

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with the difficulty, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. Pains unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Lincoln Letter.

LINCOLN, NEB., June 6

The democrats of Nebraska, or at least those of them who are in the select circle which surrounds Mr. Bryan and absorbs his political ideas from actual contact, have about determined that they will sacrifice everything else in Nebraska this year, and endeavor to trade through their candidate for governor and carry the legislature. A governor and a senate would cause them to rejoice exceedingly, and while it is doubtful if the shrewd politicians themselves believe for a moment that they have a ghost of a chance to win these two offices even by sacrificing all of the other candidates, still they must put up some kind of a front and make some show of being busy in order to keep Mr. Bryan's friends loyal to him and enable him to retain control of the state organization. Three months ago these same astute leaders solemnly asseverated, that the new revenue law was so clumsily constructed and would work such a hardship upon the common people that the fusionists would make a clean sweep of the ticket, including senator, and land the electoral ticket with a goodly margin to spare. Now all they want is a legislature "for Mr. Bryan's sake," and a governor for the sake, of course, of the gaunt and emaciated pie-hunters who for four long weary years have been kept from feeding off the public. The governor has the privilege of making all of the better state appointments and for this reason only, the assault is to be made upon that section of the republican line.

The republican who trades a vote to a fusionist this year, merely trades something for nothing, for there is not a candidate upon the ticket who needs a fusion vote to elect him. All that need be done to sweep the platter clean is to follow the sage advice of M. A. Hanna and "stand pat" for the ticket, from Roosevelt to road overseer.

Again comes Peter Mortensen with tidings of another record-breaking stroke of business in the state treasurer's office. During the six months just passed Mr. Mortensen has redeemed more than $958,000 in state warrants than being by far the greatest amount ever cancelled within the same length of time. Six months ago the state was more than twenty-six months behind in discharging its debts, and now about twenty months is all that is required after registration.

Mr. Mortensen's monthly report shows a treasury balance of $585,000.00 of which sum $296,255.36 is being held in the school fund to be invested in state warrants later on in accordance with Mr. Mortensen's pet method of "keeping the money in the family" by borrowing from the school fund instead of the bankers and brokers who in former years played shuttlecock with the state funds by borrowing money from the treasury at a low rate of interest and immediately investing it in warrants at an increased rate.

Governor Mickey failed to yield to the entreaties of the friends of Tom Dennison, the Omaha gambling king and politician, and the latter will have to go to Iowa, to face the charge of complicity in the Pollock diamond robbery, unless the courts intervene in his behalf.

Dennison is making a hard fight against extradition, having entered the district court of Douglas county with a plea to have the extradition papers nullified.

State Food Commissioner W. T. Thompson has issued his first bulletin wherein is set forth the result of the state chemist's investigation of vinegars under the state law. The bulletin calls a spade a spade, gives the name of the manufacturer and the brands under which his products are sold and tells what is wrong with the goods, if anything. The analyses prove that many brands of vinegars sold as "pure apple cider" lack solids, are colored or otherwise adulterated, and are rank violations of the pure food law. Retailers will be given a reasonable time in which to cease handling the condemned brands.

Treasurer Mortensen has announced that he has selected Everett Babcock as his deputy to succeed his father, Herman A. Babcock, who died last Sunday. The appointee has had the proper business training and experience to qualify him for the position, having been head bookkeeper under Auditor Beaton. At present he is bookkeeper for the Union Mutual Fire Insurance company of this city. He has not yet notified Treasurer Mortensen of his acceptance, but it is understood that he will take the plum in case his present employers are willing to release him.

Chairman Lehr of the republican state central committee has been unable to join the other committee officers in their search for a suitable location in Omaha, on account of the illness of Mrs. Lehr. Mr. Lehr made a flying visit to Lincoln Friday, that being his first appearance at state headquarters since his election as chairman. He hopes to be able to plunge into campaign matters within a few days, and present prospects are that the headquarters will be moved to the metropolis the last of this week.

If the office has not been "seeking the man" to Nebraska this year, in the majority of cases it is true at least that the office has allowed itself to be overtaken at slight cost to the pursuer. Norris Brown, candidate for attorney-general, says in his sworn statement filed with the secretary of state: "The nomination came without expense, though on my most urgent invitation." Lieutenant-Governor McGilton also was economical, expending but $2.85 in the chase for a renomination. J. L. McBrien expended a total of $137.77 in order to become the party candidate for superintendent and H. M. Eaton, candidate for land commissioner, expended $62.30. E. M. Searle, Jr., gained the auditorship at a cost of $88.23, and Treasurer Mortensen was renominated at an expenditure of $20. The principal item in all of the larger statements was for headquarters at convention time.

Statistics just published by Labor Commissioner Bush show that the products of Nebraska packing houses last year reached a grand total of $93,453,031. The farmers and stock raisers of Nebraska were paid $85,288,527, which shows that the finished product was worth something over eight millions more than on the hoof.

Prof. Clark, for many years president of the Peru Normal, has resigned and J. W. Crabtree, state high school inspector for the university has been decided upon as the most competent man to fill the vacancy.

Frank Barker Doesn't Have to Work.

Barker is not required by the prison authorities to work. A condemned man has privileges at the penitentiary not accorded to the others, and Barker passes his time reading and sleeping. He does not appear to be worried over his approaching death and occasionally strolls in the prison yard, just outside the hospital building in which the cells for murderers are situated. Recently he wrote his relatives that he enjoyed the treatment accorded him and had no complaint to make of his accommodations. His case has not yet been appealed. The other day Warden Beemer inquired of Barker concerning an appeal Barker had not thought much about it, and said that his attorney had not told him whether an

A woman writes to this office that she is sick and tired hearing of "capable" women. She writes that when a woman is capable you can depend upon it, she knows it, and has a great deal to say about how much easier it is to do things herself than to show some one else, when, as a matter of fact, the person she is trying to show can do things as well as the "capable" woman only the "capable" woman does not think so. And then the "capable" woman works so hard, and gets so tired, she is not able to make herself agreeable, and everyone dislikes her. If the "capable" woman works down town, her associates do not do the work "her way," and she gets into quarrels with them. If she lives at home, she cannot keep "he p." If she goes into society, she cannot keep friends, and, concludes the correspondent, "preserve me from dying in the house with a capable woman."

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.
