Keep your eyes open for some candidate to be sprung at the last moment by the opposition forces when it is too late to answer.

It seems to us that it would hardly be necessary to say anything to the voters of this county on the subject of county attorney. The campaign has thus far been an unusually quiet one and there has been very little said or done on either side, and certainly there has been no mud slinging on either side. We have personally nothing against the fusion candidate, yet it would seem to us that the record as county attorney which Mr. Overman has made for himself in the past two years should commend him to the voters of the county. During Mr. Overman's term of office there have been tried a number of important cases, on the part of the county, and in none of these has the county been called upon to expend money for the assistance of other attorneys.

Look the Fact in the Face.

The progress of a bad cold toward galloping consumption may be terribly sudden. Don't let this ugly fact frighten you, but when you begin to cough take Allen's Lung Balm, that stops the cough by curing the cold. Preparations containing opium, merely quiet the cough for a time. There is no narcotic drug in Allen's Lung Balm. Sold by all druggists.

Facts for Dodgers.

COWLES, NEB. Oct 12, 1902.

To the Chief:

MR. EDITOR:—In the Nation of the 9th, I notice a heading, "Pitney Answers." He then goes on to say:

"I have read the Hopkins letter. A portion in fairness, another doing me a great, or rank injustice."

Let us see. We look over the Senate Journal and we find that Mr. Hopkins tells the truth all through his letter, and when he says "Pitney, from our district, was one that made its defeat assured," (meaning the Ollis bill), he says just what he found in the Journal and that is the truth. Mr. Pitney says he has "no excuse to make," but he did make an excuse to get renominated when charged with dodging, he told the convention that he was not there to vote on the Ollis bill; that he had received a letter from home saying his family was sick; that he left the night before the last day. The Journal shows that Mr. Pitney answered a roll in the morning, and again in the afternoon of the last day; that he voted on nearly all bills the last day; that he voted on the bill called just before the Ollis bill; that this was at 2:45 p. m., of the last day. Yet, Mr. Pitney told us in the convention that he was not there. Deny it if you dare, Mr. Pitney, and I can produce the a sworn statement signed by a member who was there and heard you make the above statement.

Mr. Pitney then puts up the school boy plea that had the four not voting voted still they would have lacked two votes. The above is not your first falsehood, Mr. Pitney, yourself and Mr. Householder stole the nomination for Mr. Peisiger from the county convention by stating a falsehood. This, we would have no trouble in proving, by the convention and house journal. Then he tells us of receiving a letter from Mr. Ollis, the father of the Ollis bill. We have heard of this Mr. Ollis before. He wrote a letter to Mr. Peisiger and in that letter he told he was the best posted or smartest man up there. So this Mr. Ollis, of Valley county, has been corresponding with you, Mr. Pitney, and telling you that there were only three senators on the fusion side that gave us any trouble on corporation bills, and that none of their names was Pitney. This latter was probably true, as Pitney had skipped. Mr. Ollis then says to Mr. Pitney that he was over in the senate engineering that "thing" (calling his own bill a "thing"). He then says: "If your vote would have saved us, we would have made a call of the senate, if it had taken a week." O! Lucifer! Come down a notch, please!

Mr. Pitney then says he always agitated reform measures. But he did not vote for them and that's what counts. He then says his faith is still unwavering, that railway properties must pay taxes. Dodging again, Mr. Pitney—Hopkins said nothing about taxes. He says we are pledged to make a reduction on freight rates. This is true. You were pledged two years ago, and you dodged. He then says the fusion forces, if placed in power are pledged to remedy these evils. No more so now than heretofore. Furthermore, we cannot expect to remedy these evils by sending traitors and dodgers to the legislature.

Independent voters, remember this when you go to the polls. Yours respectfully, ED GILFORD.

The Great Strike Settled.

After repeated conferences with representatives of both sides and President Roosevelt it was announced, Wednesday that common ground had been reached and that the great coal strike had been practically settled. The President named a commission of six to inquire into, consider and pass upon all questions at issue between the operators and miners. The following is the personnel of the commission as announced.

Brigadier General John M. Wilson, United States army, retired (late chief of engineers U. S.) Washington, D. C., as an officer of the engineering corps of either the military or naval service of the United States.

Mr. E. W. Parker of Washington, D. C., as an expert mining engineer. Mr. Parker is chief statistician of the coal division of the United States geological survey and the editor of the Engineering and Mining Journal of New York.

Hon. George Gray of Wilmington, Del., as a judge of a United States court.

E. E. Clark of Cedar Rapids, Ia., grand chief of the order of railway conductors, as a sociologist, the president assuming that for the purposes of such a commission the term sociologist means a man who has thought and studied deeply on social questions and has practically applied his knowledge.

Mr. Thomas H. Watkins of Scranton, Pa., as a man practically acquainted with the mining and selling of coal.

Bishop John L. Spalding of Peoria, Ill. The president has added Bishop Spalding's name to the commission.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright has been appointed recorder of the commission.

The statistics of the strike which began May 12 are as follows:

Miners and others thrown out of work.....	183,500

Inflammatory Rheumatism cured in 3 days. "Woman I killed of London first said: 'My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joints in suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition. Had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism, it gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am cured and saved her life.'" Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist, Red Cloud, Neb.

Had Seen One.

Dan Leno, the English comedian, told of appearing before a swell London audience at the house of a lord. The language of his listeners made him feel not too happy, and he was glad to retire to the dressing room allotted him. While he was removing the grease paint a very young peer, who had strolled after him, stood watching the process. He told Leno in the most approved drawl that some of his sayings had really been rather funny, "especially that one, you know, where your wife made a pancake on a gridiron and the pancake slipped through and put the fire out. That made me laugh awfully, because I know what a gridiron is. I have seen one."

Beliefs About the Earth.

Newton, the great Sir Isaac, surmised, although he could give no reason for the conclusions he had reached, that in the course of time the earth would become perfectly dry. Others, mostly De Verne, Professor A. L. Hamilton and the younger Lyander, all believed that eventually the earth would become as dry as the proverbial chip. Even in this day and age the theory has many adherents.

Sweet Innocence.

He—I never saw anything like this tide. Here I've been pulling steadily for ten minutes, and we don't seem to have moved a foot.

She (after a pause)—Oh, Mr. Stroker, I've just thought of something! The anchor fell overboard a short time ago, and I forgot to tell you. Do you suppose it could have caught on something?

Then She Smiled.

He—You always remind me of something very disagreeable.

She—Sir! I—I—

He—Yes, you remind me of all the time I have to spend where I can't see you.

And the clouds lifted.

Defined.

"Precocious Child"—Papa, tell me what is humberg?

Parent (with a deep drawn sigh)—It is, my dear, when your mamma pretends to be very fond of me and puts no buttons on my shirt.
