Council Proceedings.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, Mayor Dickenson presiding. All the councilmen were present.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The application of W. H. Taber for permission to build a frame building to be covered with sheet steel, on the lot south of the old Farmers and Merchants bank building, was refused after due consideration.

The petition of R. B. Kummer for a franchise for an electric light and power plant was laid over until the sentiment of the taxpayers on the subject could be ascertained.

The proposition to buy a new Twentieth Century street grader, price $75, was rejected.

Councilman Cather introduced a resolution, which was adopted, providing that no street crossings be allowed to extend more than three inches above grade, and that all gutters and culverts have not less than an 18 inch opening, unless otherwise provided by ordinance.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

Arthur Bosserman went to Chicago Tuesday, where he has a position with a transfer company.

A Jewell county man measured his corn, and found it had been growing about 2½ inches a day.

Mrs. J. H. Hedburg and son John left Monday for a month's outing and visit at Green Bay, Wis.

Corn is stretching skyward at a rapid gait. Many fields are waist high and some will be laid by this week.

F. B. Dysart is in Chicago this week on business connected with his cement block making, which he has recently patented.

The Masonic Order has moved their effects from the I. O. O. F. hall over the first National Bank to the new Masonic hall.

Norman Hick took the Knight Templar degree in Masonry at Red Cloud Saturday night. Accompanying him were A. E. Hunter, John Robins and Geo. Spohn.

Charley Day of Claremont, Colo., who has been visiting his father-in-law, A. M. Kern, a few days, returned Tuesday. He is in the cattle business out there and is doing well.

Superior's ball team met its Waterloo yesterday when it bumped up against the husky Swedes in the Webber team in a game on our diamond. It was a fine game and evenly contested throughout. The score resulted in favor of Webber, 5 to 3.

There was a good turnout at the Memorial day exercises by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges of this city Sunday. A large number of the members of the order met at the hall and formed a line of march to the cemetery, followed by a long line of vehicles. A great variety of flowers and wreaths were gathered and spread on the graves of dead members.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Lauren Hutchins' pony was so badly hooked by a bull the other day that it is not expected it can live.

A nice 8-year-old colt, belonging to Earl Reams, was shot and died from the effects of blood poison last week.

Dr. W. H. Byerly was called to Minden Tuesday to assist Dr. Hapeman in performing an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. W. S. Blake and daughter, Miss Edna, left Tuesday evening for an extended visit with relatives at Canon City, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hildreth are in Omaha and Chicago this week buying new furniture for their mansion which will soon be completed.

The Quaker Medicine Show, which is giving nightly performances in this city, is one of the best entertainments of the kind we have ever seen.

Chas. Huffine and family, who went to Oregon about two months ago, returned last Friday evening satisfied that dear old Nebraska is good enough for them.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynch in this city Wednesday at high noon, when their only daughter, Miss Bertha M., became the bride of Mr. Albert E. Elliot of Campbell.

Geo. Clapp and daughter, of Turkey Creek township, were down Saturday last. After seeing Representative Livengood's big new house, Mr. Clapp requested us to announce that he was a standing candidate for the legislature.

Some of the roustabouts with Hall's show purloined a stack cover, near Riverton, belonging to Johnny Fulton, who phoned to Chief of Police Smith of this city to recover the same if it could be found. The chief was not long in locating the cover and the sticky flanged roustabout, who thought he had use for it.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

E. Forbache, living two miles south of town, had a cow killed last Thursday by lightning.

A freight train going west struck a cow at the crossing just west of the depot, killing her instantly.

Ex county Treasurer S. M. Crook is building one of the good, substantial resident properties of the city.

Miss Florence Nina Barger and Mr. Joseph August Brandt were married yesterday morning at 7 o'clock.

Fred Patrick went to Julietta, Idaho, for his health this week. Fred has very weak lungs and goes with the intention of trying to benefit them.

Thomas Hardacre, of the tribe of the faithful in Washington township, was on the market Saturday with 48 fine Duroc hogs that brought him the nice little sum of $525.

Twenty-one harvest hands were on the local passenger west called, "Jersey" Tuesday morning ticketed from Kansas City to Kensington. Wheat harvest, we judge from this, is on all its beauty over on the west side.

Charles Boyce, a boy living near Bellaire, ran a pitchfork through his foot last Saturday, and was hurriedly brought over to Dr. D. W. Relihan, with symptoms of what might terminate in a case of lockjaw. Nothing serious has resulted however.

A young man, sixteen years of age, named Fernan Land, is stopping with Sheriff Helfenstein temporarily on a charge of burglary said to have been committed in Banner township a few days ago. A shot gun and a small sum of money were the articles purloined.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)
