Miner Brothers

WALNUT CREEK.

The snow came too soon for all of our farmers to get their corn out

School is doing finely under the guidance of our teacher, Mr Shannon

The road work at Cedar Gulch has been postponed until spring It will be a great improvement

Misses Minnie and Bessie Whiteley left Monday morning for a visit with friends and relatives in Missouri.

Miss Mabel Noble, who has been visiting with relatives in Southern Kansas returned home last Thursday night

Tom Blankenbaker is clearing away the sod part from the frame house formerly occupied by Mr Osbourn preparatory to moving it to where he now lives.

The few lucky people who have sleighs are enjoying themselves this winter This is the finest snow fall that has been witnessed in this state for a good many years.

The box supper at No 69 last Thursday night was a good deal more of a success than the one of a week before A good program was rendered, which was enjoyed by everyone.

STATE CREEK

Dennis McCartney and wife visited on the creek recently

Sam Heaton was on the creek a few days since, buying stock

The Pleasant Dale school will commence again next month, after an extended vacation

Messrs Mountford and Scrivner sold their hogs in Red Cloud last week at $5 65 per hundred

Albert Scrivner has three corn gathering wagons in his field. He planted 140 acres and the yield is good.

Shelling has commenced and corn is selling at 30 cents. The cobs furnish splendid fuel with which to kindle fires these cold mornings

J T. Fruit and sons are still threshing grain and shredding corn, Kaffir corn and cane There are yet a number on the creek who have not threshed.

Alf McCall, one of our best farmers and stock raisers, was prospecting amoung us last week He purchased 1000 bushels of corn of George Mountford at 30 cents per bushel

Wm Scrivner is building a new barn for Clar Fair, while L N. Fitzgerald and O A. Rovalt are erecting a similar structure for the old gentleman Fair The latter is nearing completion

The birthday dinner given at the home of George Mountford recently was well attended The old gentleman was presented with a fine watch by his wife which she had purchased for the occassion.

W. A Rosencrans is preparing to build an addition to his barn. Many new granaries and cribs may be seen all over the country. Surely, the farmers must have something to put into them, else why all these improvemen's?

Gathering corn is the order of the day Some of the farmers have finished, some are half done and some are none ahead, having fed it as fast as they gathered it The yield is much lighter than was expected, it running as low as twenty bushels per acre, while some claim from forty to fifty bushels.

Clark Stevens is a lucky man. He recently held the ticket which entitled him to a fine watch at Newhouse Bros' jewelry store in Red Cloud. On one other occasion he drew a key which unlocked a drawer in a store in Red Cloud which contained twenty-five silver dollars. It is scmetimes better to be born lucky than rich.

The Wesley quarterly meeting held at Pleasant Dale recently by Elder Hester of North Branch, Kansas, assisted by Rev Campbell, the pastor, was well attended, some from quite a distance being present As the house is too small in which to hold meetings, the writer would suggest that a church be built at or near that place in the not distant future.
