Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

Ernest McCord is carrying one foot in a sling as a result of stepping on a needle.

F. T. Hopka and Prof. Moritz left for a visit to Canada Tuesday with a view of purchasing land there.

Frank Genereux of Campbell, has taken a position with W. A. Garrison in his clothing store.

Otto Maire has the contract to dig the large cellar for Jotham Martin's new building and began work on the same Thursday.

G. D. Follmer & Son have rented the room at the rear of the postoffice and will open a real estate office in this city.

Contractor Butzerus and a force of men from Hastings have been working on the addition to T. A. McDonald's store the past week.

A few of the friends gave Mr. and Mrs. Mandelbaum a farewell reception as the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Logan Monday evening.

A few of the old friends of Grandma Saub kindly remembered her 90th birthday which was Tuesday, August 8th, at the home of J. K. Mattock.

The Ochre Co. have sent a lot of fine samples of the ochre they are mining to Chicago to be tested. There is no doubt but that they have a fine quality of ochre and lots of it, too.

A letter from Geo. Wegman at Manila, to his father, Dr. C. Wegman, dated July 1, states that he expects to sail for home on July 14, via Hong Kong, China. He is expected the latter part of this month. George has been in Manila over six years.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

George W. Linton, father of L. M., left Sunday night for the Portland fair. A good long trip for a man 80 years old.

Dr. Bowen was up from Topeka yesterday and assisted Drs. Slagle and Relihan in a surgical operation upon William Wilson, who lives north of town.

L. C. Uhl and wife were told are including a brief stay in Switzerland in their travels abroad. If this be true we shall expect Mr. Uhl to take a few lessons in real genuine Jeffersonian government.

F. W. Kantz, at Belleville, who was a pioneer up in the Cora country, now 81 years old, has a pocket knife he made himself fifty years ago. He bends the small blade double without any damage whatever.

The storm last Saturday night blew down the new frame work on Frank Morgan's barn—a very large one, southwest of town one mile. The same storm also shattered Whittier's new building and Genter's implement house, the latter two at Athol.

There was a little business for the State Board of Railroad commissioners at Smith Center not long ago, and strange as it may seem to you the railroad company got the worst of it. The Athol parties building the new elevator down on the right of way, east of the depot, were refused ground to put their elevator next to the track. The board was appealed to, and decided against the company. Hence the new elevator, and a little more competition in the business.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

A little more than four weeks now until Superior's great Fiesta, Sept. 11 to 16.

Miss Russel has been elected to the position of musical instructor in the schools at Broken Bow.

Miss Lucy Lane has so far recovered as to permit of her removal to her home Tuesday, nine miles southwest of Superior.

Wm. Keithly has bought some lots adjoining the Guild place in east Superior, and contemplates building a couple of houses on them.

The two pieces of ordinance in possession of the monument association will be mounted and placed in permanent position in the City Park.

Geo. Hensel has decided he would not locate in Decatur county, Kansas, and comes home well satisfied with conditions here. He says it is a good country, but grass is pretty short, and land is about as high as here, although rents are lower.

At the home of R. L. King on Friday, August 4, at 8 p. m., Mr. Grant Usher and Miss Adra B. King were united in marriage by Rev. W. I. Brooks. Only the members of the family were present. The happy couple started east on their wedding tour on the early train Saturday morning.

Friday afternoon, while Will Holmes, son of Mrs. S. M. Grissell, was working about the sheller owned by himself and Mr. Grissell, he saw a small board passing into one of the holes and reached for it. The sheller wheel caught the glove on his left hand and in an instant his hand was torn to shreds up to the wrist.

As an evidence of what Nebraska soil will do, we note the twenty acre field lying just out of Superior near the Northwestern round house, which has been planted to corn for 19 successive years. Frank Bishop, brought in a stalk Tuesday that was 11 feet high, and had three smashing ears on it, and it was not a selected stalk, either.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Chas. D. Godsey went to Marysville, Mo., Sunday, where he has a position in his brother's barber shop.

A daughter of John H. Harms of Macon prairie was quite seriously injured by being run over by a buggy last Friday night.

Joe Byerly, who has been attending school at Annapolis, Md., for several months, arrived home Sunday night. He spent the last twenty days of his stay there enjoying a cruise along the Atlantic coast.

Hays Bell, son of our hardware dealer, J. S. Bell, has struck it rich. Through the efforts of his uncle in Mexico he has secured a grading contract which will clear him a hundred or more dollars a week.

Dr. Byerly was called to Bloomington yesterday to pass upon the condition of Thos. Clark's mind, who was adjudged insane. The unfortunate gentleman was struck by lightning several weeks ago, since which time he has totally lost his mind.

Ross Furry returned Wednesday evening from a week's visit to St. Joe and St. Louis. While in the latter city he called on the Misses Maser and reports that the girls are getting along nicely and living happily in well furnished rooms in one of the best parts of the city.

Miss Ada Patterson, who has a lucrative and responsible position on the editorial staff of one of the great New York City dailies and who is a popular writer for some of the leading magazines of the country, arrived home last Friday evening for an extended visit with her parents.

During the storm Saturday night lightning struck Art Peery's house, three miles west of Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Peery escaping death by less than a hair's breadth. The lightning ran down the stove pipe and jumped to the bed setting fire to the bedding and burning Mrs. Peery's feet. That's getting too close for comfort.

Calumet Baking Powder

Perfect in quality.
Moderate in price.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Wallace Elliott is our new postmaster and has received his commission.

Frank Genereux has accepted a position in the store of Mr. Garrison at Blue Hill.

Mrs. C. Everling, who has been very sick, we learn is now able to be up and around again, but not entirely recovered yet.

Erickson & Chevalier have one of their large lumber sheds completed and are now constructing an office and coal and lime buildings.

Julius Thorne loaded a car with household goods, chickens, machinery and a few cows this week which he takes to his homestead in South Dakota.

Died, on Saturday, August 5, 1905, at the home of her son, Robert Perry, in Dewese, of brights disease, Mrs. Maria Richardson, aged 73 years, 10 months, 15 days.

Campbell is a wide open town Sundays as well as other days of the week is the advertisement we are receiving on the outside. With the assistance of preachers, laymen and village trustees this day might be changed to Saturday.

At a meeting of the village board one evening this week it was decided to let the Bank of Campbell have the waterworks bonds at their bid of five per cent less the face with privilege of drawing money as needed and retaining accrued interest.

Joe. Corey, Sr., escorted us to his home one day this week to show us one of the prettiest sights we ever saw. It consisted of an arbor covered with grape vines beneath which bunches of grapes hung so thick as to almost obscure the vines. Surely we never saw grapes grow so thick in all our days.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Lebanon anniversary, August 31, September 1 and 2.

Dr. H. A. Dykes reports three of Herman Story's children to be very low with typhoid fever.

We are sorry to learn that Mont Nichols had to return to the hospital at Kansas City, Monday.

W. S. Adeyott received a telegram Wednesday announcing the serious illness of his father in Iowa.

Emil Bock sold 28 head of hogs Monday that averaged 250 pounds for which he received $5.50 per hundred.

Ellis Adams, W. T. Mays and Jesse Mays have each bought 1000 head of sheep to feed this winter. Ellis will leave about September 1, for Waggonmount, New Mexico, to bring them in.

Some time ago, Will Johnson, proprietor of the Johnson cafe, advertised for a waiter. Thursday evening about five o'clock a little fellow arrived at Billy's residence and presented his application for the position.

Last Saturday night, about ten o'clock, a severe wind storm visited our city. The only damage done was to the new school house, now under construction. The north west and north walls were partially blown down.

Christine Brookey, was born in Dixon county, Neb., December 25, 1881, died at her home seven miles northeast of Lebanon, August 7, 1905. She was married January 11, 1905, in Armour, S. D., to Chas. Hurd Pawnee, Neb., and moved to Lebanon the latter part of February.
