Large Barn Burned. Last Monday night at about 12 o'clock the large barn on the farm now occupied by Mark McConkey, five and a half miles north and one half mile east of Red Cloud, and belonging to John Chapin of Phoenix, Arizona, caught fire and was burned to the ground. Just how the fire was started is not known. The barn contained about ten tons of hay and four head of horses and one colt three of the horses were burned with the barn and the colt was so badly burned that it is of but little value; besides the hay and horses there was quite a number of tools. The barn was insured for $400, and the horses for $250 and there was some insurance of the other things in the barn. Mr. McConkey succeeded in removing the one horse and colt from the barn but the colt ran back into the barn where it was so severely burned and afterward escaped again. Mr. McConkey seems quite unfortunate with his horses as about a year ago at the time of the hunt after Tom Madison, a fine team was stolen from his pasture and has so far not been recovered.

INTERSTATE REUNION Now in Full Blast.

Monday morning the sound of the various guns woke the citizens of Red Cloud that the Interstate Reunion was in progress and that trouble had commenced at camp McKinley. The grounds are well laid out. The Pike, as it is called, occupies a full block in length including the street east of the court house park. The court house park is full, the speakers stand, headquarters tent and other tents being located there. It is worth ones while to walk down the Pike. The Merry-go-round and nearly every kind of an amusement can be found there. There is fun, fake and folly on the Pike and in other parts of the ground and around the town there is boozing and bombast. Major Pemberton's Drum corp revives in the memories of the veterans the scenes and trying times of the 60's and the Lebanon Brass band discourses music nearly the entire day and until late at night. There have been ball games at the ball park every afternoon and speaking, singing, and music of all kinds at the camp during the afternoon and evening of each day. General Cole, Ex-Congressman Sutherland and Congressman Norris, Governor Mickey and the Hon. E. J. Burkett, candidate for U. S. Senator, and many other noted speakers have held forth. The Pike is crowded both days and night with both young and old, some viewing with disgust and others with pleasure. The young folks throw confetti, oat meal etc. Altogether Red Cloud and the people within have given themselves up to a week of dissipation. There have been many who were unable to obtain a bed at night owing to the crowded condition of the hotels and nearly every available room in the city has been occupied by some weary pilgrim. At the ball park Monday, Cora defeated Red Cloud by a score of 7 to 6 and Tuesday Red Cloud defeated Cora, 11 to 0; Wednesday Superior was defeated by Red Cloud, score 4 to 3 and Thursday the score was 2 to 1 in favor of Councilman Cather turned the city over to Garfield Post No. 80, Monday. The music furnished by the Lebanon band is excellent and deserving of the highest praise as also are the members of the band. They are a gentlemanly lot of fellows. Willing to do their share toward entertaining the crowd
