Church in this city has arranged for a special and attractive "Harvest Home" service and sermon at the church at the usual hours, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., next Sunday, October 19th. The church will be appropriately and uniquely decorated for the occasion.
Following this, on Tuesday evening, a social will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Blackledge, at which time New England refreshments will be served, and the decorations of harvest products, previously used in the church, and other articles, will be disposed of in an interesting manner.
Refreshments, 10 cents. The public is cordially invited to both services and social.

The M. W. A. lodge of this city yesterday gave a very successful entertainment. A dinner was served in the dining hall adjoining the main lodge room. After the dinner, a splendid program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, was rendered, and addresses by L. H. Blackledge, Judge Edson and Rev. Mr. Dixon, all of which were good and were listened to with marked. Supper was also served, after which the drill team of the lodge gave a drill and led out the much-talked of goat. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing. On the whole, it was a grand success and was much enjoyed by all present.

M. S. Marsh has leased the Hotel Royal and will take possession, the first of next month. M. S. says there are either a whole lot of bars in this town or that there are a great many people here who are glad to have him come back. What do you think about it?

Arrangements are being made for a big time Thanksgiving day. There are to be horse races, foot races, walking races and other sports. W. S. Benson, proprietor of the Bon Ton restaurant and cafe, circulated a petition among the business men to raise the necessary funds.

If the county commissioners of this county really wish to be economical why is it that they continue to pay office rent, down in the centre of the city, for county judge and there are vacant rooms in the court house which could be used for this purpose. Why make a pretense of being economical.
There are many other items of expense which could be mentioned to show that while claiming to be economical the populist county board never have been economical, only for political reasons.

Clarence Gross died at the home of his uncle, M. R. Bentley last Wednesday afternoon. A few months ago he went to Trinidad, Colorado, and while there contracted mountain fever. Kind friends at Trinidad assisted him to broad the train there and he arrived in this city just a week ago, in a semiconscious condition. Clarence was born in Box Butte county, Nebraska, in July 1884, being therefore but little more than 19 years of age. He graduated from the high school in this city one year ago and was a most promising young man. He was a great favorite among those of his age and was ever a leader in all their sports. Funeral services will be held at the residence of M. R. Bentley, Sunday, at 2 p. m.

Revival Meetings

Next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, the Rev. J. E. Young, of Beatrice, will begin a series of revival meetings in the Brethren's church in the west part of the city. Meetings will be held each evening of the week beginning at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Young, comes to us highly recommended, and all are invited to come out and hear him.

To the Farmers.

Here I am at my office at the rail road track, ready to buy your hogs and cattle at a higher price than ever before, for I am alone in the business and do not have to divide profits and am willing to give you the benefit. Remember the more stock I buy the higher price I can pay. Bring your hogs to the rail road track, always higher there.

CUTTER, the High Buyer.

The New Grocery Firm

Chas. Reigle and Will West have purchased the stock of groceries of the Hadel Cash Bargain House and will conduct the business in the future.
The editor of this paper has known these two young men for more than 20 years, as perhaps have many of our readers, and we have always found them fair and honest in their dealings, in fact have never heard of them otherwise. We have played marbles, pullaway, foot-and-a-half, and truant with one of them, and have taken a good whipping with him for it. They are both good, natured, jovial fellows, as also they are both red headed. If push and hustle will win success they are sure to win. It is with pleasure we chronicle their advent as one of Red Cloud's bustling business firms, and bespeak for them a generous patronage.

West Caster.

Miss Nellie West of this city and Prof. G. M. Caster of Riverton were happily married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. West in this city, Wednesday, at 5 o'clock, in the presence of a number of invited guests, the Rev. J. M. Young of Tabor, Illinois, performing the ceremony. After the ceremony and congratulations of the bride and groom a bountiful supper was served. They left on the evening train for a tour through Colorado and other western states, expecting to be absent for a few weeks. On their return they will make their home in Riverton. The bride is one of Red Cloud's fairest, most highly accomplished young ladies and has been a teacher in the public schools of this city and in Fall city and McCook, Nebraska. The groom is at present engaged in the practice of law and in stock feeding at Riverton, Nebraska, but was for two years superintendent of the public schools of this city, and is a man of more than ordinary ability.
He is a man of strong personality and commands the respect of all with whom he comes in contact. The Chief joins with their many friends in congratulating them on so felicitous a union.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, Death has invaded our Castle Hall, and taken from us, our beloved brother and Worthy Knight, E.
M. Hopkins, and

Whereas, Our Brother Knight faced the inevitable with the dauntless courage that always characterized his life and marked him a champion of the right,

Resolved: That in the death of our worthy brother, Calantha Lodge, No.
29, Knights of Pythias, has lost one who was ever wise in council, congenial in his friendship and associations, mindful of his obligations, and always ready and willing to promote the cause of Pythianism by extending a helping hand to every worthy Knight.

Resolved: That this lodge tender its deepest sympathy to the bereaved family of our deceased brother.

Resolved: That the charter of the lodge be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days, the K. of R. S. be directed to publish these resolutions in the local papers and in the Riverton Review, and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

half the fuel you are now using, and also show you an article which if properly used will last a life time.

A Lucky Man

That's what you'll be if you buy your clothing here.
You'll take no chances, for we sell clothing for just what it is, ask only what it's worth, sell wool for wool, cotton for cotton; have but one price, the same to everybody, and that price is marked in plain figures.
The bashful boy can obtain the same value for his money here as the shrewd trader. We are proud of our good name.

When you wish to buy, go to some honorable firm —one that has earned a reputation for straight-forward dealing. We protect you from the possibility of making a mistake by guaranteeing a price as low as you can buy clothing of similar grade from anywhere, and should you ever feel dissatisfied, after having bought here, you can always get your money back, if you want it.

We do not advertise fictitious prices. No catch penny device here. A $10.00 suit is marked $10.00, not $15.00.

We would like YOUR trade.
