Grand Island city and Hall county may jointly purchase a pair of well trained hounds for hunting criminals. They have about concluded there that the recent experiences with the Walde-mor Hausboldt murder, the Wood River burglary and the jail breakers have more than cost them the price of hounds. Grand Island may also have a stone pile for tramps and vagrants to work on. They seem to be working a reform up there.—Columbus Journal

What is called an Italian Luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Homer Sherwood, from 3 o'clock till 6, yesterday afternoon to about 60 invited guests. The lunch consisted principally of Macaroni, Cheese, and Tomatoes which being considered the favorite Italian dishes. The guests were treated to some very fine music furnished by Miss Beatrice Mizer, and Miss Alice Remsburg. The rooms had been very prettily decorated in the national colors of Italy, red, white, and green. Miss Mizer sang some Italian songs and Miss Remsburg presided at the piano.

Charles Hazleton and Warren Stoner of Kansas City came to this place last Thursday morning to do some hunting, but the sheriff and game warden of this county got on to the fact and Charley and his friend disappeared Saturday night, leaving in the hands of the sheriff and game warden their dogs and a number of shells. The game laws of this state are very strict and any constable or sheriff is liable to get into trouble if, when it comes to knowledge that game has been killed contrary to law, he does not make an effort to apprehend the person violating the law. The law also provides that an informer shall receive a portion of the fine.

On July 5 Thomas McGinnis was watching a blacksmith at his work, in Hastings, when a piece from the metal on which the blacksmith was hammering flew up and struck McGinnis in the eye, puncturing the eyeball. Last Sunday morning the eyeball was removed. Chloroform had been administered, and after the operation an attempt was made to revive the patient, but it was too late. He never regained consciousness, and died in a few minutes. The body was brought to this city Monday and from here taken to his home near Esbon, Kan., for burial. Interment took place Wednesday afternoon in the St. Elizabeth cemetery. Thos. McGinnis was 33 years of age and had been married only about four years. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and three children, two boys and one girl, and seven brothers and three sisters. He had lived in this vicinity for a number of years and was quite well liked by all who knew him. The bereaved family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.
