

LOCALETTES

Monday was Labor day.
 Hay and feed at Plumb's.
 Street fair, September 25 to 30.
 Joe Bantz went to Denver Saturday.
 Go to Fred Pann's for flour or feed.
 Dave Whitaker is home from Kansas City.
 Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerell block.
 Clarence Gurney went to Alma Wednesday.
 Andrew Uno was over from Lebanon Sunday.
 F. Newhouse returned from Denver yesterday.
 Mrs. George Hollister went to Lincoln Sunday.
 Dr. Robert Damerell went to Wray, Col., Saturday.
 Dr. R. F. Raines now dispenses his own prescriptions.
 Judge Duffy was up from Guide Rock Wednesday.
 Charles Herrick was over from North Branch Wednesday.
 J. P. Hale was down from Lincoln the first of the week.
 Face massage and ladies' shampoo at Hayes' barber shop.
 STRAYED—Sunday, a Jersey cow. Notify Mrs. J. P. Hale.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garber have returned from Denver.
 Charles Potter and wife went to Lincoln Tuesday morning.
 The Hadell stock has been moved into the Potter building.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Essig attended the state fair this week.
 School opened Monday with an unusually large attendance.
 Take your poultry and hides to Plumb. Top prices paid.
 Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Pope went to Lincoln the first of the week.
 Miss Jessie Wert went to Orleans Saturday for a short visit.
 Dwight Wilson expects to attend the State University this winter.
 Are you going to get in the industrial parade street fair week?
 Captain Houchin took in the Grand Army encampment at Denver.
 Henry Houchin is again braking on the Burlington out of Orleans.
 Mrs. I. W. Brown of Columbus, Ind., is the guest of Mrs. Lew Clapp.
 The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Polk Sutton died yesterday morning.
 Walt Sanderson and Henry Clauson were among the Denver visitors.
 Sells Bros. and Forepaugh's third bill car was in town Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. H. Fort left Wednesday for a visit at Wymore and Peru, Neb.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Walker returned from Denver Wednesday evening.
 C. E. Bergfeld and M. E. Moranville were up from Guide Rock Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elias Goble and children are among the Denver visitors.
 The school board met Monday evening and transacted routine business.
 Dwight Wilson of Superior visited with his parents the first of the week.
 Fred Emick is nursing a very painful abscess in the palm of his right hand.
 Plumb the feed man will pay you the highest price for poultry, eggs and hides.
 Mrs. Hedge and daughter Laura have returned from their visit at North Platte.
 Grant Bailey returned to Lincoln Tuesday, where will attend business college.
 Miss Belle Spanogle left Friday evening for a visit in Denver with her sister Kate.

To the Farmers

Out of 50 Insurance Companies doing business in Webster County the Geeman of Freeport pays one-third of the taxes and has over 500 policies in force. The Farmers' Mutual of Nebraska is the largest Mutual in the state, with over three-quarters of a million dollars insurance in Webster county.

For Good Insurance Call on

O. C. TEEL,
Red Cloud.

Plumb sells Blue Hill flour.
 Ray Palmer is now messenger boy at the depot.
 John G. Potter and wife are home from their trip to Portland and Astoria, Ore.
 Miss Gertrude Koon has gone to Oxford, where she will teach during the next term.
 Robert T. Potter came in from the Indian Territory Saturday. He looks prosperous.
 Mr. and Mrs. Polk Sutton wish to thank their friends for their kindness and help during the illness and death of their baby.
 Quite a large number of pupils from the country districts have enrolled for the winter term.
 Miss Jennie Cotting has gone to Lincoln to take a course in the Lincoln Business College.
 Fred Mandeville, wife and children went to Lincoln and Seward Tuesday morning for a visit.
 Mrs. Elmer W. Ross is very ill with typhoid fever, at her home in the north part of town.
 Preparation has been made for the laying of a cement walk in front of Boren's livery barn.
 H. W. Dedrick returned Thursday morning from a trip to Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.
 Miss Ione Albright went to Omaha Monday, where she will take a course in a business college.
 Mrs. Anna Tuileys returned to Napoleon Saturday after a short visit with friends in Red Cloud.
 Miss Ruth Warren returned Friday from an extended visit with Mrs. W. W. Wright, in Hebron.
 Ringling Bros.' circus will be in Hastings the same day the Forepaugh-Sells shows appear here.
 Harry Vaughn, editor of the Guide Rock Signal, is in Lincoln taking treatment for rheumatism.
 Clark Storey is home from Prescott, Ariz., where he has been spending the summer with his son Dick.
 Miss Mira Cook left Monday for Omaha, where she will take a course in the Pharmaceutical School.
 Miss Daisy Phillips returned Sunday from Goodland, Kan., where she has been spending the summer.
 Mrs. Starke, mother of the Starke brothers of Amboy, arrived Wednesday evening from Milwaukee.
 Leopold Herburger acted as manager of the restaurant during the absence of his parents in Denver.
 When you get a hair cut, shave and bath at Manspeaker's barber shop you will feel like a new man. Try it.
 Emanuel Fitz returned Friday from Fairfield, where he had the contract for building a large school house.
 Mrs. Thomas Ryan and daughter, Mrs. Marshall, have returned from their trip to the Portland exposition.
 Walter Richardson returned to his home in Topeka, Kansas, Tuesday morning after a visit with the Phares boys.
 Beedy Shirley and Ida Shirley, who are fourth cousins, were married at Rosemont Monday, Rev. Ahrens officiating.
 Misses Mattie and Louise Smalley, sisters of Mrs. Fred Plumb, arrived Wednesday evening from Eureka, Ill., for a visit.
 If you want to see everybody else, you will find them at the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Consolidated Shows.
 Work was to have been begun on W. H. Taber's new building Wednesday morning, but the heavy rain postponed it indefinitely.
 The street fair and carnival promises to be a bigger event than the reunion of a year ago. Better begin to make preparations for it.
 W. V. Beal returned from St. Joseph Sunday, where he went to make arrangements for disposing of his immense cabbage crop.
 Owing to the new building not being completed, the Indian Creek school did not open Monday morning, being postponed for a week.
 Readers of THE CHIEF who neglect to read the "Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns" frequently miss some very interesting items.
 Albert Merrill and wife of Beloit, Wis., arrived Saturday for a visit with their brothers, Harvey and John Merrill, and other relatives.
 Miss Ada Fitz gave a party last night for her schoolmates and other friends. A very enjoyable time is reported by those present.
 Will Sullivan and family are home from their summer outing in the mountains of Colorado. Mr. Sullivan's health was greatly benefited by the Colorado climate.

 W. B. Cramer, who recently bought the F. E. Goble residence property, is making some decided improvement in the appearance of the place.
 Mrs. and Miss Norris, mother and sister of Cy Norris of Bense's restaurant, have arrived from Malvern, Ia., and will make their home here.
 Omer Butler, who is one of the cartoonists on the World-Herald, came down from Omaha the first of the week for a visit with his parents.
 The rain stopped the grading work on Sixth avenue, between Seward and Webster, just in time to leave the street in the worst possible condition.
 Mrs. T. F. Jones, who has been very ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith, had sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home Sunday.
 Mrs. Winifred Garber and daughters left Wednesday for Chicago and the northern lakes, and from there will go to Philadelphia, where they may make their home.
 STOLEN—A gold watch and chain, valued at $75, last Friday or Saturday, from Herburger's rooms. $50 reward for recovery of watch and capture of the thief.—M. L. DONOVAN.
 James and Alex Buckles, Will and Joe Kudrna and several others from that neighborhood whose names we did not learn, went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to visit the state fair.
 At the meeting of the Odd Fellows Monday evening E. H. Newhouse and O. C. Teel were elected delegates to the grand lodge, which will meet in Nebraska City the first week in October.
 Mrs. S. J. Taber returned to her home in Cass county Tuesday after a several months' visit with relatives in this vicinity. She was accompanied as far as Lincoln by her son, W. H. Taber.
 George Heaton, who has recently returned from a visit at his old home in Pennsylvania after an absence of forty years, said: "It is a good place to go visiting, but I would not go back there to live."
 Rheumatism, gout, backache, acid poison, are results of kidney trouble. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea goes directly to the seat of the disease and

ALWAYS

The Best

AT PRICES
THAT ARE RIGHT

Mower Knives, 5 ft. $1.75
 Mower Sections, each .03
 Mower Guard Plates, each .03
 Mower Guards .25

We have them to fit nearly all machines.
 Why pay more for the same thing?
 We are right in price and the quality of our goods can't be beat.

8-in. Flat File.....15c
 10-in. Flat File.....20c
 12-in. Flat File.....25c
 14-in. Flat File.....30c

Guaranteed Goods

MORHART
BROS.
Hardware Co.

Will Sullivan and family are home from their summer outing in the mountains of Colorado. Mr. Sullivan's

We are Receiving New Goods Daily

Have a good supply in now and it would it would be a good idea if you would look this stuff over. It would help you in selecting your Fall and Winter Wearables. We like to show our goods whether you are ready to buy or not.

You will find us a safe, reliable firm to deal with and can sell you GOOD clothes as low as anyone.

Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.,

ALWAYS RELIABLE.

First Door North of Postoffice, Red Cloud, Neb.

cures when all else fails. 35 cents. C. L. Cotting.

Al Turner is deeply interested in the success of a certain candidate for county clerk, and as a consequence was greatly elated when a new twelve-pound voter arrived at his home south of the river Tuesday.

Good advice to women. If you want a beautiful complexion, clear skin, bright eyes, red lips, good health, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it. 35 cents, tea or tablets. C. L. Cotting.

S. F. Spokesfield came home from Kansas City Sunday evening, where he had been to see Mrs. Spokesfield, who has been in a hospital there for nearly three months. He reports that her health does not seem to be improving.

Are you lacking in strength and vigor? Are you weak? Are you in pain? Do you feel all run down? The blessing of health and strength come to all who use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. C. L. Cotting.

If THE CHIEF is not up to its usual standard of excellence this week it is because of the absence of the local editor, Miss Flo Palmer, who, in company with her mother and little brother and sister, are viewing the sights at Denver this week.

Paul Pope, Vic Fulton, Close Emigh, Roy Hutchison, James Peterson, S. B. Kizer, Luther Crabill, L. P. Albright, Arthur and Ted McArthur were some of the Red Cloud people who went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to take in the state fair.

Mrs. Maggie Chrisman and Mrs. Susan Noel of Unionville, Mo., stopped off in Red Cloud Wednesday for a visit with their sister, Mrs. Melissa A. Hedge. They are on their way home from a several weeks' outing in the mountains of Colorado.

If our out-of-town friends want to see the most magnificent street parade and the greatest show on earth, the low excursion rates accorded to the enormous Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers aggregation will give them a cheap and convenient chance to do so.

The old settlers' picnic, which was to have been held September 21 at the home of Mrs. McCall, has been postponed to September 28, the street fair management having set aside that day for the old settlers. The picnic will probably be held in the court house park.

Adam Morhart and wife are home from a several weeks' tour of the Pacific coast. They visited many points of interest and saw many beautiful sights, yet they were glad to get home and Mr. Morhart says Nebraska is good enough for him. He says that G. W. Dow intends moving back to this part of the world.

Lebanon Times: "Red Cloud will have a carnival and street fair the week of September 25 to 30. They have an excellent program, and if you attend we can say in behalf of the citizens of that town that you will be treated right and can also assure you a good time." Thanks, brother; we will try to make your word good.

The weeds in the south end of town have grown so tall that strangers walking up from the depot are compelled to stop at houses along the way and inquire the road up town. Mel Sherman, Mrs. Jensen and others who live south of Division street say they are becoming tired of doing guide-post duty and want the weeds cut so the standpipe can be seen from the top of the hill near the depot.

Mrs. J. S. Gilham and son Harry are home from an extended outing in Colorado. Mr. Gilham remained in Colorado Springs, where he has secured a position as a special writer on one of the newspapers. Mr. Gilham has had considerable experience in newspaper work, and we wish him success in his new work. He has been a resident of this county since the early '70s and has a host of friends who will learn with regret of his decision to remain in Colorado.

To the Public

Having purchased Chas. Wadell's meat market, we extend to you a hearty invitation visit us and become better acquainted and also, when looking for good first class meat, we ask you to give us a trial.

We are satisfied we can well please you.
 Yours for business,

FEIS & SEARS

FARM LOANS

I am well prepared to make Farm Loans in Webster, Smith and Jewell counties at low rates, either for five or ten years, with best of options.
 Loans safely and carefully made for parties having private funds.

J. H. BAILEY,
RED CLOUD, - - NEBRASKA