

Ayer's

This falling of your hair! Stop it, or you will soon be bald. Give your hair some Ayer's Hair Vigor. The falling will stop, the hair will grow, and the scalp will be clean and healthy. Why be satisfied with poor hair when you can make it rich?

Hair Vigor

My hair nearly all came out. I then tried Ayer's Hair Vigor and only one bottle stopped the falling. New hair came in thick and not a little curly. — Mrs. L. M. BENTLEY, Saratoga, N. Y.

Thick Hair

The Barker Trial

(Continued from First Page)

The finding of the bodies on the Friday following.

Chas. Renkel, the 18 year old brother of Miss Lizzie Renkel, was the next witness called and stated that he saw Frank Barker Sunday night at 12 o'clock, that being the time at which he returned home, also stated Frank showed him the revolver and asked him if it was not a "daisy," to which he answered "yes," but his sister said it was no good as it was not loaded, to which Frank replied that he had loaded the gun in his buggy. Witness said he had never before seen a revolver in Frank's possession.

Paul Pope was the next witness and stated that he never knew Frank Barker, but saw him in the hardware store of Pope Bros on Saturday, January 30, and that he had sold to Frank a 38 caliber Harrington and Richards revolver and a box of Smith & Wesson shells of same caliber. Frank said he needed a gun, as he was going out west, and Paul told him it would be a nice thing to have if he wanted to shoot some one. The revolver with which the deed is supposed to have been committed was then handed to Pope, but he could not be positive that it was the identical revolver which he had sold to Frank, as there were no marks or numbers to distinguish it from any other of the same make and caliber. Witness was shown a box of shells which he identified as the box which he had sold to Frank Barker. He identified it by the cost and selling price marked on the box, which he said was in the handwriting of Geo. Pope. The cost mark was $8.00 and selling price 75 cents; said he thought it was one of an invoice of four boxes which they received in January. On cross examination he could not positively identify it as the box which he had sold to Frank Barker, but fixed time of selling gun at during noon hour of Saturday, January 30, and could identify Frank Barker as being the person to whom he had sold such a revolver and shells on that date.

Geo. Pope was then called. He saw Frank Barker in his store about noon on January 30. There had been another young man in the store just previously looking at some revolvers. Heard Paul Pope talking to Frank about selling him a revolver, but was not near by when the gun was sold, but knew from the cash book that Paul had sold the gun. He had seen the defendant before. Was shown the revolver in evidence, but could not positively identify it as the one sold, but said it was the same make and pattern. He identified the cartridge box by the cost mark and selling price, which were in his own handwriting. The box of cartridges were from an invoice of four boxes which they had received early in January, and of which they had sold but the one box. He first became aware of the identity of Frank Barker through a photograph in the possession of Ross Sellars, which showed Frank Barker and the Heaton boys in a group. Cross-examination resulted in no new developments. Witness positively identified Frank Barker as the man to whom the gun had been sold.

M. S. A. F. Hartwell testified to having seen Frank Barker and Lizzie Renkel at church on Sunday night. Monday evening Frank told her that he had been to Dan's home about midnight Sunday, and found them packing their goods preparatory to starting for Denver, at which he was very much surprised. Frank told her that Dan and Alice had been making arrangements for six months to go to Colorado. He also told her that he had bought Dan out, having borrowed $250 in Red Cloud. Frank also told her that one of the conditions of the sale was that if Dan and Alice returned from Denver within a year they were to have their property back. Mrs. Hartwell, who was an intimate acquaintance of the murdered couple, testified that both of them had told her of their arrangements for their spring work and had said nothing about leaving the country. Frank told her that he went to Dan's Sunday night, so Dan and Alice could get an early start Monday morning, saying he had driven them to Red Cloud early Monday morning, but they came back in the evening after their trunk and clothes, which they took to Red Cloud in a wagon that night. Among other things, Frank told witness that he paid Dan and Alice $25 for their chickens. Witness thought it queer they should come to Inavale three times and not tell her good-by; also that Frank had told her Dan and Alice would go to the home of Charles McCord in Denver, which she thought queer, as they were not on good terms with each other. Alice Barker had lived in the Hartwell family three years before marriage.

L. H. BLACKLEDGE,
Assistant Prosecuting Attorney.

Guy Barker, the 18 year old brother of the accused said he saw Frank at his father's home on the night of January 31 about 2 a. m. His mother had asked Frank if he was going to stay the rest of the night. Frank replied that he was going to Dan's to spend the rest of the night, as he wanted to be there in time to do the chores in the morning. Frank was at home for an hour, changing his clothes, etc. Saw Frank again next morning at 8:30 at the river.

George Matkins testified to finding the revolver hidden in between the studding in the barn the second day after the sale, which occurred on the 19th. The revolver had three empty and two loaded chambers when found. He identified the gun in evidence.

Arthur Myers, who was present when the gun was found, identified the gun in evidence as being the one found by Matkins.

Lew Walters, brother of Alice Barker, testified to the finding of the box of cartridges in box in the barn on the day of the sale.

Don Hartwell testified to having been at the Barker home Monday evening, between 6 and 7 o'clock, at which time Frank told him Dan and Alice had gone to Red Cloud. The curtains of the house were all down.

Fred Shumann passed Dan Barker's place about 8 a. m. Monday and saw Frank south and west of the big barn. Frank walked a few steps from the barn and watched Schumann, who thought he acted as if he might have wanted a ride. On cross-examination he swore positively that it was Frank.

Arthur Wolcott was recalled and said he saw Frank Monday morning. Frank did not come to where they were putting up ice until about 9 o'clock.

Wm. Walters, brother of Alice Barker, went to the home of Dan Barker Thursday morning, because he thought it strange his daughter should go away without saying anything to her parents. Returned to the place in the afternoon. Searched the barn and found some clothes in southwest part of haymow; also found capes, books, etc.

Andrew Arnold was recalled. On Thursday was present at finding of clothes, etc. in hay loft. He thought Hugh Reed was the one who discovered them. He met Frank Tuesday morning on the way to Red Cloud; thought it strange Dan should leave the way he did; Frank said Dan would be back before farming time, as he was interested in a lawsuit. Arnold was in debt to Dan Barker.

Hugh Reed testified to having found the clothes, keepsakes, etc. in the barn the day before the discovery of the bodies. They were piled in a corner of the barn with a little hay thrown over them, one shoe being exposed. He was through the house that day. Asked how he got in the house, he replied that Wm. Walters had a key to it. Dan had told him in August, 1903, that he would like to go to Denver.

JOHN STEVENS,
Assistant Counsel for Defense.

Wm. Walters was recalled, but nothing additional was developed from his testimony.

N. E. Harvey was called, but his testimony had little or no bearing on the case.

Wesley Wilson saw Frank Barker at the home of Roy Matkins on Sunday evening. Next saw Frank Monday morning, when he said Dan and Alice had gone to Red Cloud Monday morning. Frank told Wilson on Sunday evening he had a chance to buy some household goods, and on Monday he told him he had done so.

Wm. Renkel was in Inavale Tuesday evening, returning about 9:30. Found Frank at his home when he arrived. He asked about Dan. Frank said Dan and Alice had gone to Red Cloud Monday morning, to take the train for Denver Tuesday morning. He did not take them down. Frank said he found the team in the barn loose Tuesday morning, with the harness on; said he was up at the place Monday night and it was lonesome. When told that Arnold thought there was something wrong, Frank had nothing to say.

Wm. Walters was the first witness called Wednesday morning and identified the clothing, carpet, and all the various trinkets which were found in the barn, both as to the articles having been found in the haymow and that they belonged to Dan and Alice Barker.

Mrs. Hartwell was then recalled and stated that she had asked Frank Barker if Mr. Arnold was not surprised at Dan's going left so suddenly; also that Dan had gone without getting the money from Mr. Arnold which he, Arnold owed to Dan, to which witness replied that Mr. Arnold had been surprised and that Dan had given him, Frank, an order for the $60 due.

Chas. W. Ripker was the next witness called and stated that he had gone to Dan Barker's at about 3:30 on Monday afternoon for the purpose of returning Frank's wagon and getting Mr. Arnold's which was there. Witness said he saw only Frank and that Frank told him he was in a hurry as he must go to Red Cloud yet that evening as I have bought the entire stock of the firm of Beckwith, Wescott & Storey and will be able to take care of my friends to their entire satisfaction.

Will be pleased to see you in my store.

PAUL STOREY,
The Clothier.

Read This Carefully

I am making lots of Farm Loans. There are reasons for this. I can close a loan for you in three days after taking your application, for these reasons:

You do not have to wait and pay for a man to examine the land. My company has oceans of money. You do not wait for them to sell your loan in New York or London before getting the cash.

You can Pay Off at Any Time, without giving a day's notice of your intention so to do. All other companies require from 30 to 60 days notice on this point.

I have so many different plans for making loans that some one is bound to suit. No one can give better rates.

J. H. BAILEY, Red Cloud.

Mrs. Barker on the Stand.

Mrs. Mary Barker, mother of the accused, testified that Frank had attended a dance at Gilroy's Friday night, January 29, accompanying Lizzie Renkel; that he had returned home about 2:30 Saturday morning, and was called by her at 12:30 p. m. (or at almost precisely the same hour at which the Pope Bros claims to have sold Frank the gun and shells.) After dinner Frank left the house on his pony, returning between 4 and 5 o'clock. Further testified that Frank was at home Monday morning, and carried washwater for her, leaving home about 9 a. m. to go to work on the ice. He was at home for supper. Later in the evening he accompanied her home from Roy Matkins; at whose house he arrived about 9 p. m. He said he had spent the evening at Inavale. Witness testified that Frank had slept at home with his brother Guy that night. Witness arose about 12 o'clock that night and Frank was in bed at that time. Did not know where he was on Tuesday. Thought he was at home all Tuesday night. Was away from home Wednesday evening, returning about midnight. Was arrested Thursday. On redirect examination witness testified positively that the accused was at home all of Tuesday night.

Alice Barker, sister of the accused, testified that she attended the dance at Gilroy's on Friday night; that Frank was there with Lizzie Renkel, and that he returned home about 2:30 a. m. was at home in bed until called by his mother at 12:30 p. m., and after remaining around the house for a short time he got on his pony and went away, returning between 4 and 5 p. m. Testified that he left home about 9 a. m. Monday to go to the river to put up ice. Was at home for supper Monday, going away with his brother Guy for a short time and returned home about 8 o'clock; went to bed at usual time, and slept that night with Guy.

Guy Barker testified that Frank was at the Gilroy dance on Friday night with Lizzie Renkel, returning home about 2 o'clock. He slept with Guy. Guy testified that he slept in the front of the bed and Frank in the back part. When he got up in the morning the accused was still in bed; next saw him about half past twelve. Next saw him between 6 and 7 the same evening. On cross examination witness became a little confused as to the movements of the accused on Monday evening after supper, first stating that he was at home all evening, and also stating that Frank was at Inavale with him from 7 until 9 p. m. Guy went to bed first; had been in bed but a short time when Frank came to bed; said accused arose early Tuesday morning.

J. W. Barker, father of Frank, gave the same testimony as the preceding witness as to the accused's movements on Friday, February 1. Next saw Frank between 2 and 3 in the afternoon at Inavale; was not at home during the noon hour. Again saw him at supper time. Witness was shown a revolver by attorney for defense, which witness said was found by Mrs. Barker in Frank's pocket the morning of the funeral of Dan and his wife. The revolver was given to him by his wife, and he in turn showed it to Mr. Mercer; took the gun home and locked it in a drawer. It was found in the pocket of the trousers which defendant was wearing in court. Revolver was turned over to attorneys for defense last Saturday. Asked when he last saw Dan Barker alive, witness said on Monday evening, February 1. Was in front of Sawyer's barn in Inavale, and saw Dan and Alice pass in Frank's buggy, going west toward home, with the team of the accused. Dan called to him, saying "Hello." Was positive it was Dan and his wife. On cross-examination, witness said he thought Frank went to Dan's on Friday to do chores. Was positive that Frank went to bed after coming home from the dance on Friday night at 2:30. Witness got up and left accused in when he came home. Witness left home about 6:30 and next saw Frank about 2:30 that afternoon in Inavale. H. G. Sawyer and others were present at the time. Witness said he did not see defendant from Saturday until Monday evening. Frank went to town after supper, returning home about 9 p. m. On cross examination witness became confused and uncertain as to who came in first Monday night, but thought his wife came in first, Frank next, then Guy and lastly Alice. Witness next stated he did not see Frank during the day Saturday, but saw him in the evening. Didn't know what accused was doing on Tuesday. Saw him Tuesday evening between 6 and 7. Did not know what time he got home that night. Witness again stated that he saw Dan Monday evening. Did not tell attorney for defense that he saw Dan on Monday, until about a month ago, and did not mention it to his wife until three or four days after the funeral; also stated that he saw Dan on the Sunday preceding. Witness attempted to describe clothing worn by Dan when he saw him Monday evening, but could not positively identify clothing offered in evidence, as it was about dusk. Witness described horses owned by the Barker brothers in an attempt to rebut testimony of Harry Cloud.

Roy Matkins was next called, and also described the horses owned by the brothers, corroborating Mr. Barker's testimony. Said he was at Dan's home two weeks prior to the Sunday Dan was last seen alive, when Dan told him he had traded his brown mare to Andrew Arnold, but had not yet turned

(Continued on Last Page.)

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH