of life insurance.

The cash value of the policy at the end of the period is more than you have paid.

Fire, Lightning, Tornado and Life Insurance, in the best Old Line or Mutual Companies.

O. C. Teel, Agt.,
RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.

Harvest and Cook Stoves!

After harvest you need a Cook Stove or Range. We are prepared for just such circumstances by having a full line of the best goods the market affords.

Come in and examine the line. We are sure that we can please you with quality and price. We have a few on hand that we are making a special price to close out stock. This is a bargain and should not be passed.

Fancy Screen Doors

Stock of Sizes Still Complete.

MORHART BROS. HARDWARE Co.