Looking for Stolen Horses.

G. G. Allen arrived Friday from Manville, Wyo., in search of some horses which he believed to have been shipped to Red Cloud and sold by C E Shipp when the latter was here last winter. The Allen and Shipp ranches in Wyoming adjoin each other and a couple of Allen's horses got mixed in with the bunch which Shipp brought here for sale. When the government inspector at the shipping point inspected the load, he did not look carefully at the brands, and Shipp did not read the Allen brand to him. Allen found one of the horses in the possession of Ray Gard, but could find no trace of the other. Matters looked a little dark for Shipp for a time, as cattle or horse "rustling" is a very serious offense up in that country. However, Mr. Allen received a telegram from his father Tuesday saying that the matter had been settled, and for him to come home. He left for home Wednesday.

A Preacher Lawyer.

Rev. William Hauptmann, former pastor of the Congregational church in this city and later of Alma, has located at Searchlight, Nevada, where he will preach and practice law. Mr. Hauptmann tired of the ministry and wanted to enter law and, casting about for a location, finally landed in Searchlight. The town was without a minister and was also short of lawyers, so Mr. Hauptmann agreed to supply both "long felt wants." We wish him success.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Claude Francisco and Noble Owen, who started in hot pursuit of Dame Fortune a couple of weeks ago, are working on a farm north of Naponee.

The Adelphic debating club and aides to the number of twenty-four enjoyed their annual breakfast at the Commercial hotel Wednesday morning.

Prof. and Mrs. G. H. Aler leave today for Crete, where the latter will spend the summer. The Prof. will spend his vacation on the road with Chautauqua companies.

Mrs. Bertha Blatherwick and Miss Lucy Peck of Eversdale, Minn., and David E Peck of Grinnell, Iowa, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Peck, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bell of the City of Mexico arrived Monday evening on their return home from a six week's visit in New York and Pennsylvania. Mr. Bell is a brother of our hardware dealer and is also twin brother of happy Joe Bell.

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for one of the very best celebrations ever attempted in this part of Nebraska. Everything will be on a grand scale and Franklin will be "wide open" from early dawn until the next break of day.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

Jewett Gorman of Blaine has a picture of up to date farming in Kansas twelve horses hitched abreast pulling six disc cultivators and driven by one man.

A very painful accident happened to Paul Arnold Tuesday while working east of town erecting a bridge. A piece of the bridge fell on him breaking his jaw in three places besides other injuries.

Frank May's barn, in Cira township, during the storm last Thursday evening, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed by fire. Eight horses perished in the flames.

The fifteen month old daughter of Clifford Innis died yesterday afternoon from being severely scalded last Tuesday. She pulled the plug out of the washing machine her mother was using, and the hot water scalded her right side from the face downward.

George and Dick Pickler are home for the summer vacation. George has just finished a course in the Bliss Electrical school in Washington, D. C., and Dick has one more year at Kirkville, Mo., before he will be graduated from the school of osteopathy at that place.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

An adjuster was here this week to add six losses by hail in the hail district southwest of here, insured by L. E. Paquin.

Henry Albers and wife returned Monday night from Hallam, Neb., where they went to attend the funeral of a sister-in-law and to visit his folks.

A. G. Hunt took the train Tuesday evening for Lincoln and Omaha, where he goes to confer with capitalists in regard to the purchase of Campbell waterworks bonds.

In an endeavor to secure a library for the school a number of the young scholars of the high school have penned a request to Andrew Carnegie for the gift of a few dollars.

Dave Beanchene, who came here last fall in search of health, and had regained it so far as to look and feel buoyant again, returned to his home in Lake Linden, Mich., last Saturday.

It was quite humiliating when one day this week J. E. Fish was telling a party of gentlemen that his dray team had never ran away with him, and before he hardly got through telling it the team started. Mr. Fish hung on to them as tenaciously as a bulldog until everything seemed round to him when it was better part of valor to separate company with them, which he did without thought. Mr. Fish is now training them to have better manners.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

E. S. Lohr and wife left Monday for their Colorado home.

There are twenty-one subscribers for the new telephone exchange.

The Blue Hill team was defeated by the Lawrence team last Sunday, 11 to 4.

Siebras' blacksmith and machine shop was destroyed by fire June 18. Loss about $5000. He will rebuild.

Blue Hill high school has been placed in the accredited list of four year high schools, giving graduates the right to enter the State University without examination.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

E. B. Perry, our new station agent, arrived here Wednesday to relieve J. L. Magee.

J. L. Day and Miss Edna Duncan drove to Smith Center, Kansas, and were quietly married.

John Evans, carrier on rural route 1, had a runaway Monday. No serious damage was done. J. L. Magee departed Wednesday night, for his home at Caldwell, Idaho. Mrs. Magee joined him at Culbertson, Nebraska.

A telegram was received yesterday from Eustis, Neb., announcing the death of Mr. J. L. Whaley's father. Mr. Whaley left for the bedside of his father several days ago.

Tuesday H. B. Siel, carrier on route 2, had a runaway just south of the river bridge, on his return trip. Some damage to his carriage and harness and a few scratches on the horses was all of his misfortune.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

The city is experimenting with a cement crossing from the Union Hotel to the Northwestern sidewalk.

Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Effie Stont of Auburn, Neb., and Fred Andrews of this city, were linked together in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride could not find a better husband than our short stop, Fred Andrews.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS AT KANSAS CITY.

THE WEEK'S TRADE REPORTED BY CLAY, ROBINSON & COMPANY, LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

OFFICES AT OCHAGO, KANSAS CITY,
OMAHA, SIOUX CITY, ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER.

KANSAS CITY, June 27.—Receipts of cattle for the first two days of this week are 16,400; last week 15,800. Monday's supply consisted mainly of quarantine offerings. There was a scarcity of desirable beef and competition was keen for them, making trading active and prices 10 to 15 cts. higher. Plain grades did not move so briskly and went at steady to 10 cts. better rates. Best cows and heifers sold 10 to 15 cts. higher; others steady and slow. Bulls were unchanged; veals steady to strong. The bulk of the run today was beef steers, including many good ones. A few early sales were steady to strong, but the general market was slow and steady with the day before, exceptions being weak to a shade lower. Choice heifers were strong to 10 cts. higher; choice cows strong. Others steady to strong. Bulls and veals were dull. Monday's stocker and feeder trade was fairly active with prices steady.

The following table gives quotations now ruling:

Extra prime corn-fed steers	... $5.50-5.85
Good corn fed steers	... 5.00-5.50
Ordinary corn fed steers	... 4.25-4.75
Choice corn fed heifers	... 4.65-5.25
Good corn fed heifers	... 4.00-4.50
Medium corn fed heifers	... 3.50-4.00
Choice corn fed cows	... 4.00-4.50
Good	... 3.50-4.00
Medium	... 3.00-3.50
Canners	... 1.50-2.50
Choice stags	... 4.00-4.50
Choice fed bulls	... 3.25-3.50
Good	... 2.25-3.00
Bologna bulls	... 2.25-3.00
Veal calves	... 5.00-5.50
Good to choice native or western stockers	... 3.75-4.50
Fair	... 3.25-3.75
Common	... 2.75-3.25
Good to choice heavy native feeders	... 4.25-4.75
Fair	... 3.75-4.25
Good to choice heavy branded horned feeders	... 4.00-4.50
Fair	... 3.50-4.00
Common	... 3.00-3.50
Good to choice stock heifers	2.75-3.00
Fair	2.25-3.25
Good to choice stock calves, steers	4.00-4.50
Fair	3.50-4.00
Good to choice stock calves, heifers	3.00-3.50
Fair	2.50-3.00

Receipts of hogs this week 15,100; last week 2,800; last year 17,000. Monday's market was 5 to 10 cts. higher and today 5 to 10 cts. higher with a bulk of sales from $5.42 to 4.
