

THE CHIEF

Published by CHIEF PUBLISHING COMPANY. GEO. F. N. NEWHOUSE, Editor. One year $4.00 Six months $2.00

Entered at the post office at Red Cloud, Neb., as second class mail matter. ADVERTISING RATES: Furnished on application. Reciprocity. Reciprocity being one of the cardinal principles of the republican party...

Take it Home. While the coal strike was in progress tears, large and salty, were shed for the poor, downtrodden coal miner but so far we have failed to find any one shedding tears for the down trodden, hard working, poorly paid school teachers of Nebraska...

Just a Coincidence. A few weeks ago we remarked that the proper place for the county judges office was in the court house, that the county would thereby make a saving of the rental at least and at the next meeting of the county board, we find a resolution adopted instructing the sheriff to move the office furniture to the court house...

Will Submit Questions. Parents everywhere have become imbued with the belief that the High school is entirely to "high". Complaint that the higher branches are being given a preference over the lower but far more important studies is growing frequent each day...

THE OLD RELIABLE ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

What the Track Costs. Few persons know that on a railway line like the Santa Fe it costs as much to renew ties and rails ($915,000 yearly) as is paid to station agents and station clerks; that the general repairs of road way and track ($2,400,000) about equal the salaries of trainmen and traffic clerks...

A stock company is now being floated in Arizona having in view the advertising and exploitation of the mineral resources of the territory in a novel, attractive and thorough manner. It is proposed to build and equip two railroad cars, each of eighty feet in length, and decorated in silver and gold to represent the greatest and best known of territorial minerals...

Mr. Schnake Wins Distinction. The Hon. C. E. Fields of the Nebraska Retail Liquor Dealers' association neglected this year to issue his usual bulletin on the eve of election, warning all friends of "personal liberty" against the republican candidates. His place was ably filled by a gentleman who signed himself "Fr. Schnake, Publisher and Editor of Loose Blatter."

Alarm That Worked. First Office Boy—What's Johnny hurrying for? Looks like he heard a fire alarm. Second Office Boy—He did. De boss said if he wasn't back from dat errand in ten minutes he'd lose his job!—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

She Spoke Too Early. Lady (with awfully painted cheeks)—My portrait is very good, but don't you think that the a—cheeks—are a trifle pale? Artist—Yes, they are not done yet. I leave that to the last.—Fleegende Blatter.

An Interesting Book. "I've had great pleasure today in reviewing a book that is entirely new to me," said the literary editor. "What's that," inquired the snake editor, "a bankbook?"—Philadelphia Record.

SCISSORISMS

By a tremendous burst of speed a special train bearing M. Witte the Russian minister of finance, made the run from Moscow to Vladivostok in sixteen days, saving a fortnight of the usual time consumed. The average rate of speed was phenomenal for that road, being fifteen miles an hour. Six thousand miles in sixteen days is considered a dizzy feat for a passenger train in Russia.—Franklin Free Press.

A man who chewed twenty cents worth of tobacco a week concluded to try a tobacco cure. In two weeks he ate $1.50 worth of the cure and for the next two weeks he used ten cents worth of Yucatan, five cents worth of peanuts, five cents worth of candy and five cents worth of cough drops per day. During these two weeks he also consumed two large rubber erasers, ate the rubber tips from fourteen lead pencils, chewed up a dozen penholders and browsed off his mustache as high as he could reach. He is now chewing tobacco in the interests of economy.—Ex.

Under the heading "Couldn't Beat Even a dead Man," the Bellevue, Kansas, Telescope gives an account of a grim circumstance of the election in Republic county. The republicans of Fairview had nominated B. L. Raudus for constable. A few days later Mr. Raudus was struck by lightning and killed. The local committee neglected to put up another man for the office however, and the name of the dead man appeared on the official ballot. "The republicans of Fairview," says the Telescope, "are stalwarts and they didn't propose to take any chances, they preferred to vote for a dead republican rather than a live democrat, and so they elected the dead man by a majority of twenty-four."

Secretary Root recently performed an unpleasant duty which should earn for him the respect of all right-thinking Americans. A retiring board found that an officer was suffering from chronic alcoholism and recommended that he be retired. The secretary ordered him discharged, saying: "The evidence shows that the officer was suffering from chronic alcoholism and on at least one recent occasion had been drunk on duty. These are not grounds for placing an officer on the retired list and supporting him in idleness for the rest of his life at the expense of the country, but they are grounds for dismissing him from the service which he has disgraced." The secretary is to be commended but the country is not to be congratulated for congress will doubtless pass a special bill restoring him to the retired list with increased pay.

A Chance that Means Something. The following letter from President Hargis ought to open the eyes of the young people of this locality who are ambitious for a start in life. This college is certainly doing a grand work. Grand Island, Neb., Nov. 17, 1902. To the Editor. My dear Sir:—I have read the complimentary notice you gave the Grand Island Business & Normal College last week and want to thank you most heartily for the same. This school was established nearly twenty years ago and we are proud of its splendid success, but this year has broken all previous records, both in attendance and in educational results. If you can encourage more of the young men and young women of your locality to enter you will do them a great service as we are unable to supply all the demands for our graduates. Within the past week we sent out to good positions, the only five advanced students in our business department, one of them, Seward Benton by name, who is a farmer boy and sixteen years old was sent to Alliance, Nebraska, where he gets $50.00 per month to start with. This school allows one year on expenses and more if needed, so that any ambitious young person can graduate and pay for some out of his or her salary after securing a position. I will be glad to send a catalogue free to any of your readers. Again thanking you, I am, Yours truly, A. N. HARGIS, Pres.

A Startling Surprise. Very few could believe in looking a A. J. Bondney, head of the famous syndicate of Tulsa, Ind., that to ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as to be unable to move. But a wonderful change took place in him: "I feel better," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them, only 50c. at C. L. Cotting's drug store.

Asleep Amid Flames. Breakin' into a blazing home, some firemen lately dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption gives perfect protection against all throat, chest, and lung troubles. Keep it near, and avoid suffering, death, and doctor's bills. A teaspoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and life-saving, its guaranteed to satisfy by C. L. Cotting. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

That New Book on the Big Horn Basin. Is all the press and ready for distribution. It is a little bit of the best publication descriptive of this wonderful section of Wyoming yet issued. It gives brief glimpses of its farms, gardens, and its ranches, irrigating canals, oil fields and a word about the golden opportunities. Illustrated by thirty-one splendid illustrations from photographs. Free to any address on request.—J. FRANCIS, G. P. A., Burlington Route, Omaha, Neb.

How to Get Rid of a Cold. "Sniff I ever be rid of my cold?" This is the daily question of a man racked by a cough that seems to tear his lungs. Let him cheer up and take Allen's Lung Balm. This remedy not merely overcomes ordinary coughs and colds, but even asthmatic, but it is recommended even in the first stages of consumption. C. L. Cotting.

The Great American Climate. On the heels of a original day comes a howling blizzard and the next thing you know the weather is spring-like again. No wonder people have colds and sore throats and stiff backs. Luckily, Perry Davis' Painkiller is at hand to give relief. Take it liberally and rub it into the aching flesh. All druggists sell it. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. C. L. Cotting.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. "If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for. "In consulting with my druggist he advised McEire's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me." Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
