NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

Alliance Sailor Is Dead.
Alliance, Neb., July 27.—Ward V. Kennedy of this city, who was among the seriously injured victims of the Bennington disaster, died at San Diego. He will be buried here Saturday.

Couple Drown While Boating.
Norfolk, Neb., July 29.—Karl Power and Miss Anna McBride were drowned here in the North Fork of the Elkhorn river. They were boating and got too close to the dam and went over. The bodies of the couple have been recovered. Miss McBride is a sister-in-law of Superintendent Reynolds of the Northwest.

Governor Will Go to Portland.
Lincoln, July 31.—Governor Mickey said that he will visit the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland, Aug. 21. Contrary to the usual practice, the governor will not be accompanied by his military staff. Besides the governor, a few other prominent Nebraskans have been invited by the exposition commission. The governor will make a short address.

William Miles Is Caught.
Omaha, July 29.—William Miles, the negro who inflicted a fatal razor wound on the neck of Harry R. McGeehin at the Cambridge hotel, was apprehended by Captain of Police Mostyn and Detectives Ferris and Dunn. Miles was in hiding in a house at Thirty-fifth and Pinkney streets and offered no resistance when the officers appeared. Miles is charged at the city jail with murder.

Acree of Cereals for 1905.
Lincoln, Aug. 2.—The state bureau of statistics has issued its figures on the acreage of the various crops of the state this year. The report shows that this year's corn acreage is 259,601 acres larger than that of 1904. There are 67,204 more acres of wheat than last year, which indicates a much greater crop, because of the great yield over the state. Oats are increased 274,300 acres and rye 18,584 acres, while barley is decreased 8,484 acres. A recapitulation shows there to be an increased acreage of 611,205 in these crops this year.

Railway Mail Clerks Meet.
Lincoln, July 28.—Declining to listen to their national president, A. A. Kidwell of Columbus, O., the postal clerks of the Sixth division passed resolutions of censure upon Secretary Wood of the national body for the submission at the last meeting at Boston of unexplained expense items aggregating several thousand dollars. Following the adoption of the resolutions, President Kidwell was heard. He said the money had been used in furthering the interests of the association, but that he could not furnish details of the expenditure and retain his position as head of the order.

Big Grain Men Draw Out.
Omaha, July 29.—Information regarding the affairs of the Nebraska Grain Dealers' association came to light which lends credence to the current report that the alleged "grain trust" of the state is on the verge of dissolution. Three of the wealthiest firms in the association have withdrawn their membership and it is said that numerous single elevator concerns in various parts of the state already have withdrawn or are preparing to follow the lead of the big dealers. The three big firms which have withdrawn are the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company of Fremont, the Updike Grain company of Omaha and W. H. Ferguson of Lincoln.

Young Woman Burns to Death.
York, Neb., July 31.—Burned to a crisp and death following was the sad fate of Miss Alverda Kinnison, daughter of David Kinnison, who lives at their home, 1713 Iowa avenue. While lighting the gasoline stove for the noon meal, in some way gasoline escaped from the stove and thoughtlessly she wiped up the gasoline from the floor with her apron. In an instant the gasoline caught fire and she was enveloped in flame. Running through her father's room, where he lay in bed, helpless to assist her, she ran upstairs and lay down on the bed attempting to extinguish the fire with bedding. The daughter lay on the bed burning up when the chief of the fire department arrived.

TRIES GASOLINE FOR FLEAS.
Lincoln Man Fatally Injured by Explosion and House Wrecked.

Lincoln, July 29.—F. N. Jenkins is probably fatally burned. Mrs. Jenkins is painfully injured, their baby is badly shaken up and the house in which they live is wrecked, the result of an attempt on the part of Mr. Jenkins to rid his dogs of fleas. The accident occurred at University Place. Jenkins has a number of dogs and for some time they have been infested with fleas. He took them into the cellar, closed the door and poured gasoline over them. Later he lighted a lantern and went down to see how the dogs were getting along. Instantly there was an explosion. Mrs. Jenkins, who was standing in the room above the cellar, holding her baby in her arms, was thrown across the room and her baby was dropped to the floor. Almost all the windows were broken and the sides of the house were knocked out of plumb. The explosion was heard all over University Place and neighbors at once went to the assistance of the distressed family. Jenkins was carried out of the burning cellar and as his clothes were stripped from him flesh came with them.

LIGHTNING KILLS SIX PERSONS.
Fatalities Occur During Electric Storm at Coney Island.

New York, July 31.—During a thunderstorm of terrific intensity which passed over New York five persons were struck by lightning and instantly killed, and nine were seriously injured at the Parkway baths, Coney Island. At the same time one man was killed and three others prostrated at Gravesend.

The killed: George Denwitta, Jacob Frankel, Robert F. Wasch, Charles Bennerle, Frank Bennerle, Henry Ransweiler.
The injured: David Wills, James Dunne, Tina Christiansen, Harry Krohn, Clara Thiel, Mary L. Curley, Isaac Raafe and wife, Amelia Schone, William Ransweiler, John Apple.

The intense heat attracted a great multitude to the shore resorts, and when the storm blew up from the westward the Parkway beach was thronged with bathers and spectators. The rain descended in torrents and hundreds of men, women and children sought shelter under the big bath house, which is elevated above the sand on piles. The lightning was incessant and terrific thunder claps shook the bath house, to the terror of the crowd huddled together beneath it. A bolt struck the flag staff and grounded in the very thickest of the crowd. Nearly fifty persons were prostrated, and the rest, screaming with terror, rushed out into the storm. Those who had remained in the water were panic stricken and fled in all directions, not daring to enter the bath house, which appeared to be on fire. Ambulances were summoned from all the nearest hospitals and on their arrival five persons were found dead and nine unconscious under the bath house. The bodies of all were scorched by the electric fluid. The nine injured were removed to a hospital, where it was said that some probably would die.

About the same time Henry Ransweiler was struck and killed while sheltering under a tree at Gravesend beach and his son, William, with John Apple and Daniel McCauley were rendered unconscious.

Tornado in Louisiana.
Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 2.—Word reached here that one white boy and two negro boys were killed outright and twenty other persons were seriously injured in a heavy windstorm which struck Bessmay, La. The town is situated in a forest of pine trees, which fell on houses, killing and injuring the occupants. Telegraphic and telephone communication is prostrated.

Foul Play Suspected.
Harlan, Ia., Aug. 1.—The partly burned body of Mrs. Peter Hein, wife of a prominent farmer, was found in a grove near her home, eight miles north of here. The authorities believe it to be a case of murder, although the post mortem examination did not reveal any signs of violence on the body.

Stabbed by Convict.
Lincoln, July 27.—In a fight with a convict named Morris, Foreman Edward Steiner of the tying shop of the Lee Broom and Duster company at the state penitentiary, was stabbed in the neck and left side. The foreman was inspecting some brooms in the tying department when he was set upon by the convict with a broom knife and stabbed a couple of times before he could make his escape. The prisoner was sent to the dungeon and Steiner was taken to the prison hospital. Morris was sent up some time ago on a charge of robbing a bank at Hebron.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist, Red Cloud.
