

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

HAD BACKING OF CONGRESS.

Story Illustrates Childishness and Crudity of the Negro.

Prof. Hall, the noted psychologist and president of Clark University, tells the following at a Y illustrative of the childish faith and credulity of the negro.

It appears that Prof. Hall by invitation visited a negro church. The preacher was most earnest and impressive in his eulogies of the Baptist religion. He was bent on instilling in the minds of the members of his flock the idea that the Baptist religion was the only religion.

With the recital of each virtue of that denomination he waxed more eloquent. Finally, leaning forward and with bated breath, he closed with this forcible argument:

"Brethren and sisters, I now tell you why de Baptist religion am de best. First, because it am, second, because dere ain't no odder religion, and, thirdly and lastly (with emphasis), my brethren, it am de only religion because it am entered according to de act of Congress!"

This last assertion aroused and impressed his congregation completely, says the New York Times. But it somewhat astonished Prof. Hall, who found later upon inquiry that the minister justified his declaration by the fact that on a Baptist tract that had found its way into his hands were the customary words, "Entered according to the act of Congress."

THE RETIRED BURGLAR.

Of the Deathlike Stillness Following the Stopping of a Clock at Night.

"Ever hear a clock stop in the middle of the night?" said the retired burglar. "I did, once, and I never was much more scared by anything, for a minute, in my life."

"I'd just picked up a watch that was layin' on the top of a bureau in a house that I was in when all of a sudden there seemed to drop right down, somehow, a stillness that was like death; and I found myself standing there holding that watch and looking around in the dark in all directions expecting something terrible to happen; and scared?"

"Why, for a minute I was scared almost out of my senses. And then all of a sudden it struck me that a clock I'd been hearing ticking away good and strong up to that minute in the room back of the one I was in had stopped.

"That's all, but that was enough for me, and I just slid out."

"I like a quiet house, but I don't like one with that kind of stillness in it; and then, sometimes folks are woke up by a clock stopping just about as quick as they could be by the firing of a gun."

Wolves in Northern Michigan.

Wolves are becoming so numerous in the woods of the upper peninsula of Michigan that about as many deer are killed by them in the closed season as there are by hunters in the open season. It is suggested that the bounty be made $25 per head, as men would then make it a business to kill them for the money there would be in it, and before long the species would be practically extinct, as far as Michigan was concerned.

Women Won from Tight Clothing.

In his opening address as president of the twelfth annual conference of the Physical Culture association the other day in New York Dr. Dudley Sargent of Harvard declared his belief that "lawn tennis, golf and cycling have done more to win women away from tight clothing than all the past century's lecturing and writing." About 150 delegates from all sections of the country applauded the idea.

Women in British Mail Service.

The British postal service finds employment for 34,000 women out of 167,000 officers, and over 19,000 of these women are engaged, chiefly in the provinces, as assistants to postmasters. There are not many ranks closed to women. No fewer than 145 head postmistresses are to be found in the provinces, and more than one-third of the sub-postmasterships are entrusted to women.

Paris Gibson's Honesty.

Montana's new senator, Paris Gibson, is a popular man in Minneapolis, Minn. He started the first woolen mill in that city, but failed in the panic of 1877, owing his employees nearly $10,000. Soon after Gibson went to Montana and a decade later returned to Minneapolis and paid off every cent of his indebtedness, with interest at 7 per cent.

Some Iowa Election Figures.

There are few socialists in Iowa, but Eugene Debs polled 1,643 votes in the Hawkeye State last year for president. Of these 540 were cast in Scott county, which includes the city of Davenport, with a considerable German population. The vote for Woolley, Prohibitionist, in Scott county, was 68 only.

City Proud of Crematory.

There was recently opened at Hull, England, a municipal crematory. It is the first institution of its kind to be built and operated by a municipal undertaking. The mayor of Hull, in opening the new crematory, spoke of it as an institution of which the city had good reason to be proud.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

From the New York Press.

You couldn't get a woman to go on a north pole expedition without a low cut gown, in case she had to go to a reception there.

It's terrible risky to forget you're married when your wife is around.

It's very foolish for a woman to lace so tight that when she gets hugged it doesn't seem any different.

It takes more courage to admit one is afraid of his wife than to pretend not to be.

It takes heroism to be a good husband when he has ceased to be a loving one.

Before she is in love a girl believes she could never be so bold as to go on a honeymoon.

It is perfectly useless for a girl to take a muff when she goes riding, for she can't use it when she drives and if he needed it it would be too ridiculous to put a muff around her waist.

The cup that cheers the woman fears.

It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for one to go through the pockets of a rich man.

The shortest road the world travels is the road to the poorhouse.

It seems awful hard to save the money one comes by honestly.

No boy ever picks out the time for feeling so sick he can't get up for his breakfast on a day when the skating is good.

The only people who don't break good resolutions are those who never make them.

The only thing that is prouder than a youth who takes his first shave is the school girl who first discovers it.
