Old Settlers' Picnic.

The old settlers of Webster county will hold their annual picnic and reunion at the home of Mrs. McCall, five miles southwest of Red Cloud, Thursday, September 21. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and take their baskets filled with eatables. The location is a splendid one and there is plenty of fruit and other trees for shade. Don't forget the date.

Goes to Guide Rock.

Al Spiers, who has for several years been in the employ of Henry Diedrich at this place, went to Guide Rock yesterday where he assumed charge of Mr. Kaley's boot and shoe business, owing to the latter's inability to attend to it through failing health. Mr. Spiers will put in a stock of boots and shoes and will also do repair work.

Webster County at the State Fair.

Webster county's exhibit at the state fair this year includes a much larger number of varieties of vegetables, fruits and grain than last year, and it is hoped to capture a number of first premiums. The exhibit was shipped yesterday. Rev. Hummel deserves especial credit for the splendid efforts he has put forth to make the exhibit the best in the state.

A Curious Story.

In "A Diary From Dixie," by Mary Boyd Chesnut, there is a curious story of a beautiful Washington girl, Mattie Reedy, who, weary of the abuse that her northern friends showered upon the southern general John Morgan, took up the cudgels in his defense. "What's your name?" asked an officer, turning fiercely upon her. "My name now is Mattie Reedy," was the answer, "but, please God, I shall one day call myself Mrs. John Morgan." Up to this time she had never met or even seen John Morgan. Somehow the story came to his ears. He sought her out, courted her and married her.

Old Party—You worry your mother terribly. Why are you so wicked? Bad Boy—'Cause if I'm good she'll worry thinkin' I'm sick.
