

SAVABLE SUCCEEDS

Western Runner Wins Rich Futurity State at Sheepshead

GREAT CROWD IS PRESENT

Most Sensational Race on the Course, and Fiercely Contested All the Way Through—Only an Eyelash Ahead of Lord of the Vale

A New York dispatch says: Savable, sired by Salvator, the most sensational race horse the American turf has ever seen, won the rich futurity at Sheepshead Bay, John A. Drake, a western millionaire, owns him; his trainer, Enoch Wishard, is from the west, and Lyne, a western jockey, rode him to victory.

August Belmont's Hastings colt, Lord of the Vale, was second, only an eyelash behind, while azzod, one of the four Keene representatives, finished third.

The time was 1:14, better than the futurity record over the full course, but a second and four-fifths lower than the best full six furlong two-year-old record down the chute.

Never was more inspiring race witnessed at beautiful Sheepshead, the garden spot of the east; never was a crowd greater or enthusiasm more unbounded. Fifty thousand would be a close estimate to put on the multitude.

The prize was rich, the field large, and before the fall of the flag it looked as if any one of a dozen of the thoroughbreds had an even chance for the stake. Indeed, with the great field that faced the start, the greatest in numbers that ever struggled for the championship, it seemed as though nothing short of a miracle could bring them all safely through that six furlong journey, short though it was, with the crowding and bunching around the dangerous curve of the chute.

They passed that point like a troop of cavalry, and straightened out, came into the stretch in a whirl of dust. Savable and Lord of the Vale fighting it out to the last inch. It was Lyne's good ride that carried his mount past the young Belmont colt at the wire.

MURDER AT WYMORE

R. E. Ward, an Iowa Man, Found Dead in a Box Car in the Yards

R. E. Ward, whose home is supposed to be at Iowa City, was found dead in a stock car in the railway yards in Wymore, Neb. He had been shot through the left breast just above the heart. An open pocketknife was grasped in his right hand, but it is believed he was murdered and thrown into the car. He was about town during the day selling shoestrings, and had a companion, who has disappeared.

Ward was seen in the railroad yards with a couple of tramps. The authorities are certain that the man has been murdered. They are of the opinion that Ward and the tramps engaged in a quarrel which resulted in Ward being killed.

He was a man about forty years of age. He had a broken nose and one eye was destroyed, which was done while working in a stone quarry blasting rock.

BASS FOR KANSAS STREAMS

Two Cars of the Black Variety Have Been Distributed This Year

John Haughey, Kansas state fish commissioner, has distributed in the state two cars of black bass from the United States hatchery this year, and is looking for one or two more before the season closes. Meanwhile vandals continue to use dynamite and to seine the streams and ponds, contrary to law, and the law requiring persons who own dams to provide fish ways is ignored. The value of fishways has been proved this year. For the first time in many years fish of the large size have been caught in the headwaters of the Kansas streams, and it is due wholly to the extraordinary floods which let the fish pass over the dams.

CHOLERA TAKES LINCOLNITE

This Dread Eastern Disease Carries Away John H. Farwell

John H. Farwell of Lincoln died Friday in Manila, P. I., of cholera. This sad information was conveyed to Judge E. P. Holmes Saturday afternoon by a telegram from the insular department at Washington, D. C. The news was very unexpected. It was known that he had been ailing a month ago, but none thought him so seriously afflicted, advice being that he was getting better. Mr. Farwell was in the Philippines acting as a government interpreter.

Will Bar the Tax Title Men

In many counties of Kansas the county commissioners this year will take advantage of the law and bar dealers in tax deeds from the September sales. One provision of the act gives the county the right to take in all real estate upon which taxes are delinquent, and thereafter, until redemption by the owners, the investment draws 15 per cent interest. The scheme, besides being profitable for the county, gets rid of an unpopular class of investors without affecting the rights of the property owners.

A Manila, Aug. 31, dispatch says: The sultan of Mindanao, who was held as a hostage by the American forces at Camp Vickers, island of Mindanao, attempted to escape from his guards last Thursday and was shot and killed by a sentry. The sultan had been arrested after the recent murders of American soldiers in Mindanao, and was being held pending the surrender of the murderers.

As a result of the war rinderpest among the cattle and the epidemic of cholera, agriculture is at present seriously depressed throughout the Philippines. Governor Taft estimates the area under cultivation this year at half of an ordinary year. Many districts are badly impoverished.

The cholera is increasing. Last Saturday 340 cases were reported in the provinces. The total reported up to date are 27,992 cases and 19,540 deaths from the disease.

SANTE FE TO BE IMMUNE

Trailmen Brotherhood May Spare Road Because of Minor Concessions

According to the plans of the brotherhood of railway trainmen, the proposed demand for a 20 per cent increase in wages will not affect the Santa Fe for some time, says a Topeka dispatch. Other Kansas roads are also likely to escape for the present. It is the plan of the labor men to compel joint conferences between committees representing the roads and the workmen. The Santa Fe has granted only minor concessions to the trainmen, and the other roads can not be beaten into line for higher wages with this as a precedent.

Wireless Plant Far Out

One of the latest wireless telegraph schemes is the proposed installation by Great Britain of a combined lightship and ocean telegraph station 100 miles west of the Lizard. It is suggested that a vessel provided with a powerful searchlight, projected against the clouds, mark the position of the station at night. The wireless plant is to be powerful enough to command the fairway of the channel and exchange news and orders with passing vessels. Should the experiment succeed, it is proposed to establish a number of such ships along the coast. It is thought that they will be particularly valuable in the transmission of meteorological reports and storm warnings.

Caught After Five Years

J. R. Weakley, charged with embezzling about $2,500 of the funds of Cherry township, Montgomery county, Kansas, was put in jail at Independence Friday night. Weakley was treasurer of that township and escaped when the shortage was discovered. For five years he has been a fugitive. He returned recently to Kansas and located in Sheridan county, where he secured a contract for carrying the mail between Hoxie and Phelps. Weakley entered no plea at his preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court.

To Substitute Dams for Bridges

At the coming election in South Dakota this fall there will be a reference to the building of dams instead of useless bridges that are now scattered all over the Black Hills country. The law is such that upon proper petition to the county commissioners a vote shall be taken as to whether dams shall be built on section lines, across draws and creeks, instead of bridges.

River Raises

The river at Plattsmouth, Neb., raised two feet in a short time Saturday. Several chairs and other pieces of household furniture were seen floating down the stream, and it is thought a cloud-burst occurred somewhere along the river. The sudden raise made it necessary to put another barge on the east end of the pontoon bridge.

Engage in Bitter Warfare

The war between the cattlemen and farmers in western Oklahoma continues unceasingly. Information comes direct from Roger Mills, Day and Dewey counties of the destruction of crops, burning of cribs, and the killing of stock and ambushing and shooting by both farmers and cattlemen. The situation has been made more serious by the driving in of large herds of cattle from the Texas panhandle by cattlemen who have run short of grass at home. Homesteaders fear a further menace to their claims and allege they have no protection. Serious trouble is anticipated.

The police department of Springfield, O., made strenuous efforts to keep all saloons closed last Sunday. The whole force was dressed in citizens' clothing and watched all saloons closely. Forty saloons were raided, but only three successfully. One place was raided twice, the first time fifteen lotteries being caught and the last time forty.

Some of the officers carried axes and on the refusals of the saloon-keepers to open at their demand, the doors were knocked in. Large crowds collected and the policemen were hooted and jeered.

Naper, Boyd County, Fears an Attack by Red Men

WERE REFUSED WHISKEY

And Threaten to Kill—Mayor of Town Telegraphs Governor Savage for Gun and Ammunition Other News of General Interest

An Omaha, Neb., Sept. 1, dispatch says: Governor Savage has received word of an uprising of Yankton Indians at Naper, Neb., in Boyd county, and the mayor of Naper requests that the governor send assistance.

Following is the message received by the governor:

Naper, Neb., Sept. 1.—Mixed bloods threaten to burn Naper, Neb., because of failure to secure whiskey last Saturday. Five of them fired eighteen shots into town, but no one injured. His first knowledge of the trouble came this morning in a telegram telling of the threatened action of the Indians, and his request for more details brought the above telegram from the mayor of Naper.

The governor expects to have more detailed information when he reaches Lincoln and requested Mayor Serr to keep him fully informed.

PLANNING FOR WAR

Colombia and Nicaragua not Averse to a Little Brush

A Panama, Colombia, Sept. 1, dispatch says: Referring to the announcement from Washington that Colombia had protested against the action of Nicaragua in assisting the Colombian revolutionists, it is asserted in government circles here that on August 25 the revolutionist gunboat Padilla, while at Corinto, Nicaragua, was visited by Nicaraguan cabinet ministers and that there was a big celebration on board the warship. It is further asserted that the Colombian minister at Washington, Senor Concha, asked the Nicaraguan minister there, Senor Corea, to cause the detention of the Padilla, which he refused to do. There seems to be no doubt that the situation is grave, for while Colombia is concentrating a large army on the Atlantic coast, it is said that Nicaragua has sent a note to the other central American governments asking them for assistance in the event of Colombia declaring war on Nicaragua.

The refugees believed that at least 200 lives were lost. It is said the people in northern Martinique were again panic stricken. Ashes are again falling on the islands adjacent to Martinique.

NAVY AND ARMY

They are Engaged in Fighting a Bloodless Battle

A Woods Hole, Mass., Sept. 1, dispatch says: The first hostile move in the war game between the army and the navy was made this morning when the cruiser Olympia, Dewey's flagship, came into port, landed a force of blue jackets and seized a telegraph and telephone station. This cuts off communication with Martha's Vineyard and Elizabeth islands.

The invading fleet of the hostile country of Navyonia is upon us. Somewhere this morning, concealed below the horizon, within a few hours of steaming distance of the coast, is Admiral Higginson's fleet. It was picked up last night by signal men in Vineyard sound in a dense fog, but lost again. All night signal stations along the coast were active in trying to locate the ships, but without success. The wily admiral evidently had slipped to sea to wait until he could make several feints along the line of defense and draw the enemy's fire.

General Greeley stated at 8 o'clock this morning that nothing further had been seen of the enemy. All the generals at Fort Trumbull did "dog watch" last night. General MacArthur was up and down all night, while General Greeley was beside his instruments at headquarters before 4 o'clock. Last night all mines in Long Island sound were connected electrically. There is not fifty feet of sailing water not protected in this manner.

A Fort Trumbull, Conn., Sept. 1, dispatch says: The enemy took Block Island after a bombardment this morning. The cruiser Brooklyn and the battleship Indiana appeared off the island at 6 o'clock and after shelling the place, a collier was sent into the harbor. Later the Brooklyn landed troops on the island presumably to scout for and capture the signal stations there. The cruiser Olympia "destroyed" Woods Hole signal station at 9:30. General Barry reports that the first scout of the enemy was sighted east of Point Judith at 12:25 and that at 1:30 the Gloucester, the first of the enemy's fleet, shot what was supposed to be the enemy's fleet of six vessels was discovered standing in column formation. Five vessels composed the fleet, Keosauque, Massachusetts, Scorpion, Panther and Nina. Block Island will undoubtedly be used as a naval base. General Barry reported at noon that the Recon hill signal station on Block Island was captured at 8 a. m. by a landing party. All signal men escaped except two.

MATURING SLOWLY

Nebraska Corn Ripening With Provoking Slowness

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT

It is a Trifle Despondent in Tone—Grain is Sprouting in the Shock, and Jack Frost May Catch the Corn if it Doesn't Get Warm Weather

The weekly crop summary, issued September 2 by the weather bureau, is rather despondent in tone. Grain, it says, is sprouting in the shock and corn is maturing so slowly that the frost may catch it. Three weeks more, however, will place most of it beyond any danger. The bulletin says:

"The past week has been cool and moist. The daily mean temperature has averaged 2 degrees below normal. The rainfall has been above normal in the southeastern part of the state, where heavy thunderstorms occurred, with rain from 1 to 2 inches. In the remainder of the state the rainfall was below normal, ranging from none to about half an inch; but while the amount of water measured was small, the weather was cloudy and damp, with some fog.

"The moist weather of the week was unfavorable for haying and threshing, and some hay was discolored and damaged by rain. Grain in shocks, and in some places in stacks, is sprouting. Warm, dry weather is needed for both haying and threshing. The wet weather of July and August has caused both to be much behind normal advancement at this time of year.

"Corn has continued to grow well, but has matured very slowly. Some early planted corn is matured sufficiently to be beyond damage from frost. The late corn is filling well and promises a large crop, but much of it will require three weeks to mature. The soil is in excellent condition for working generally, and much plowing has been done the last week. Very little seeding has been done. Pastures continue good."

"The reports received about the condition of growing crops in Nebraska, Iowa, northern Kansas, northern Missouri and northeastern Colorado covers a field up to nearly the end of August.

"All small grains are cut and in stack, and threshing has reasonably progressed.

"An immense crop of corn is maturing in the fields and so far advanced that it is a rule, practically made, and past danger from any usual source."

TRAIN LEAVES TRACK

Many Excursionists Killed in a Wreck on an Alabama Railroad

While rounding a curve on a high embankment near Berry, Ala., the engine and four cars of an excursion train, on a branch of the Southern railway, leaped from the track and rolled over and over, smashing the coaches into kindling wood and causing the instant death of thirty persons and the injury of eighty-one others, says a Birmingham, Ala., dispatch.

Physicians say at least twenty-nine of the injured cannot live.

With the exception of H. M. Dudley, trainmaster of the Southern railway, living at Birmingham, and Roscoe Shelby, of Columbus, Miss., all of the dead and injured are negroes, who had taken advantage of excursion rates from points in Mississippi to Birmingham.

When the wreck occurred the train was running at a rate of thirty miles an hour and had just started around a curve on top of a sixty-foot embankment. The immediate cause of the wreck was the tender jumping the track.

Fighting the Mosquito

The official report on the British African protectorate, which has just been published by the foreign office, provides some suggestive evidence as to the degree in which the so-called malaria, fevers may be expected to disappear as the result of the most careful preventive measures based on recent knowledge. Systematic experimenting conducted in different sections of British Central Africa lead to the conclusion that the fevers have been rendered much less prevalent where the mosquitoes have been exterminated by pouring small quantities of petroleum on the stagnant waters of the locality.
