

... AGAIN I WANT TO REMIND YOU ...

Don't Spend Money Uselessly

I can give you more goods for your money than you have been getting elsewhere.

8 lbs. Nails,
25c

Western Washer,
$2.90

5 gal. Cream Can,
35c

A 16-inch Sulky
Plow,
$29.50

I haven't the space here to tell you all, but come in and see me. I will save you money.

James Peterson

LOCALETTES

Hay and feed at Plumb's.
Mrs. Bomford is quite sick.
Plumb has Red Cloud flour.
Try that calf meal at Caldwell's.
Joe Blair was in the city Tuesday.
Go to Fred Plumb's for flour or feed.
Mrs. Reed is down from Orleans today.
Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerell block.
Are you going to Blue Hill April 27 and 28?
Mrs. Fred Mandeville is visiting in Lincoln.
Representative Kaley was home over Sunday.
C. E. Spence was down from Bladen Tuesday.
Dr. Myers was down from Riverton Tuesday.
C. E. Putnam was down from Cowles Tuesday.
L. C. Evans of Riverton was in town Tuesday.
John Storey was down from Cowles Wednesday.
C. B. Crone was down from Lincoln over Sunday.
Mrs. J. A. Tulleys came down from Naponee today.
I. H. Holmes was in Lincoln the first of the week.
"Farmer" Ray Frame was in town the first of the week.
N. A. Clark of Superior was in town the first of the week.
Ed. McAllister went to Riverton Tuesday on business.
Face massage and ladies' shampoo, at Hayes' barber shop.

Insurance Agency

The German Insurance Co.
of Freeport, Ill., and the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co.
of Nebraska

have over nine hundred policies in force in Webster County. Look up your policy and see me.

J. C. TEEL,
Phone 98. RED CLOUD.

New line of handbags and side cases.—F. NEWHOUSE.
C. E. Reigle has moved into the Thomas Enigh property.
John Vest has been laid up with the grip for the last few days.
Take your poultry and hides to Plumb. Top prices paid.
William Sternke was down from Blue Hill the first of the week.
Postmaster T. C. Hacker and wife are in Lincoln this week.
Herb Ludlow is down from Hastings for a visit with his parents.
Adair Galusha was down from Lincoln for a visit with friends.
W. R. Clark, the Carl medicine man, was here the first of the week.
County Attorney A. M. Walters was down from Blue Hill this week.
Girl wanted at the Windsor hotel. Good wages paid.—E. WELSH.
Roscoe Weesner has accepted a position in Paul Storey's clothing store.
W. E. Rife and family left Wednesday for their new home in Beatrice.
George Hollister has traded his residence property for a farm near Inavale.
T. E. McCarl and wife visited with relatives in McCook the first of the week.
Alex Snelser departed for his home in Keystone, South Dakota, Monday noon.
Plumb the feed man will pay you the highest price for poultry, eggs and hides.
The infant child of John Phillips and wife died last Saturday at Goodland, Kansas.
Mrs. S. Graves and daughter Emma, have returned from their visit in Topeka, Kansas.
Mrs. D. H. Kaley arrived home Monday from an extended visit in Lincoln and Omaha.
G. L. VanCamp and son George arrived from Denver Sunday for a visit with friends.
"Jack" Weesner, who has been teaching out south of Superior, was in town Sunday.
Bert Dickey left for Denver this morning, where he will spend a week visiting friends.
Charley Ludlow has resigned his job at the Bostwick hotel in Hastings and is at home again.
George Bayler this week moved his family into town. They will occupy the Will West place.
S. J. Chambers of Hastings, an uncle of Dr. E. A. Thomas, was in the city this week on business.
An effort is being made to secure the Andrews Opera company for an engagement in this city.
W. E. Rife has sold his residence property on Seward avenue to Mrs. Stonebreaker for $1,500.
If taken this month, keeps you well all summer. It makes the little ones eat, sleep and grow. A spring tonic for the whole family. Hollister's

Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents' Tea or Tablets. C. L. Cotting.

Dwight Jones and wife of Guide Rock visited with George Morhart and wife the first of the week.

M. L. Grays, who was the balloonist with Norton, Bros. here during the reunion, was in town Sunday.

Wanted—dish washer at Bon Ton bakery $3.50 per week. Board and room.—W. S. BENNE, Prop.

George Blair came down from Lincoln Thursday and was shaking hands with old friends in Red Cloud.

FOR SALE—Harness shop; good business. Address Lock Box 3, Harvard, Neb. meh 24.

Don't forget to insure your property against fire, lightning and cyclones with L. H. Fort, agent, Damerell block.

ALFALFA SEED—I have some nice seed. Write for price and sample.—D. W. GRANT, Abene, Kan. meh 24.

I. T. Amack and family, who recently returned from Idaho, have moved onto the Morrison farm northeast of Red Cloud.

Miss Maude McCune departed for Alma, Kansas, Tuesday morning, to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Ellie Barber.

Ivan Dickenson will farm the Jim Ryan place this summer. His sister, Miss Minnie Dickenson, will keep house for him.

Si Fincher came out with a new suit of overalls Monday the result of having pursued and killed a skunk in his barn Sunday night.

It is understood Rev. E. L. Hutchins will resign the pastorate of the M. E. church and retire to a farm, which he owns in Kansas.

E. M. Crone came down from Oxford Wednesday to bid his parents good-bye before their departure for their new home in Kansas.

Fred Schuman and family of Inavale left this week for Paxton, Keith county, Nebraska, where they expect to make their future home.

A number of applicants from Bladen and Guide Rock took the civil service examination for rural carriers in this city last Saturday.

Last Saturday Judge Keeney issued a marriage license to Lewis H. Bergfield of Guide Rock and Miss Viola

Get Satisfaction

By trading with us for the year 1905.

We have the largest and most complete assortment of hardware in the Republican Valley.

Come in and see for yourself.

Right Goods at Right Prices

Our Harness stock is complete in every respect and we have the goods to prove it.

Our New Year offering is a first-class 1 1/2 inch

Work Harness

complete with collars, for $25

Get Right. Trade with Us

MORHART BROS.
Hardware Co.

SPRING 1905

When you are not busy, come in and see our new Spring Wearables. It is not too early to buy, but if you do not want to buy now it won't hurt you to see what you should buy later in the season.

SPRING SUITS, TOP COATS, RAIN COATS, TROUSERS, FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS and SHOES.

Prices low consistent with good merchandise.

Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.,

ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS,

First Door North of Postoffice, Red Cloud, Neb.

Rasser, daughter of Charles Rasser of Amboy.

Frank Smith, the shoe man, has so far recovered as to be able to attend to his business. His many friends are glad to see him out again.

John O'Meara of Oak, Neb., is here this week putting in the new switchboard and other improvements of the Farmers' telephone exchange.

J. L. Crossley of Denver held down the night operator's job for a few days until the arrival of another operator to take the place permanently.

L. C. Everett of Council Bluffs, Ia., who owns considerable real estate in this vicinity, was here the first of the week looking after his interests.

It is rumored that a "medicine" show will hold forth in Red Cloud in the near future. They usually make good business for doctors and drug stores.

Al. Slaby returned Monday from Denver, accompanied by his wife, who is slowly recovering from the surgical operation which she recently underwent.

A mass convention has been called to meet at the court house Saturday evening for the purpose of placing in nomination an independent city ticket.

It is said a number of boys supplied themselves with "show money" last week by ransacking barns and hen roosts for eggs, which they sold to a local dealer.

The street commissioners force has this week been making some extensive improvements along the street in front of Peterson's implement and hardware establishment.

Ed. Storey, who has been employed at the asylum during the past two years, departed Friday for Chicago, where he will join Ringling's circus.—Hastings Tribune.

Monday night the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Muniz, where they gave a farewell party for Mrs. C. B. Crone and Mrs. Will Rife.

Will, Elmer and Thomas Rodgers of Farmington, Ill., brothers of Mrs. W. H. VanPatten, have moved onto the Walt Garner place, north of Inavale. Their families will join them soon.

It will bring rich red blood, firm flesh and muscle. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Taken this month will keep you well all summer. 35 cents, tea or tablet. C. L. Cotting.

The pastor will preach upon the following themes at the Congregational church on Sunday morning. "The Sunday School Problem." Evening. "Christ and the Blind Man." Everyone welcomed.

If you cannot eat, sleep or work, feel mean, cross and ugly, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. A tonic for the sick. There is no remedy equal to it. 35 cents, tea or tablet. C. L. Cotting has accepted a position in Ward Hayes' barber shop. Though a young man, Mr. Watkins has had considerable experience as a tonsorialist, having practically been raised in a barber shop.

N. F. Watkins of Highland, Kansas

Hear the Hon. A. R. Talbot, Head Consul Modern Woodmen of America, at M. W. A. hall, Tuesday evening, March 21. All interested in Fraternal Insurance are cordially invited. Good music and a good time generally. Admittance free.

Andrew Arnold of Inavale was in Red Cloud Wednesday to receive a car of thoroughbred Polled-Augus cattle, which were delivered to him here by W. Thornberry and Tom Miller of Smyrna, Neb. Mr. Arnold took the cattle to his ranch near Riverton.

C. B. Crone and family are this week making preparations to remove to their new home near Ottawa, Kansas. It was just twenty years ago this week that Mr. Crone and family located in Red Cloud and during these years they have made many friends who will be sorry to see them leave Red Cloud.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smith of Missouri City, Mo., were called to Red Cloud by the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Davis, wife of the pastor of the Christian church. We are pleased to state that Mrs. Davis is now out of danger and well on the road to recovery. The children have also recovered from their recent illness.

Robt. Fortune orders the Journal sent to his address at Red Cloud and writes a pertinent letter which was not intended for publication, but we generously share it with our readers as follows: "Well, I'll give it up, Charlie Day is a better man than I am, so give him the money and send me the Journal. I haven't made my Fortune yet out here, but as long as I don't have a Miss Fortune I'm all right."—Hebron Journal.

To the Public

Having purchased Chas. Wadell's meat market, we extend to you a hearty invitation visit us and become better acquainted and also, when looking for good first class meat, we ask you to give us a trial.

We are satisfied we can we can please you. — Yours for business,

FEIS & SEARS