One day last week a man was arrested for procuring liquor for another man who was barred from getting the stuff for himself at the saloons. The case came up for hearing Monday and the alleged offender was discharged, there being strong doubts as to whether the law provided a penalty for the offense. It would be almost an impossibility to secure a conviction upon this charge, and officers realize the fact.

James Peterson deserves the thanks of the people of the south end for the splendid street light which he has placed in front of hardware store. A half dozen of such lights placed along the business portion of Webster street would add much to the looks of the town. Now that the work of putting down permanent walks has been gotten well under way, the matter of adequate street lighting should be given attention.

A. B. Ritchey, deputy county attorney, went to Franklin Monday evening. It seems that when the Red Cloud boys went to Franklin to play football last fall their expenses were guaranteed by a committee of citizens of that place. The committee refused to settle the board bill of the Red Cloud boys at the Commercial hotel in that city, and now the proprietor of the hotel has brought suit against the boys to recover the amount due.

Deaths and Funerals.

Jane Davidson McMillan

Mrs. Jane Davidson McMillan died very suddenly Saturday morning at her home in this city. She had arisen as usual and took breakfast, but suffered an attack of heart failure and expired in a few moments. Mrs. McMillan had been in poor health for several years, though her condition was not considered dangerous.

Funeral services were held at the family home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. L. Hutchins, pastor of the M. E. church.

The Red Cloud male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Albright, Fulton, Cotting and Albright, rendered some appropriate selections. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large number of sympathizing friends.

Miss Jane Davidson was born at Katanning, Pa., October 23, 1833, where she resided until her marriage, in 1840, to C. M. McMillan, when she removed with her husband to Parkersburg, West Virginia. The family came to Red Cloud in 1883, where they have since resided. Mrs. McMillan was a member of the Methodist church, having joined in Parkersburg, and was the mother of six children, four daughters and two sons. One daughter died in West Virginia before their removal to Nebraska, and her youngest son, W. L. McMillan, died in this city a few weeks ago. Her husband died about three years ago. Four children survive her. They are Misses Bertha and Clara McMillan and Mrs. Mabel Hadell of this city, and Charles D. McMillan.

The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

George Ducker

George Ducker, who had been a resident of this vicinity for more than twenty years, died Saturday evening about 5 o'clock at his rooms in the Bentley block, from a complication of stomach troubles and old age. Had Mr. Ducker lived until the 16th of April next he would have been 75 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church, in Damerell block, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. L. Hutchins. The remains were taken to Chicago for burial.

George Ducker was born in Burnham, England, April 16, 1830. He came to America with his brothers when a young man and located in Illinois. For several years he held an important position with Marshall Field & Co., but finally came west and engaged in farming a few miles south of Red Cloud. He was a brother of the late William Ducker of this city. A few months ago Mr. Ducker retired from farming and moved to Red Cloud to make his home. Mr. Ducker was married four times. Two sons survive him, Bert Ducker of California, who was at his father's bedside when he died and George V. Ducker of Lebanon, Kan.

John Ornduff

John Ornduff, aged 21 years and 4 months, died Saturday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jerry Ornduff, north of Inavale. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the school house in district 41, Rev. W. T. Taylor of Inavale preaching the sermon. Besides his mother, one brother and one sister survive him. Deceased was a favorite among the young folks of that neighborhood and was known as a quiet and home loving young man.

Mildred May McAllister

Mildred May, the 2-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McAllister, died Monday morning and was buried Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Davis, pastor of the Christian church, conducted brief services at the house.
