

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

The Barker Trial

her over to him, but thought he did so during the following week.

Guy Barker Barker was recalled and described the horses owned by the brothers; thought they did not have the brown mare on the 1st of February. W. K. Geer, shoemaker at Frank Smith's store, was called to identify a shoe which had been offered in evidence and identified as belonging to Dan. Witness could not state when he had seen it before, but said he had repaired it. Said Dan had brought it to the store. Could not state whether shoe had been worn since repaired or not.

Mrs. Mary Barker was recalled, shown the revolver offered in evidence by the defense. Asked if she had ever seen it before, she stated that she found it in Frank's pants pocket, which he was now wearing, early on the morning of the funeral of Dan and Alice. Had given it to her husband, and had not again seen it until last Saturday. Could not distinguish it from the revolver offered in evidence by the state except by the tags attached.

Frank Barker's Testimony.

Frank Barker went on the witness stand yesterday morning and his testimony occupied the entire morning session. It consisted of giving what is reported to be an account of his own movements from the 24th of January up to the day of his arrest.

The accused stated that the 14th of January was the first day on which Dan had spoken to him of selling out; after that they had frequent prior conversations in regard to the matter, before the 1st day of February, when the deal was finally made. He was to pay $1000 for the property. Defendant testified that Dan owed him $100 borrowed money, and that he paid Dan, on February 1, $225 in cash; he was to pay the balance, amounting to $775, out of this year's crop. This deal was consummated on the morning of February 1.

The defendant's testimony in regard to being at the dance at Gilroy's on Friday night and his movements on Saturday corroborated that given by his father, mother, brother and sister. Also, his testimony as to his whereabouts on Sunday and Monday coincided with that already given by his relatives, except that he claimed to have arrived at the place where they were putting up for a quarter to 8. On his way from Dan's to his parents' home that morning he saw Scamman coming behind him at a distance of a quarter of a mile, he having left Dan's place at 7 a. m.

He positively denied that he was in Red Cloud on Saturday, and had never bought a revolver of Pope Bros.

He admitted conversations testified to by Lizzie Renkel as having been held on Monday and Tuesday nights, but denied having said that he stayed at Dan's on Monday night; admitted having shown the revolver to Lizzie on Sunday night.

Said that when he left Dan's place

Monday morning Dan was at the pump getting water for the hogs; Alice was in the house. Next saw Dan and Alice alive the evening of the same day at about 7 o'clock, about a quarter of a mile west of Inavale, in a buggy driving toward home. Talked with them for about twenty-five minutes. Dan said they were going back to Red Cloud yet that night, and if the team was not returned on Tuesday, accused was to come to Red Cloud for it.

Accused said Dan's reason for not wanting it known that he was going to leave was that Dan did not want to pay a certain note which he had signed with his father. Another reason for leaving was that he thought he could make more money in Denver; that he thought Arnold had no mercy on a man.

On cross-examination he stated that while on the road to his father's home, on Monday evening, he met only Messrs. Irons, Powell and House; afterward said he also saw Dan and Alice.

Witness told of money which Dan owed, and what for, and explained how Dan happened to borrow money from him to pay his debts.

On cross-examination accused said he paid Dan $225 cash at the time he bought him out. Witness detailed prices which he paid for various articles bought of Dan. Witness explained from what sources he got his money, and told when and how much he loaned to Dan. Denied telling Mrs. Hartwell that Dan had given him an order on Arnold for money owing to him.

He stated that at the time he bought Dan out he had $375, but only paid him $225 in cash. Also stated that when he arrived at Dan's at 4 a. m. Monday, Dan and Alice had three trunks packed and thought they had bought two of these trunks either in Omaha or Chicago; they received them about the 14th of January. He afterward said that on Monday morning the goods were not packed.

The accused denied having told anyone that he saw Dan on the westbound train Tuesday morning. Said passengers frequently waved from the trains while passing.

Witness admitted owning two revolvers, but one was of no account. The revolver offered in evidence by the defense was of 32 caliber, while that shown by the state was a 38. He bought the 32 gun from a stranger who came to Dan's place on the Monday preceding the murder, and wanted something to eat; gave him $2 for it; got fifteen or twenty rounds of ammunition with the gun. Did not remember of saying he never owned a gun at the time he was arrested.

Defendant told of being at Dan's on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to attend to stock. Guy was there on Wednesday and helped him load hay.

Stated that on Tuesday morning he fed the team which Dan and Alice drove to Red Cloud in the barn, with harness and bridles on. Could not tell how much money Dan had when he left. Accused did not tell Cloud that there was a brown mare on the place for sale, but told him there was a black horse for sale.

Mrs. Mary Barker was recalled, but her testimony developed nothing of importance. John W. Barker was recalled and denied having been in Hunter's store on Thursday and Friday as testified to by Hunter and Miss Deisley in rebuttal.

Rebuttal Testimony.

Chas. Hunter and Miss Deisley testified to conversation with accused's father in Hunter's store on Thursday, in which he said he had seen Dan on Monday. In another conversation on Friday morning he stated he had not seen Dan on Monday, but had seen him on Sunday.

R. D. Davis testified to a conversation with accused's father, just previous to court, in which the latter said that if someone could be found to testify that he had seen Dan alive on Monday it would strengthen the defense.

Wm. Walters, Jr., testified to having been through Dan's house on January 21, and there were no new trunks there.

The state introduced the following witnesses who testified to having seen the accused either in Red Cloud or on the road to Red Cloud on the Saturday before the murder: Arthur Farnham, saw him in town about 11:30 a. m.; Emer Fogg, saw him about two and a half miles west of town about 11 a. m.; James McIntosh, saw him in town 5 p. m.; Joe Barta, saw him in town at 11 at Sam Dyer's office; Chas. Walters, saw him in town between 12 and 1; Wesley Wilson, met him on road at Indian creek bridge about 10:30 a. m.; Ward Hayes, said accused was shaved in his barber shop before noon; Mrs.

Wade Koontz, saw him driving toward Red Cloud between 10 and 11, saw him returning home about sundown.

C. E. Joyce, station agent at Inavale, testified that Dan and Alice had received nothing at that station during January except a small box billed as notions.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.
