The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart dis-ease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will at tack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and over-comes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Elaine Roze's Fashion Letter.

It is a logical proposition that tremendous popularity usually leads to a revulsion in the taste of the fastidious, but for the vogue of the shirtwaist bo such revulsion is yet in sight. In fact the shirtwaist is more universally a favorite then ever before.

As to the correct cut, Forsythe models show a longer shoulder seam than last season A snug fit over the chest is insured by the narrow plaitsimple shirtwaist sleeves are finished with a smart stiff cuff.

For wear with these smart spring shirtwaists nothing is in better form than the stunning white pique coat. which is brought around in f ont and crossed in the style of the English square. The simplicity of this style is most becoming to some faces, but for her who finds it too severe there were shown with these waists some pretty little conceits in embroided linen and Japanese drawnwork.

My other illustration shows one of the latest models for miladi's negligee wear. It is one of those bewitching little garments that are taking the place of the once regal tea gown, ex pressing sweet simplicity rather than elaboration. Composed of robins egg blue peau de crepe, it makes a particulary attractive little kimona, and while the colorings in this lovely material are exquisite, particularly in the creamy pink, pale gold and champagne shades, cream and oyster white are equally modish, and have the additional virtue of being washable

Just now the fashionable woman's figure is at its best a triumph, owing to the straight front corset, which in conservative models, such the C B. a la spirite, have assisted women to correct Dame Nature's disposal of surplus flesh. The fashionable waist is not too small, but is supple and while it has a straightfront line, shows a well defined hip and back curve. ELAINE ROZE

HOW HE BECAME A LAWYER

The Story of John Sherman's Admission to the Bar.

When John Sherman was quite young he was taken into the law office of his brother Characs at Mansfield, O., to help about the office and make himself generally useful. One day when he was in his twenty-first year he took Charles one side and quietly asked him for a loan of $50.

"What!" Charles exclaimed. "What do you intend doing with so much money ?"

"I am going to Columbus to be admitted to the bar," John replied. Charles was greatly surprised, as John had never asked him for any advice regarding the profession nor had he ever appeared to be interested to any extent in the study of law. "You can't be admitted to the bar without some knowledge of the law," said Charles.

John maintained that he knew more about law than some others and assured his brother that he would try to raise the money somewhere. "You know," he added, "It will be necessary for me to have respectable clothes and enough money to pay my traveling and hotel expenses."

Charles finally ordered the clothes and provided him with the necessary money. At Columbus on the day he became of age John was admitted to the bar. On his return he said to Charles:

"I am going to Iowa to practice law." Charles remonstrated with him.

"I don't think we could keep bouse without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and siways ready to make a person well and happy."-JAMES HALL, Jack-sonville, III.

"There is room for both of us to prac tice law here in Mansfield," Charles told him.

They then and there became partners and continued to practice together until the formation of the Republican party, when John was sent from the Mansfield district as a representative in congress.

Later he was elected to the United States senate, and the balance of his life became a very important and interesting part of the history of his country .-- Washington Star.
