

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

LESSON XIII, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, MARCH 26.

Text of the Lesson, A Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, John xi, 31.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

(Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.)

LESSON I.—Christ the Life and Light of men (John i, 1-18). Golden Text, John i, 4, "In Him was life, and the life was the light of men." Repeat with all possible emphasis and prove from other Scripture, as well as this lesson, that Jesus is God, that there is no life apart from Him and that to have what He calls "everlasting life" He must be truly received as the Christ, the Son of the living God, the only Saviour of sinners, without whose precious blood there is no forgiveness of sins (i, 12; Heb. ix, 22; Acts iv, 12).

LESSON II.—The witness of John the Baptist to Jesus (John i, 19-34). Golden Text, John i, 29, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John was only a voice, to be heard and not seen, a messenger with a message, the herald of a great King, himself great in the sight of the Lord, before whom he stood and seeking only His glory. This lesson should lead from Gen. iii, 21, by way of Ex. xii to Calvary and on to Rev. v, 6; xxi, 22, 23.

LESSON III.—Jesus wins His first disciples (John i, 35-51). Golden Text, John i, 49, "Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel." John pointed Him out and honored Him, two of John's disciples followed Him, and thus began a following, ever since increasing, which shall result in a glorious church, a redeemed Israel and a world filled with His glory.

LESSON IV.—The first miracle in Cana (John ii, 1-11). Golden Text, John ii, 5, "Whosoever He saith unto you do it." Not until after the marriage of the Lamb (Rev. xix), of which this and many other marriages in Scripture are in a sense typical, notably the marriage of Adam and Eve (Eph. v, 31, 32), shall the kingdom come and the words to Nathaniel be fulfilled. Would we hasten that time, let us note carefully His command in Matt. xxviii, 19; Mark xvi, 15; Acts i, 8, and obey the Golden Text.

LESSON V.—Jesus and Nicodemus (John iii, 1-15). Golden Text, John iii, 16, "For God so loved the world." We cannot be of any use to the Saviour to hasten His kingdom until we are born again, for until that takes place in us we are dead in trespasses and in sins, we have no real life (Col. ii, 13; 1 John v, 12), and He does not ask dead people to serve Him, for they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

LESSON VI.—Jesus at Jacob's well (John iv, 5-14). Golden Text, Rev. xxii, 17, "Whosoever will let him take the water of life freely." While the most religious must be born again, the most wicked may be born again, and where there is truly the new birth there will be in greater or less degree a repetition of this woman's experience, who became so occupied with Christ that she forgot herself and her errand and became His joyful messenger.

LESSON VII.—The second miracle in Cana (John iv, 45-54). Golden Text, John v, 36, "The same works that I do bear witness of Me, that the Father hath sent Me." While the new birth comes only and wholly by believing—that is, receiving—and we become wells of living water in the same way, it must be a simple believing, without seeing or feeling.

LESSON VIII.—Jesus at the pool of Bethesda (John v, 1-15). Golden Text, John vi, 2, "And a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His miracles." No religiousness helps, no sin need hinder, no case is beyond His power, but the pool is not necessary nor a man to put us in. He Himself is the fountain, and a word from Him is sufficient.

LESSON IX.—The miracle of the loaves and fishes (John vi, 1-14). Golden Text, John vi, 51, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven." Vast multitudes, the majority of the people on earth, have never heard of the new birth, the living water, the bread from heaven, and while it is the tendency even of those who have received for themselves to say, "Send them away," or let them alone, His command is, "Give ye them to eat."

LESSON X.—Jesus at the feast of tabernacles (John vii, 37-46). Golden Text, John vii, 46, "Never man spake like this man." While they are abusing Him and seeking to kill Him because He broke their national idol, their Sabbath day (for that day, like their feast days, had become the Jews' instead of the Lord's), He continues to offer freely the living water to all.

LESSON XI.—The slavery of sin (John viii, 31-40). Golden Text, John viii, 34, "Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin." There was not one of all those who brought the woman to Him who could say that he was without sin (verse 7), yet they dared to say that they were never in bondage (verse 33), for, being only natural people, they talked foolishly concerning spiritual things. All the unsaved are servants of sin, all the redeemed are servants of righteousness, but many are in bondage by disobedience (Rom. vi).

LESSON XII.—Healing of the man born blind (John ix, 1-11). Golden Text,

John ix, 5, "I am the Light of the World." Not only are all born in sin, but all are also born blind and live in darkness till the Light shines in. The same Jesus Christ who gives the new birth and health is the only one who can open blind eyes, but He often uses human instrumentality, as when He sent Ananias to Saul to open his eyes (Acts ix, 17). If we would be used we must be willing to give Him all the glory, for no flesh can glory in His presence.

FATAL TORNADO IN ALABAMA.

Eight or Nine Lives Known to Have Been Lost.

Columbus, Ga., March 22.—Reports have reached Roanoke, Ala., of one of the most disastrous storms that ever visited that section, which swept across the southern part of Randolph county. Eight or nine lives are known to have been lost and damage amounting to thousands of dollars was done to property. The tornado started at a point near Double Heads and proceeded in a northwesterly course. The residence of Mack Carlisle was demolished and R. C. Haynes was killed. Six miles east several houses were demolished. Three negroes were killed and several injured on the Wilson plantation. Three or four negroes were killed on the Holly plantation, near Rock Mills. At Lime Postoffice, a store was demolished and a little white girl, daughter of a Mr. Lucas, was killed and her mother seriously injured. Details of the storm are difficult to obtain on account of wires being down.

Rockefeller Ticket Defeated.

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 22.—John Wirth, the citizens' candidate for president of North Tarrytown village, was elected. Wirth received 515 votes and beat Warren J. Stoddard by 148. After his election Wirth said that he was pleased over having beaten the so-called Rockefeller ticket, but that he bore the Rockefellers no ill will and fully appreciated the benefits that had been showered upon the village, especially by John D. Rockefeller. It was understood that Mr. Rockefeller supported the ticket headed by Warren J. Stoddard, the People's party candidate.

Burt for Panama Canal.

Washington, March 21.—The Post says: Horace G. Gunnell of Colorado Springs in 1894 and 1895, to be voted at the annual meetings of the Portland Mining company, were introduced by the defense in the Doyle-Burns case to disprove statements repeatedly made by Doyle that he had entrusted the management of all his mining interests to James F. Burns, from whom he now asks a half interest in claims and dividends worth $900,000.

Senate Adjourns Sine Die.

Washington, March 20.—The special session of the senate was adjourned without day. No motion had been made to recommit the Santo Domingo treaty and it was allowed to remain on the calendar. SMITH MODIFIES STATEMENT.

President of Mormon Church Says He Received Revelations From God.

Salt Lake, March 20.—Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon church, in an address in the tabernacle, modified his statement in the senate investigation at Washington, to the effect that he had received no revelations from God. President Smith is quoted as saying: "In Washington I refused to say what my inquisitors wanted me to say in order to get me into a trap, that is to say that God had given me a revelation on some new law of precept which was to be included and put in the laws of the church. Did you ever hear me deny that I had been guided by God. No, no man ever heard me say this. When I was first baptized as a child, God revealed to me that I had done an act which he approved. God also revealed to me that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God, raised up by the power of the Almighty. He revealed to me in terms incontrovertible that Brigham Young succeeded lawfully to the presidency of the church by the will of the Almighty; he revealed to me that John Taylor was the divine successor of Brigham Young; that Wilford Woodruff was the divine successor of John Taylor, that Lorenzo Snow was the divine successor of Wilford Woodruff. I leave it to you to say whether it is right and lawful for me to be in this position. I fervently believe that God has made manifest to me many glorious things and much more wisdom than is inherent in myself and will continue to do so as long as I am ready to listen when he speaks."
