

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

THE CARNIVAL.

Public Wedding Yesterday—Industrial Parade Today—Big Crowds.

Since Tuesday afternoon Red Cloud has been the scene of the most extraordinary holiday ever seen in this part of the state. The fall carnival and street fair opened with the greatest show that has ever visited this state namely the Parker Fairyland Amusement Co. The managers Tyler, & Cramer, have secured a list of varied and high class attractions that surpasses in magnitude and excellence anything that can be remembered by the oldest resident.

Several different companies bearing the name of Parker have visited surrounding cities in the past two years and every city they visited has sounded praises of them to the skies, consequently the firemen were desirous of securing one of them to furnish the attraction. However, many citizens objected, believing them, as the general run of carnival companies are, to be a very inferior class and even after the contracts were signed with H. S. Tyler, who represented Fairyland, some were doubtful and it was then that a committee was sent to Superior to inspect their attractions thoroughly.

They came back more than satisfied. They were loud in their praises of the high class shows and gentlemanly conduct of the employees toward the patrons and we have not been disappointed in the least of our expectations. Right here it is well to speak of a little matter which shows the courtesy and good feeling that exists among show people. "Under Two Flags" was billed at the opera house Monday night and the carnival was to open the same time. Mr. Cramer kindly refrained from opening and did more. He loaned the Melville Family band which is enroute with the company, to Mr. Arington to draw a crowd to the opera house.

Tuesday afternoon all the attractions opened and have been giving continuous performances ever since. To say that the people have been pleased would be putting it lightly.

Three free attractions are exhibited twice daily and are as follows: 2 and 7:30 p. m. Bertino, fancy bag punching and feats of marvelous strength.

3:30 and 9 p. m. Fraviolo in his daring slide for life from a lofty tower hanging by his teeth to a slender cable.

5 and 10:30 p. m. Fanstina, who caps the climax of all daring feats by looping the loop in a hollow ball.

The pay attractions are as follows: Creation, an ingeniously devised electrical spectacle that illustrates the Biblical story in a literal but novel manner. A lecture accompanying the exhibition which is complete in every detail. Other features are the beautiful fire dance and illustrated songs.

Electric Theatre, where the Great Train Robbery and the Lost Child are presented. The last part of the week the people will laugh at the whole "Damm Family" and the "Damm dog," while the feature "The Moonshiners" will turn them from tears to laughter alternately. This is the most sensational film ever made.

Tyrolean Alps, a grand mechanical exhibition, showing a day and a night spent in the village of Geneva at the foot of the Alps mountains.

Foolish House, the big fun factory, where fun is made to order. If you can't laugh don't visit it.

Naval Battle, a representation of the battle of Port Arthur. The battle taking place between real ships operated by electricity in a tank holding 50,000 gallons of water.

Penny Arcade, a gallery of scenes from all the world presented to each one for the sum of one cent.

Carry-Us-All, the delight of young and old. A monster merry go round operated by electricity. A delightful place to rest after seeing the pike. An electric light plant is carried by the Parker Amusement Co., which makes the streets a perfect blaze of glory.

The staff of the company is: C. W. Parker, owner; Cramer & Tyler, lessees and managers; D. A. Fulton, advance representative; W. R. Hudd, secretary and press agent; George Gilroy, in charge of privileges; Howard Melville, leader of the band; Lee Barnes, master of transportation.

The Public Wedding.

Aside from the big industrial parade today, the most interesting special feature of carnival week was the public wedding, which occurred yesterday afternoon before an audience of from 4,000 to 5,000 people. A temporary platform was erected in front of Engels' jewelry store, on which was displayed the numerous presents offered by the business men of Red Cloud. A little after 3 o'clock the bride and groom, Miss Ida Steffen of Red Cloud and Mr. Squire Worden, recently from Indiana, and who has been employed by F. W. Studebaker in his cement plant, ascended the platform where Rev. G. W. Hummell was awaiting them. The ceremony was immediately performed and the clergyman saluted the bride, the crowd cheered, the band played and everyone, including the bride and groom, seemed to appreciate the situation. Following the ceremony the newly married couple started in to make the rounds of the shows, very appropriately beginning with "Creation."

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. E. W. Ross.

Mrs. Margaret Ross, wife of former Mayor E. W. Ross, died at her home in Red Cloud last Friday afternoon, after a brief illness from typhoid fever. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. W. Bennett Maze, and the remains were escorted to the cemetery by delegations from the Fraternal Aid, Royal Neighbors and Rebekahs, of which orders she was an honored and beloved member. A sad coincidence was the fact that she was one of the leading workers for the new church building and was the first person to be buried from it.

Margaret C Rife was born in La Salle county, Illinois, July 28, 1860, was 45 years 1 month and 25 days old at the time of her death. In 1881 she removed with her parents to Gage county, Nebraska, where on November 20, 1883, she was married to Elmer W. Ross. To this union were born one son and three daughters, the son and second daughter having preceded her in the final rest. In 1893 she removed with her husband and family to Red Cloud, which has since been their home. She was converted in the M. E. church at the age of 13 years and was an active working member in the church. Mrs. Ross is survived by her husband, two daughters, Miss Lavilla and Marie, her mother and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. E. T. Rickards, Weeping Water; Mrs. G. L. Griffiths, Lincoln; Mrs. F. M. Potter, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. C. H. Kaley, Red Cloud; Wm. Rife, Beatrice; John Rife, Western S. L. Rife of Bridger, Montana and Roy Rife of Red Cloud.

Wesley Wilson.

Charles Wesley Wilson, the well known Inavale druggist, dropped dead in Dr. Cook's office last Saturday afternoon about four o'clock. Mr. Wilson had been suffering with heart trouble for several months, and the first of last week came to Red Cloud to take treatment. He seemed to be improving, and only a few moments before he died he said he was feeling much better than he had felt for several weeks. A moment or two later he fell forward to the floor and when the doctors reached his side life was extinct. Funeral services were held at the Christian church in this city Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Davis, and interment was in the Red Cloud cemetery. Mr. Wilson was about 45 years of age and had been married twice. He is survived by five children by his first wife. About a year ago he was married to Miss Deisley, a daughter of Howard Deisley of Inavale.

Boy's Head Crushed.

Charley Bates, the 10-year-old son of Ed Bates, living in the south part of town, suffered an accident Sunday evening about 6 o'clock which nearly cost him his life. Quite a number of persons had gathered at Winfrey's barn to watch the breaking of a herd of bronchos, and as the herd was being turned from one lot into another the little Bates boy fell under the foremost horse and the entire bunch passed over him. He was picked up unconscious and taken to Dr. Cook's hospital, where he soon revived. His head was severely crushed, but it is thought he suffered only slight internal injuries. The physicians did not sew up the wound, fearing blood clots would form on the brain, which would necessitate its reopening. At the last reports the boy was resting easily and it is thought he will recover.
