Lincoln Letter.

LINCOLN, NEB., April 6. Governor Mickey has commuted the sentence of three years imposed upon John Patterson of Hall county to 2 years, 4 months and 6 days, and Patterson has been released. The Governor took this action because the wife of the prisoner was in feeble health and destitute circumstances and Patterson, who has been a model prisoner and one of the best workers in the penitentiary, promised solemnly to care for his family and keep out of trouble. He was sent up for a small robbery. The judge who sentenced him and the attorney who prosecuted, joined in a plea for his release.

Though for some unaccountable reason Governor Mickey has been advertised as a stern and unyielding executive, the fact is that he has issued about thirty pardons, paroles and commutations in less than two years. However, these official favors have not been distributed right and left but each application has been given careful consideration and few if any papers have been issued before the governor had acquainted himself with every incident connected with the crime, and held one or more interviews with the applicant. That his judgment has not been faulty is proved by the fact that but one of the successful applicants has been returned to prison, and as he broke parole and ran away to marry a charming widow it must be admitted that his conduct

Sixty residents of Dawes county have petitioned the state commission to plant a few thousand brook and rainbow trout in White river. The stream was stocked with 35,000 fry last year, and indications are that they are doing well. The present intention is to restock the river this year.

In response to numerous suggestions that he name the brands of cat-snip and canned goods which are absolutely pure, Deputy Food Commissioner Thompson explains that the state chemist has not yet examined all of the brands on the market, consequently could not recommend one good article for fear of doing an injustice to the maker of another brand of equal merit.

State Veterinarian Thomas has recommended a lime and sulphur dip for cattle infected with lice, mange and other troubles of that nature and insists that the same shall be applied the moment the ailment is known to exist in a herd. The statutes give the veterinarian authority to prescribe treatment and fixes a $50 penalty for refusing or neglecting to follow his suggestions.

A short time after the promulgation of the order representatives of firms engaged in the manufacture and sale of patent dips appealed to Dr. Thomas and Governor Mickey asking that the order be rescinded or modified for this season at least, as they had sold thousands of pounds of their preparation for spring delivery.

Dr. Thomas answered that his order was written for the purpose of protecting the Nebraska stockmen in whose welfare he was chiefly concerned, that the formula prescribed was the most effective of any known, and was endorsed by the agricultural department after years of practical experiments, and that as the ingredients were inexpensive and easily to be procured he could not see why his order should be rescinded, even if a few manufacturers should suffer some loss through it.

It is understood that Governor Mickey upheld Dr. Thomas' course.

The state banking board, through Secretary Royse and Attorney General Prout, has served notice upon all agents for tontine, and so called "home investment" companies which are not authorized to do business in Nebraska that the collection of money on contracts already made is construed to be "doing business" and that agents who persist in violating the law will be prosecuted. The state law gives the board a great deal of discretion in dealing with such companies and there is no appeal from its decision, if its officers correctly understand the statute.

Commissioner of Labor Bush is mailing out letters of inquiry to county assessors requesting statistics and information concerning the amount of land sold in their respective counties and the total value of land sold with the average price per acre. These statistics are desired because of the constant demand for such information from prospective immigrants.

Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy of Omaha will conduct a restaurant at the St. Louis exposition in which will be served nothing but pure, unadulterated Nebraska products. Mrs. MacMurphy will visit Lincoln next week and consult the records of the state food commission in order to assure herself as to what brands of goods manufactured within the state are deserving of a little free advertising at the big fair.

Nebraska has had two presidential candidates within eight years, and may have another this fall. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Bently have been honored with presidential nominations and now Mr. A. G. Wolfenbarger is spoken of as a worthy leader of the Prohibition forces.

The open season for all fish other than trout commenced April 1. It will be lawful to capture trout after June 1. The duck season will be closed on the 15th, to remain so until after the breeding season.

On April 10, six of the nine supreme court commissioners will be "legislated out of office," Commissioners Ames, Letton and Oldham remaining.

Game commissioner "Nick" Carter is in buoyant spirits these days because he believes that he has snared the king of all the sandhill poachers, A. E. Brigham, of Oconto, merchant, rancher, gunner, and alleged pot hunter and market shipper has been arrested charged with having shipped 800 prairie chickens to Chicago last December. The birds are said to have been concealed in a canyon until ready for transportation, then packed into a car of baled hay and consigned to a commission firm at Chicago.

well replied. "Why didn't you tell me?" the indignant purchaser asked. "Well," Cirtwell said, "the man I bought the horse of, didn't say anything to me about it, and I thought meby he didn't want it known."

There is a good joke on an Atchison grocer: As an easter attraction, he fixed up a lot of nests and eggs in his front window. The idea was a good one, but he put roosters on the nests!

Treat a boy with the same consideration and politness you would treat a grown person. Every man has recollections of unfairness and inconsideration to which he was subjected when he was a boy. Bring up the subject, and every man will relate wrongs of his youth which cut him deeply, and which never ceased to rankle in his bosom. No doubt some of the meanness in men got its start in the bad blood germinated in their youth.
