RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Randy Harwood started Tuesday night for Cody, Wyoming, where he intends to remain this summer.

Snow Williams is in Lexington, Mo., "on business," so he said. But we presume the best girl in the world lives there.

O. Onstot was suddenly called to Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday, by the death of his father who was a resident of that place.

A mishap. While the barber was shaving J. D. Fulton his razor slipped and extracted all the hair from his upper lip, which makes John look like a school boy.

Willie Robinson and a young friend rode down from Franklin Sunday, and took the passenger for home, having decided it was poor sledding on punctured tires.

Mrs. Mary Kincaid arrived here Friday night from Leavittsburg, Ohio, where she has been making her home, since she left here a few years ago with her son Ralph.

Bert and Geo. Harwood went to Superior, Monday, where the latter has secured a position in a meat market at a better salary than he was receiving while at Franklin.

"Badgered."

Editor Rosewater of the Omaha Bee has been made the victim of the old and almost worn-out "badger" game, by which he was induced to give up $250 to avoid a scandal. It would naturally be supposed that Editor Rosewater's long connection with the newspaper work would have armed him against being made the victim of a trick which has been exposed in his own newspapers dozens of times. Along in March a woman named Algae applied to him for permission to run a stand in the Bee building, and she made frequent trips to the editors' rooms to make arrangements. Editor Rosewater was finally entrapped into visiting the woman at her room in the Murray hotel, and had not been in the room five minutes when the "injured husband" made his appearance and created a scene, winding up by demanding $2000 from Rosewater as the price of avoiding being made co-respondent in a divorce suit. The feeble old man, fearing a scandal, gave the blackmailer $250, and later, when Algae visited Rosewater at his editorial rooms in an effort to squeeze the balance of the $2000 out of him, he was arrested on the charge of blackmail by the Omaha chief of police, who was concealed behind a curtain in the room. Algae and his wife are now on trial for blackmailing, and a telegram from the chief of police of Jackson, Mich., says they are black mailers and that their reputation is bad.

Next to the man who circulates false and damaging stories concerning innocent people, the blackmailer is the lowest type of criminal. The one sets about to injure his victim with no possible excuse for doing so. The other seizes what he considers an "easy mark" with plenty of money, and with the aid of some shameless woman, who may or may not be his wife, succeeds in getting his victim in a compromising position and then proceeds to "bleed him." Such conscienceless and shameless people as the Algae's should be placed safely behind prison bars and kept there. We hope Brother Rosewater will succeed in landing this pair where they belong.

Receipts of hogs thus far this week, 17,900 last week, 27,200; last year, 20,900. Buyers were bearish Monday, augmenting their argument by pointing to the run of 52,000 at Chicago. The market was 5 to 10 cents lower. Salesmen had their turn today, however, as packers wanted supplies and while a few early sales were made at 2 1/2 to 5 cents higher rates, trade soon developed to a 5 to 10 cent higher basis. Bulk of sales were from $5.25 to 5.35; top 5.40.

Receipts of sheep Monday were 5400 mainly southwestern grassers. Values were mostly 10 cents higher. Receipts today were $600, 80 per cent of which were Texas and Arizona grassers. The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

- 1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
- 2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.
- 3 (Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.)

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.
2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)
