Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

Geo. Brown has been again unanimously chosen by the Nebraska State Funeral Directors Association as its secretary.

Charley Coppock went to Lincoln Wednesday to the commencement exercises of the University. His sister, Miss Grace, graduates this year.

Mrs. Mae De Mello and brother, Will Ester, have signed with the Dixie Carnival Co., and will join them soon. They will do slack wire and trapeze work.

Misses Carrie and Maude Beach left Wednesday noon for Springfield, Ill., to make their future home. Their father has had a nice cottage built there, and they will keep house for him.

Mrs. Abe Rowley had the misfortune to stumble over a piece of gas pipe in the yard at their home south of Superior, Tuesday, causing her to fall, and a fractured wrist is the result.

Mrs. Volbehr went to Omaha Saturday, where she will accept a position as stenographer and typewriter in the New York Life Building instead of teaching in Villisca, as she intended.

The new city hall is about ready for occupancy, and the city officers will move in as soon as the paint is dry. The fire bill was put in the tower yesterday, and a flag staff will be placed on the cupola.

The advertising grafter who worked this town for ads for a directory and time table about three weeks ago, worked Red Cloud last week. He caught sixteen there and only ten here. The next grafter will be shy the ten we think.

Peter Schleiger has been coming up town of late in his new invalid chair. Peter's many friends are glad to see him about again and have him visit with them. He is one of the most patient and cheerful of invalids.

Billie Bliven caught a five pound cat fish Tuesday in Mr. Hanna's pasture. Next rise in the river we are going to bring some larait ropes and see if we can't lasso some of the big ones and pick them out for use whenever we are hungry.

E S. Jones and brother, W. R. Jones with their wives were down to Harry Lile's place near Wabber, Wednesday, Mr. Lile has two whistling wells on his place, and W. R. Jones, who is from Le and gas regions of Missouri, says the whistling is caused by a flow of gas.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Jaké Waddle was very badly poisoned the first of the week and had to call a doctor in Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Kimsey returned from Falcon, Colo., Monday. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Lester B. becock of that city.

Mrs. W. S. Aydelott went to Mankato yesterday morning to begin taking treatment at the Abraham sanitarium.

Stella Wright came up from Emporia where she has been attending school, to see her brother Lefe, but he was dead and buried before her arrival Sunday night.

Uncle Sammy Hall's dog returned home Tuesday evening after a six weeks' visit with relatives in the country or some town. Uncle Sammy felt so good over his return that he immediately purchased a dime's worth of lice killer.

Misses Lora Weesner and Bernice Potter were shopping in Lebanon Tuesday, and while in town did not forget to call on the Times people. Miss Potter lives in Red Cloud and she and her sister Miss Florence, are visiting at Weesner farm north of Salem. C. L. Travelute, who sold his farm south east of Lebanon a few months ago with the intention of going back to Marshall county, decided after visiting his home county, that Smith county suited him better, so he purchased one of Ben Thompson's farm, Tuesday, paying $3500 for same.

Des J. B. and H. A. Dykes were called to Belleville Sunday night, to perform an operation on their cousin, Tolbert Shipley. When they arrived they found that an operation would not benefit him as he was too near gone. He died Monday afternoon about two o'clock. Tolbert was the son of Dr. Tolbert Shipley who died at Salem several years ago.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

The local telephone line is being extended from Raverton to Franklin.

J. H. Boswell on the 15 graduated from Northwestern Medical College at Chicago.

The first person to buy ticket at this place for the Portland Exposition was Mr. G. W. Dennis of Summer, Kansas.

A severe hail storm passed through the central part of the county last Friday night doing considerable damage to growing crops.

During the high wind one night recently the engine house at Bloomington pumping station was blown away. No damage was done to the plant.

Two of our citizens one day this week settled their dispute according to pugilistic rules. Neither party was hurt much, but they probably both feel better now.

In April a gentleman at Wilcox bought the Tom Mullaly ranch of 1720 acres for $31,500 and last week he sold 1,560 acres, or all but one quarter of it, for $40 per acre, making a net profit to him of $30,900. Not a bad investment for so short a time.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

M. Kinney and wife, after several months of residence in Cleveland Okl., returned here again last Friday.

Mrs. Dave O Connors arrived on the evening train yesterday from St. Louis, where she had been to get her little girl, who has been in a hospital in that city.

Mrs. Wm. Burden departed yesterday morning for Cleveland, Okla., from which place she goes to the hot springs in Indian Territory in search of a cure for rheumatism.

Jos. Cory has a curiosity or a freak, as you may term it, in his orchard in a pear tree which already has an abundance of pears of good size but refuses to stop at this and each day produces more blossoms.

Claud Greene is carrying one arm in a sling by reason of a sprained wrist. Claud was exercising feline abilities when overbalanced and his front feet were not able to catch a limb to stay his flight which resulted as above stated.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

D. W. Pomroy caught a six and one half pound cat fish Monday night in the river.

Nate Glick carved his shin with a pruning hook Tuesday while trimming his hedge.

Phil Ziegler was called to Rock Island Ill., Saturday night by the death of his sister at his old home in that city.

John Meade's horse broke loose Tuesday afternoon and ran south to the Catholic church, badly breaking the buggy and harness.

Riverton will not celebrate the Fourth of July but she is going to have a street fair July 25, 26, and 27. The whole town is united in this and that means success.

Walter Carnahan returned home Wednesday from Decatur, Ill., where he has been for the past two years in the employ of a transfer company.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Miss Ruby White is giving us splendid service as "hello" girl for the local telephone lines.

Chas. Godsey of Alma and Miss Ella Schegg of Bloomington visited in this city last Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Bernhard returned Sunday evening from Kansas City, where she had been taking treatment in a hospital for the past eight weeks.

A. A. Peak is enjoying a visit from his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes of near Topeka, Kan., and his sister, Mrs. Geo. Latta of Cowles.

Architect C. W. Way was down to Guide Rock yesterday to deliver the plans for the $7,000 opera house which will be built at that place this summer.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Curtis, Frontier county, last evening at 8 o'clock, when Rev. Gardiner said the words which made Mr. A. C. Dill of this city and Miss Gussie Ridgeway of that place husband and wife.

State Fair News.

At a meeting of the board of managers on June 10th, President Mellor notified the board that he had appointed S. C. Bassett secretary, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Robert W. Furnas, also that W. C. Caley of Creighton, Knox county, had been appointed a member of the state board to fill the vacancy.

Contracts have been signed for exhibition races during the fair with the owner of the "Guidless Wonder, Cute," a horse that without a driver trots against time and has a record of 2:04 on a mile track and 2:09 on a half mile track; also the trotting steer, "San Antonio Pete." This steer has a half mile record of 2:30.

The fish exhibit by the State Fish commission will again be an interesting feature at the State Fair, $250 having been appropriated to pay expenses of making such exhibit.

The secretary's office of the state Board of Agriculture has been removed from Brownville to Lincoln and now occupies rooms on the first floor in the capitol building where all interested, and especially those in the state fair and matters pertaining to agriculture will be most cordially welcome.

The loss of one so experienced and efficient as the late secretary, Hon. Robert W. Furnas, is irreparable both to the state and Board of Agriculture, and a serious handicap in the making of the coming State Fair, but the State Fair management will spare neither time nor effort to carry out the plans arranged by the late secretary and to this end invite the action and hearty co-operation of all well wishers of the fair.

State Fair dates are Sept. 1st to 8th. For premium lists or other information address S. C. Bassett, Secretary, Lincoln, Nebraska.

May Lose an Eye.

Riley Carpenter, 14-year-old son of Allen Carpenter, received an injury to one of his eyes Tuesday which may result in loss of sight of the eye. He and Tom Mackey were throwing clods at birds, when Mackey accidentally struck him in the eye, inflicting a very painful and dangerous injury which it is feared will cause a total loss of sight in one eye.
