Interstate Reunion.

(Concluded from First Page)
lar to a death of eighteen inches. Nevertheless the Chief was struck off, and its first issue was as it were baptised and by a combination of the three forms, sprinkling, pouring and immersion. Judge Estelle has promised to write out the story of the purchase and first publication of the Chief, at his leisure, and we shall hold him to his promise. Meanwhile we give our readers what we can of the story as he told it in his speech. We regret to say that the old historic press is no longer in Red Cloud.

In words which have acquired some familiarity on hand bills and posters "Homer did it." That is to say he sold it to somebody, and we do not know to whom. We shall try to find the venerable heirloom and treasure it as a memorial of the beginning of America's great war for justice and liberty.

The Inter-State Reunion is now a thing of the past. A week's association of old soldiers, old settlers and citizens of our own and surrounding towns which will henceforth be only a delightful memory.

Beautiful weather, good speakers well planned and executed programs; each day, were pleasing features of the occasion. We wonder how many who enjoyed this feast of good things bestowed a thought on the weeks of careful anxious labor of mind and body, which the various committees of Post, Corps and old settlers had contributed to it about.

Special credit is due our citizen R. B. Fulton for his untiring, persistent efforts which resulted in the fine display of the various industries of our city, on our old settlers day.

The public spirit and enterprise of our merchants in thus assisting to interest and entertain the public is worthy of honorable mention. We bespeak for each and all a liberal patronage as an evidence of our appreciation. The W. R. C. were fortunate in securing Mrs. Condon for their special day. The Lebadon band won laurels for themselves, as also did the Drum Corps. Back of all was the excellent management, mostly due our own citizens who are officers of the Post. A well earned compliment was given the ladies Auxilliary of the Inter State G. A. R. when our president Mrs. Julia Warren, was elected president of the Old Settlers Association for the coming year. We of the Post and Corps congratulate ourselves and are concerned, that with a very exceptions the Reunion met our most sanguine expectations.

One of the W. R. C.

Lincoln Letter.

LINCOLN, NEB., Sept. 12th.

"Why did Shallenberger refuse to run for Congress in the Fifth. Of course he would have no chance of election, but that rarely deters a fusionist from entering a contest. What was the matter with Shallenberger, anyhow?"

According to a press dispatch, Mr. Shallenberger has arisen to answer this burning question, saying:

"When I wanted to be candidate for governor and had a good chance to get the nomination and the office Bryan refused to let me run. He was in control and what he said was law. I had to step down and out. Now I hold the whip hand and I do not intend to help him and his ambition to run things. I am tired of the dictation of Bryan, and I am glad to let him get the party out of the hole in which he has placed it."

In other words, Mr. Shallenberger does not care to suffer a defeat for Congress for the sake of carrying a few close legislative districts for Mr. Bryan's benefit. Treason! Sacrilege! Desertion in the face of the enemy! What has happened that in Nebraska a member of the old fusion line-up dare arise and refuse to return good for evil dare decline to suffer martyrdom "for Mr. Bryan's sake."

Out of 86 counties in the "Big Sixth," two were represented in the congressional convention, there being six delegates in the hall-five from Buffalo, and one from Dawson, an adjoining county. A. A. Worsley of Boyd, having already been nominated for the state senate and for land commissioner without having declined either honor, was recognized as one Nebraska fusionist who is not afraid to run for office this year, so he was nominated for Congress by acclamation.

Mr. Worsley would be pleased to correspond with any love-love convention in any other part of the state, which has not yet plighted its troth to any candidate.

All offices look alike to Worsley.

Of late we have derived much comfort from comparing Governor Vickey's administration with that of Governor Poynter when the fusionists had all of state offices and a majority in each branch of the legislature. As each semi-annual rolls by, the cost of conducting the state institutions is carefully computed and compared with the expense of maintenance for the corresponding period under Poynter.

In the report of the warden of the penitentiary for the six months commencing December 1st, 1899 and ending May 31st, 1900, the astonishing fact is revealed that Warden Hopkins in a sworn report states that 315 people were maintained in his institution for six months for $3,955.33. This is a remarkable fact, a most extraordinary fact. In truth the only fault with it is that it is not a fact at all but a miserable, direct, deliberate falsification constructed for the purpose of manufacturing renown for that much praised fusion regime.

The penitentiary records were destroyed by fire, and, for reasons which will appear later, little can be learned at the warden's office which will throw any light upon this all important subject of expense, but, fortunately enough a book called the "Auditors Appropriation Record" is kept in the Auditor's office and from it we learn that instead of the $2,005.33 expense reported by Warden Hopkins, exactly $22,304.64 was paid out for the maintenance of the institution during the period mentioned in the report. Warden Hopkins actually reported about one-seventh of his expenditures, forgetting to mention the additional $19,299.33 of the state's good money which had filtered through his fingers. These figures are a matter of public record and the book in the auditor's office is open to the inspection of all. As Warden Hopkins' report stands it is difficult to say exactly how the figures were jumbled, but it is possible to trace certain items and by doing so prove the fraud.

This rose-fever some people claim to have is just common ragweed fever. The only difference is that rose-fever sounds more classy.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill of Lebanon Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint, her suffering was terrible and her days and nights were agonies almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Wiggle-Stick for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist, Red Cloud.
