

Women Like Tubulars

WHY?

Every woman praises the simplicity of the

Sharpless Tubular Cream Separator

Because they are easy to feed, easy to KEEP CLEAN, easy to TURN, points every woman who helps about the dairy has a right to insist upon. All other separators run harder than a TUBULAR. They have a great many more parts to WASH and to WEAR OUT.

Let me give you a catalogue and show you the many good points in a SHARPLESS TUBULAR.

H. Irwin on March 13, 1901.

THE GRIN REAPER.

Two Aged and Highly Respected Ladies Pass Away.

MRS. MARY ALBRIGHT. Mrs. Mary Albright, aged 78 years, 2 months and 6 days, died Wednesday night at half past 9, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. Frisbie, at Amboy. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Frisbie home at Amboy, conducted by Rev. E. L. Hutchins of the M. E. church, and interment will be in the Red Cloud cemetery.

Mrs. Albright retained all of her faculties to the last, being able to recognize the children and grandchildren who were at her bedside when she passed away. Mrs. Albright was a lifelong Christian, and died firm in the belief that she would soon be with her Heavenly Father.

Mary Stewart was born near Lewis-town, Pa., seventy eight years ago. She was married about fifty five years ago to Peter Albright, who preceded her to the great beyond about two years ago. To this union six children were born, all of whom are living. The children are: Lewis P. Albright, Stewart Albright, M. A. Albright and Mrs. John Garber of Red Cloud, Mrs. I. Frisbie of Amboy and Mrs. Price of Lewis-town, Pa.

Mrs. Albright was a pioneer of this city, having come here with her husband in 1878. Her death will be sincerely mourned by all who knew her.

MRS. LEWIS SODERLIN. Mrs. Lewis Soderlin, aged 80 years, died Sunday morning at her home in Line township. Her death was sudden and entirely unexpected. When death came she was reading from the Bible to her aged husband. Heart failure was as the cause of death.

Funeral services were held Monday morning from the family residence, at 11 o'clock, Rev. Jonas Campbell of North Branch preaching the sermon. The remains were laid to rest in the Hummel cemetery.

She Wins a Fortune and He Finds a Pearl.

Under a prettily festooned arch in the parlor of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ayers in this city, last night, occurred the wedding of their daughter Pearl Florence of Hebron to Mr. Robert Fortune of Red Cloud, Rev. R. A. Schell performing the ceremony most impressively.

After extending congratulations, the thirty guests present were served a choice repast of two courses.

Misses Minnie Ayers and Iva Adams, dressed in pink, attended the door, and the wedding was very pretty throughout. Many beautiful presents were received.

Considering that the Fortune was made in Pearls by Schell and graced by Mother-of-Pearl, it was almost a seaside wedding.

The young couple have grown from childhood in Hebron, and have hosts of friends who wish them much happiness.

They departed yesterday for Red Cloud, where "Bob" recently purchased and furnished a cozy home for his bride.—Hebron Journal.

Morey King Injured.

Morey King, who lives just across the line in Smith county, Kansas, was seriously injured Monday by being kicked by a horse. He had gone to the pasture in the morning to attend to an injured foot of one of his horses, and while holding up the injured foot the horse whirled and kicked him, rendering him unconscious. He did not come to dinner, and his wife became alarmed and started out to search for him. She found him lying unconscious where he had fallen. Medical aid was summoned, and at last reports Mr. King was reported to be doing nicely.

H. J. Clark Injured

While making a test of some cream Tuesday morning, Henry J. Clark received a very serious injury. The apparatus for testing the cream, which was charged with acetic acid, exploded and Mr. Clark was severely burned about the face and hands. It was feared for a time that Mr. Clark's eyesight would be injured, but Dr. Raines, who dressed the wounds, said he thought Mr. Clark's eyesight would be all right.

Memorial Sunday.

Last Sunday was observed by the A. O. U. W. and M. W. A. lodges in a joint memorial services for their deceased members.
