

Subscription
$1 a Year in Advance

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Eight Pages
All
Home Print

VOLUME XXXIII.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, AUGUST 25, 1905.

NUMBER 34

MINER BROS. MINER BROS.

Whatever reputation this store may have gained for giving the biggest value for your money has been gained through the performance of duty as we see it.

Here is a small collection that we list as evidence that you can get more for your money than at any other store in Red Cloud.

These same articles will cost you more in any other Red Cloud store. You are not going to deliberately waste your money, are you?

Skirts

We have 12 Ladies' Suits from our Spring stock.

The Fall and Winter Suit styles are showing medium and long skirted coats. In this lot that we place on sale you will find quite a few of the famous Valtex Faultless Fitting garments, ranging in price from $12.50 to $25.

35 Ladies' Skirts in several popular cloths, ranging in price from $2.50 to $12.50.

Commencing Monday, July 31, up to and including August 12, every garment in our Skirt and Suit stock placed on sale at 40 per cent discount.

$10.00 Suits at $6.00
$12.00 Suits at $7.50

Coupon dishes given during this sale.

Curtains

Lace Curtains—We have about 30 single Curtains ranging in price from $1.50 to $5.00 per pair. During this sale your choice, each,

25c

Ladies' Collars

We have placed on our center table a large assortment of Ladies' Neckwear ranging in price from 25 to 35 cents. July 31 to August 12, choice, each

15c

Carpets

Our Carpet room did the largest business this spring that the department has shown.

We necessarily have a large number of remnants and short lengths in Ingrain Carpets. These goods are mostly strictly 2-ply all-wool, carpets that we have shown at 75 cts. per yard all season. The pieces range in yardage from 6 to 10 yards, sold only by the entire piece, July 31 to August 12 at

39c

Per Yard.

Flannelettes

We carried over from last winter's stock about 250 yards of Flannelettes ranging in price from 12½ to 20 a yard. During this sale, July 31 to August 12, two patterns for the price of one.

Dress Goods

1,000 yards of worsted Dress Goods that we must move to make room. They will be placed on our center tables. While they last, remember the event, range of price, per yard—two Dresses for the price of one.

25 to 90c

Buy a dress pattern and you may select another one at the same price.

COUPONS with all cash or produce sales.

MINER BROS.

SAY, MISTER!

Do you know that it will pay YOU, as well as US, to buy your Building Material and Coal at our yards? Not only that our prices AVERAGE lower, or at least as low, as those of our competitors, but BECAUSE we take especial care of and protect all can be classed as REGULAR CUSTOMERS.

PLATT & FREES CO.
Coal. Lumber.

Commissioners' Proceedings

Claims allowed on bridge and road funds.

(Continued from last week.)

F Houchin, bridge work	18 50
Wm Gerlach, bridge work	5 00
W E Butler, bridge work	14 40
Bladen Lumber Co, bridge lumber	389 80
ber	49 25
J M Kincaid, bridge work	1 15
A W Bowman Lumber Co, bridge lumber	113 90
Hollister & Ross, bridge lumber	2 50
Platt & Frees Co, bridge lumber	183 41
ber	1 15
Henry Arends, bridge lumber	293 27
V S Hall, bridge lumber	4 80
Nuckolls county, bridge work	32 00
Chicago Lumber Co, Rosemont, bridge lumber	190 50
Hollister & Ross, hauling lum-

ber	7 00
Will Sullivan, lumber	11 60
Wm Irons, lumber	671 86
Wm Irons, lumber	67 46
John W Towle, bridge work	200 00
Dickenson & Son, bridge work	13 40
Platt & Frees Co, bridge lumber	1731 80
ber	498 25
Chicago Lumber Co, Blue Hill, bridge lumber	498 25
Bladen Lumber Co, bridge lumber	285 86
ber	335 10
Chicago Lumber Co, Blue Hill	28 00
H G Sawyer	28 00
Claims allowed on Road Fund.
John James, road work	3 50
F Houchin, road work	25 75
Lee Arnett, road tools	112 50
W A Carpenter, road work	6 90
Lee Arnett, repair on road tools	45 00
Chas Wolf, road work	3 00
Lee Arnett, road tools	150 00
Lee Arnett, road plows, scrapers etc	42 00
Minutes read and approved.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Mrs. H. Tecker is suffering from a partial sun stroke Tuesday.

L. E. Furry & Sons shipped a load of hogs to St. Joe Tuesday.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Earl Austin and Miss Blanche Tecker, August 29.

Woody Row and wife returned yesterday from their trip to the Pacific coast and Portland fair.

Miss Ada Patterson departed last Saturday night for New York City, after a ten days' pleasant visit.

Russel Robertson went to Upland Friday to accept the position of manager of the lumber yard at that place.

Ed VanSteenburg, one of the popular and steady young men of Macon prairie, has accepted the management of the Macon State Bank.

J. N. Scott and family went to Kansas City yesterday morning for the purpose of consulting a specialist as to the nature of the trouble with which Mrs. Scott has been suffering for some time.

Wm. Bernhard arrived home last Friday night and reports a most enjoyable outing in the Big Horn Basin on his return from Portland. He says that our Franklin friends are enjoying health and prosperity.

M. C. Dill of Belvidere, a brother of P. K., was visiting him here this week and looking after his ranch south of the river. He informed us that he had never known cattle to do so well on grass as his have done this year.

The putrid remains of man probably dead a week were found in a car of coal at Republican City yesterday morning. The car was billed for Norcat, Kan., and was standing on the siding at Republican. The discovery was made by Conductor Douglas.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

R. J. Calahan left for his home at Blaine, Washington, Monday.

Mrs. Case of Red Cloud was the guest of Mrs. Newcomer Wednesday.

A new foundation has been completed under the Christian parsonage.

C. Fassler, Jr. had the misfortune to get his leg badly cut in a self feeder last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Franklin are the proud parents of a pretty little girl born Wednesday.

Ed McBride was looking after business matters in Grand Island several days this week.

Carrol Walters had the misfortune to get one of his legs badly injured during the ball game Sunday.

Dr. Thomson has commenced the erection of his residence and office just west of J. L. Cornell & Co's lumber yard.

The second nine ball team drove to Campbell and played the team there Sunday afternoon, losing by a score of 6 to 8.

Mrs. M. Juggar gave a party at her splendid home Thursday afternoon to a number of little folks in honor of her daughter, Fay.

E. G. Rees now has his cement block machine in shape for business. He has located on the rear of his business lot east of Martin's hardware.

We understand that the new Commercial Bank of Blue Hill will be opened and ready to do a general banking business September 1.

F. P. Shields, the founder of The Leader, arrived in the city Tuesday evening, after an absence of thirteen years, and as a natural consequence, called at the home of his creation.

Saturday night about 10 o'clock the fire alarm was sounded when it was discovered that the residence occupied by M. H. Duridin was on fire. The fire department promptly responded and soon had the fire under control. Mr. Duridin carried no insurance.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Attorney Byrum was called to Alma yesterday on legal business.

Miss Allison Johnston left Friday night to attend the C. E. convention at Curtis.

Daisy Montgomery is again at work in the office, after an absence of several weeks.

Ludeke & Schegg this week built a house to protect the engine at the pumping station.

Miss Bessie Dunn will leave tomorrow night for St. Joe and Kansas City on her military errand.

Earl G. Billups, aged 18 years, 9 months and 29 days, died August 13, at his home at Ash Grove, after a long siege of suffering.

Thos. Reep, an attorney from Petersburg, Ill., is in this vicinity on business matters. He is representing heirs of the Burger estate.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris, of Sumner, Miss., arrived in the city last Tuesday evening for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McGrew.

August 15th marked the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kunze. A large number of relatives and friends were present. A surprise was served and greatly enjoyed by all.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Fred Taylor made his usual trip to Red Cloud Sunday.

James McGuire of Red Cloud was on our streets Thursday.

Ed McAllister, the tombstone man, was here on business a short time Tuesday.

Mrs. H. E. Coates of Franklin was looking after her business interests here Monday.

Miss Ethel Shelly, of Gothemburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Whaley of this place.

Raop Harwood and Chas. Lindley are in charge of the restaurant during Mr. Neal's absence.

Sam Crilley, Henry Plumb and Hunter & Son shipped stock to market the first of the week.

D. A. Groat and wife of Red Cloud spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Glick of this city.

L. Layton has the material on the ground for a new cement sidewalk in front of his barber shop.

Grant Etherton, who once worked in this office, has sold his paper at Barthly, and is now located at Hildreth.

During the storm Saturday, lightning struck S. J. Wilson's house, some clothing was set on fire and the roof damaged but no serious damage was done.

Hancock Bros. have made the livery barn look like another place. They have had it painted inside and out and a new fence around their lots and a good cement sidewalk placed in front.

Marion Neal and wife went to Red Cloud last Friday where Drs. Cook and Townsend performed a difficult operation on Mrs. Neal. At last reports the patient was doing as nicely as could be expected under the circumstances.

SMITH CENTER.

(From the Messenger.)

John Mollison left Monday night for the west.

Lebanon defeated the Indians Tuesday 7 to 3. Neal pitched for Lebanon. A special train of the Eagle Lodge passed through here Sunday for the coast.

An 18-month-old son of Alfred Rorbaugh and wife died Sunday and was buried Tuesday.

W. O. Goode of Webster returned last Saturday from a visit with his brother Bert at Oklahoma.

Born to Jim Guerin and wife Sunday, a big boy, and Paul Arnold appears on the scene as grandpa.

Ben Curtis of Gaylord was arrested for disturbing the peace and threatening the life of his son-in-law Tuesday.

Art Relihan has returned home after about two months of baseball and as captain of the Ellsworth ball team.

The citizens band of Smith Center will go to Denver to play during the G. A. R. encampment about the first of September.

Miss Agnes Clinkenbeard left Saturday for the wholesale house at Omaha to get in touch with the latest fall and winter millinery styles.

Burr Johnson of Red Cloud, moves to Womer in this county, about September 1, where he will establish himself in business as a veterinary surgeon.

R. A. Connelly an old gentleman from Kentucky is here visiting with Shelby Swift, accompanying James Swift in his trip from Indiana to the west.

One day the latter part of last week Alfred Thornburg the 13-year old son of Frank Thornburg a well-to-do farmer near Formoso went out to water the cattle and from that time to this has not been seen.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Two of Art Carpenter's fine steers were struck by lightning last Friday.

Will Buchanan and Oscar Gilbert accompanied stock to Kansas City Tuesday.

The storm robe and side curtains of Dave Bell's carriage were stolen Thursday night.

E. O. Girard is building a neat and commodious residence in the northeast part of town.

Jake Henson brought in a load of hogs Monday, for which he received $5.05 per cwt.

Roy Hutchison, the Exbon barber came over Tuesday to peep at the ball game and smile on his many friends in Lebanon.

While hauling hogs to Lebanon Friday, Bert Hale, who lives only three miles east, lost one by heat that weighed 400 pounds.

The United States Marshal came up Wednesday night and served papers on Trustee Wm. Rugger, in connection with the crossing on the Rock Island road.

Charley and Dode Adams left Tuesday morning for Pueblo and Colorado Springs. They expect to be gone a week and enjoy a vacation of which they are worthy.

The Modern Remedy Co. left for Smith Center Saturday night. Al Lattimer's baby received the prize in the baby contest, and Mrs. Maggie Thompson the prize in the wood sawing contest.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.

Mystic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents and $1.00. Sold by H. E. Grice Druggist, Red Cloud.

Calumet Baking Powder

Perfect in quality.
Moderate in price.