

Subscription
$1 a Year
in Advance

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Eight Pages
All
Home Print

VOLUME XXXIII.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, MARCH 17, 1905.

NUMBER 1

Miner Bros.

The Big Daylight Store

Miner Bros.

The Big Daylight Store

Did you ever stop to think what buying in a well lighted store means?

Every article has to be sold strictly on its merits. You get the best quality always. There are no dark places here to hide the defects.

Everything marked in plain figures. A child can buy here and be assured of the same treatment accorded to their elders.

Wash Goods

Newness is everywhere in evidence in the "Big Daylight Store," and particularly in the Wash Goods department, where we are showing the very latest weaves and choicest patterns brought out this season. New arrivals every week.

Batistes, per yard.....12½ to 50c
Mohairs, per yard.....35c to 60c
Wash Silks, per yard.....30c to $1.10
Silk Jacquards, per yard.....25c to 60c
Voiles, per yard.....15c to 50c
Panamas, per yard.....18c to 60c

You are sure to secure only newest patterns in this stock. Last season we closed out every yard of wash goods. We have nothing but this season's patterns.

JAPANESE WASH SILK

A special lot of Habuted Wash Silk, in White only.

Pure Silk, 21 in. wide, 28c yard.

Curtains and Draperies

These two articles add more to the appearance of a room than any other feature of its furnishing.

Arabian Net, Irish Point, Brussels Net, Cable Net, Nottingham and Ruffled Muslins, 50c to $8.50 pair.

DRAPERIES, PORTIERES—Tapestry, Repts, Damasks, per pair, $2 to $7

COUCH COVERS—Tapestry, Repts, Damasks, $1.25 to $4.50

Rain Coats—Ladies' Mackintoshes

Covert Cloth, tan and Oxford colors.....$ 3.00 to $ 4.00
Wool Melton, Oxford, tan and mixed goods..... 5.00 to 8.00
Cravenettes and Ducketts, the new rain cloth, light weights, three colors..... 9.00 to 13.50

MINER BROS.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered
by Our County Reporters

STATE CREEK

Allen Carpenter has moved to Red Cloud.

The Mount Hope school closed last Friday.

Wm Mountford has moved to a farm near Cowles.

Alex Bentley has decided not to quit farming this year.

Farmers have commenced their spring work.

Hogs are going up and not many for sale in this part.

Samuel Mountford will build a new residence this spring.

A cream route from here to Red Cloud will soon be started.

Our assessor, N. L. Fitzgerald, is trying to find out what we are worth this week.

Warren Harrington has moved to the farm north of Red Cloud which he recently purchased.

The Bell Bros. & Co. are putting the wire on the poles of the Lebanon phone line, which runs along this creek, and say they will soon have the phones in.

Sales every day—one at Keagle's Thursday and at Ed. Cooper's Friday. All property selling well.

Ike Wilmot of Red Cloud has moved on to the farm which he recently bought of Warren Harrington.

Wm. Rosecrans expects his family from Illinois soon. As their home farm is rented for the season, they will live in Red Cloud.

Cattle seem to be advancing in price. Representatives of both Red Cloud butchers were here this week buying for their markets.

AMBOY

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker were called to Lebanon Monday on account of illness of their daughter, Mrs. Durrett.

Another happy wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rasser, Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when their daughter Viola and Mr. Louis Bergfield were joined in holy wedlock, in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride was attired in a beautiful white gown, and Miss Lora

(Continued on Last Page.)

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal)

Mayor and Mrs. Bradshaw are visiting in Lincoln with R. S. Prondfir.

Anson Garber of Red Cloud was the guest of Dan Garber here yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Enos J. Wait entertained a number of young people at their home last evening.

Misses Clona and Docia Collette came home from Concordia Wednesday to visit their parents.

Earl L. Mes of Superior, now stationed at Fort Snelling, Minn., won the first prize for target shooting last week.

F. R. Barrett went to Oswego, N. Y., Monday, called there by the death of his father and the serious illness of his mother.

About twenty members of the Epworth league spent a very pleasant evening at the home of E. V. Bishop and family Tuesday.

George O. Jensen and Miss Lillian Bullock were married Wednesday evening. They will make their home five miles northeast of Superior.

Henry Wisemeyer, freight conductor on the Santa Fe, has invented a new process for making light and heat by the use of compressed air. He has refused an offer of $50,000 for his invention.

The trial of Mrs. Agnes Myers for the murder of her husband is set for Monday, March 31, and she is anxious for trial on that day. She says she is innocent and that any fair jury must acquit her.

A number of Workman went to Guide Rock Tuesday night and assisted in conferring degrees on several candidates. They were nicely entertained by the Guide Rock lodge and had a good time.

Fire was discovered in J. D. Bigley's grocery store about 9:30 Tuesday night. About $500 worth of sugar scored in the upstairs is a total loss. The stock on the first floor was badly damaged and the building, owned by O. Bigley, is ruined.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader)

Mrs. C. F. Gund returned home Friday.

F. T. Hopka is still in very poor health.

Miss Potts of Elsie is here visiting her brother.

We noticed a straw hat or two on the street this week.

Mrs. Fred Muschow moved down from Hastings Saturday.

Aug. Martin has added a fine new lighting plant to his shop.

Judge Keeney and E. U. Overman were in the city Wednesday.

Some 75 or 80 pupils were out of school last week on account of an epidemic of mumps.

A ghost story comes from Rosemont. If you are looking for "spooks" that would be a good place to go.

Mrs. T. A. McDonald entertained about thirty members of the Junior Christian Endeavor at her home Tuesday evening.

Miss Mary A. Tobin and Charles W. McClure were married on Wednesday, at the home of J. R. Mattock and wife, Rev. George W. Hummel officiating.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

Hon. Web McNall of Kansas was here Monday.

Melvin Rinehart came home from Chicago for a short visit.

Jim Shrader of the Cora county has moved out near Oberlin.

Miles Church and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl.

C. S. Barnes and sister Frances left ton Friday to buy horses. He came back with two gold fish for his new daughter.

Geo. Hall of Mankato is the new butcher at Vier's shop.

Nine cars of cattle and hogs were shipped from Lebanon Monday.

John McClellan has returned to his home in Breckenridge, Colorado.

John D. Hopkins of Bladen, Neb., is the new barber at Lull's barber shop.

Dr. W. C. Mays has moved his office to the building on the east side of Main street.

G. N. Rogers has purchased a fine farm near Superior and will take possession in April.

Ed. Fulton sold twelve lots to Chas. Winegar and four to Elisha Brown the first of the week.

County Surveyor Dave Wishart was down from Smith Center Monday and Tuesday on business.

E. Forbes and family left last Thursday for Odessa, Mo., where they will make their future home.

J. D. Mismann, Oral Smith and Dave Housel attended the "water wagon club" reception at Smith Center.

Frank Brady, Arthur Godden, Ed. McNall and Ezra Roth attended Masonic lodge at Smith Center Saturday.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

R. J. Moore returned from Denver this morning.

C. W. Waddell has sold his meat market to F. H. McCung.

August Schwabauer and Miss Virgie Cook were married on Wednesday.

Herman Maska of Franklin and Miss Tatze Kieen of Macon were married on the 8th.

Robert Kuee, a former resident of this place, and bride arrived from Virginia Tuesday.

The telephone company is putting in a new target switchboard and about 2000 feet of cable.

Franklin has changed from a village-

(Continued on Last Page.)

"After all, there is nothing like

DR. PRICE'S

CREAM

BAKING POWDER

I have used it with satisfaction for nearly forty years."