Ad Kennedy Yesterday.

Ad Kennedy reported from Garfield yesterday and as usual there is something doing in Garfield.

The picture enlargers have been down there for some picture enlarging houses of Lincoln or Omaha. They would enlarge three pictures for $2.98. The pictures were enlarged all right, but a frame was brought around with them so adjusted as to make your picture no good without the frame. The frames cost $3.00 each; $9.00 for three or $11.98 for the three pictures complete. Ad refused to be caught on the frame swindle (though he said the work on the pictures was all right) and the picture men are mad at "Ad"—awful mad. It is no use to warn the people against the stranger who want your signature—they bite just the same.—Smith Center Messenger.

Lafe Wright Dies Suddenly.

Lafe Wright of Lebanon, son of J. A. Wright of the Smith Centre Messenger, died early Sunday morning from tetanus, after an illness of but a few hours. Mr. Wright was about 23 years of age, and married. About a year ago he was accidentally shot by a friend, and never fully recovered from the injury. The first of last week he ran a nail in his foot, and Friday night alarming symptoms developed. Blood poisoning from the two wounds caused lock-jaw, and he died about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon.

Real Estate Transfers.

Transfers for week ending Wednesday, June 14 furnished by J. H. Bailey of Webster County Abstract company.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

Sabbath day thirty members were added to the roster of the U. P. church.

The public will be pleased to learn that Miss Cartarette Ebersole has been elected principal of the North School of Superior.

Miss Temple Vale and Prof. John L. Martin of North High College, Des Moines, were married Wednesday evening of last week.

Misses Sadie Adams and Bertha Shanek, leave this week for an extended trip to the coast country, to be absent several months.

W. R. Jones and wife and two children of Amorette, Mo., arrived Tuesday evening and will visit about a week with his brother, E. S. Jones.

Last Friday morning Percy Oliver, older son of Mrs. Della Oliver of this city, was drowned while swimming near the dam. His body was recovered Sunday.

Mrs. Josie Hawley has a very pretty piece of water color work in the window of Southard's store, which proves her ability as an artist and is attracting a great deal of favorable comment.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Green on the morning of June 7th, '05, when their eldest daughter, Pearl, and Mr. Earl Graham of Edgar, were united in marriage.

It was with great regret that the Board of Education received and accepted the resignation of Prof. E. F. Lang as principal of the High School, and it was only the assurance that he was quitting the school room for a position in Washington, D. C., that they acquiesced in it.

Dr. Sawyer, Assistant Superintendent of the P. O. D., of Kansas City, was in the city last week and put his official O. K. to everything in the way of equipment, arrangement and room of the new postoffice here as arranged by W. L. Wilson, and conducted by post-master C. E. Stine.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

At the present time there is a tip top location in this city for a good jeweler.

Died, Saturday, June 3, at his home in this city William H. Marsh, aged 80 years, 8 mos. and 27 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Green left last Monday for Lincoln where they joined the lumbermen's excursion to Portland.

Mrs. Marshall Douglass returned Monday from an extended visit with her husband in the western part of the state.

Miss Queena Crane is no more a member of the Advocate staff, her place being very satisfactorily and well filled by Miss Nellie Hester.

Prof. Hussong is at Beaver City this week where he is assisting as one of the instructors in the Furnas county teacher's institute.

Miss Mary Johnston has been elected and accepted the principalship of the Edgar High Schools. This is certainly a compliment for a worthy young lady.

Misses Mabel and Florence Saddle left last Tuesday evening for Helena, Montana, where they will spend a pleasant vacation at the home of their father who was quite recently married.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Mrs. F. W. Barber, who accompanied her husband to Hot Springs, Ark., several weeks ago, returned last Sunday greatly improved in health.

The academy track team went to Crete last Friday and defeated the Doane team by a close score. The academy also won the debate.

Miss Gretchen Maier writes from St.

Louis that she is well and happy, but that if it continues getting hotter she will have to return to Franklin.

An Aunt of Mrs. A. A. King was visiting her here this week. We understand that she was formerly Miss Morton, one of the early school teachers of Franklin.

Work is begun on the Lau Bach Conkling Feese 72-foot front two-story brick on the east side of Nebraska avenue. It is to be erected of white brick and will be one of the handsomest structures of its kind in the country.

The Bloomington Advocate has begun work on the Rock Island cutoff and is preparing grade stakes for the citizens of Macon. It also intimates that the line will cross the river at Republican City. That's one way of standing up for Bloomington.

Some of our best people were taken in this week by a most original female peddler, who buys at the stores a very cheap quality of lace, ranging from 5 to 10 cts. per yard and which she sells at 75 cts. and $1. It is said that a number of our citizens were gulled from $5 to $15. Serves 'em right. They should patronize home industries.

John Doe and Richard Roe, real names to us unknown, the gentleman of leisure who several weeks ago burglarized the postoffice and J. W. Chitwood Bros. lumber office in this city, were tried before District Judge Adams at Bloomington last Friday and given sentences of four years at hard labor in the Nebraska penitentiary.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

Mrs. J. F. Grimes is still quite poorly. Her many friends hope for her speedy and complete recovery.

Mrs. A. M. Walters left Wednesday for an extended visit in Indiana. Mr. Walters accompanied her as far as Omaha.

W. W. Hogan and wife have moved into the house vacated by Rev. Warner. We welcome this estimable family to our city.

We are informed that W. T. Hamilton, who at one time lived here and conducted a millinery store, died last week at Friend, Neb.

R. A. Simpson was in Omaha this week attending the Masonic Grand Lodge as a representative from the Blue Hill lodge.

At the close of the I. O. O. F. lodge Monday evening, the ladies of the Rebekah took possession of the hall and served a splendid lunch which was much enjoyed.

While the men were digging the shaft at the Rosemont ochre mine last week they unearthed what seems to be a petrified hand. The hand is closed and judging from the shape and size it was a woman's hand.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

S. L. Amis marketed eighteen head of hogs Monday, which averaged 255 pounds.

Several of Joe Dickey's family are down with scarlet fever, but are reported better at this time.

Andy Lull and family are now pleasantly domiciled in their new residence on north Main St.

Ed. Hobbie sold twenty-nine head of hogs Monday, for which he received the neat little sum of $522.

Charley Kellogg, who has been attending college at Lindsayburg for the past nine months, returned to his home Monday night.

Luke Shields marketed twenty-four head of hogs today, that averaged 280 pounds. He received 5 cents per pound for them.

Walker Buchman will become a resident of Lebanon this fall, he having purchased the residences now occupied by Jas. Adams and Jas. Walden

Mr. Swanson, who was to have built the new school house, threw up the job and a contractor named Plank will be here Saturday to sign the contract and commence work.

Richard Moore of Webster county came to Lebanon Saturday and phoned to Sheriff Helfenstein to come after his brother William who he claimed was in an insane condition.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Mrs. Eli Bennett is the first to report having had new potatoes from her own garden this year.

Col. A. H. Byrum has sold his interest in the Bloomington Advocate to Col. Crane, his partner, in the business.

Mrs. George Morrow left Friday for Kearney, where her husband had gone last week to take a position in a bank.

Geo. Harwood, Earl Moore and Max Marshall captured an old possum and six young ones Wednesday. They intend to raise them as pets.

Fred Stelling went wolf hunting Sunday and had what might have been a serious accident. While riding a horse after a wolf he ran into a fence, cutting the horse and the rifle discharged filling his eyes with burnt powder. He is most recovered now.

Sunday, while Max Hobart and Will Leon were coming from G. W. Cline's northwest of town in their auto, they had quite an accident. A bolt lost out of the machine, and they could not guide it, as it was on a steep hill neither was hurt badly but the seat was torn off.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunter, Miss Bernice Hunter, Mrs. Fred Hunter, and I. Shepherdson started for Lincoln, Tuesday, where they will join the Lumbermen's Excursion for the Portland exposition and the lumber regions of the west and coast country. Mrs. I. Shepherdson will join the party at Beatrice.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

L. C. Uul and wife have sailed for Germany. They left here last Friday morning at least with that intention.

James Mills is another resident of Smith Center who has been nipped by the frosts of 31 winters who is still spry and enjoying this splendid June weather.

Clyde Wilson and W. J. McBride, two participants in the Berry-Dewey trouble of two years ago just about now, are registered at the Gibson. They live at Manhattan.

A quiet but popular wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. N. O. Nye in this city Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m., June 6, 1905. Mr. Fred Kubias was married to Miss Dora Johnson.

Garrett Gibson was up from Harvey yesterday before the pension board. Garrett always gets the glad hand of the county seat. A young man, John Clydeedale by name, accompanied him.

Andy Fowler's time with Sheriff Helfenstein will be out in a few days. Andy has been a trusty and has a fine flock of spring chickens almost frying size which he very much regrets to leave just at this time.

F. Coolidge, now past his nine-tenth year, has been down town knocking around among his old associates several times during the last month of splendid weather. He is probably the oldest person in the country.

Frank and Harry Rollman returned home Sunday night from Lawrence, where they have been attending school. Art has signed with the Leavenworth team in the Western Association and will return at the expiration of his contract.

We cannot yet understand why any one should want to issue a "Card of Thanks" to people who assist a neighbor in sickness or death in a family. People who assist in sickness and death—and all civilized people do, when the circumstances appeal for help—do not care to have that fact paraded in public prints.
