It is said that some miscreant "spiked" the punch at the club dance Wednesday night. That is about the limit of unadulterated cussedness, and the guilty parties should be barred from associating in respectable society if it is possible to ascertain who they are.

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Dennis Finn.

Mrs. Anna Finn, wife of Dennis Finn, died Sunday at the State Hospital for the Insane, at Lincoln, after a lingering illness. Her remains were brought to Red Cloud Wednesday evening and funeral services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Havel, north of Red Cloud, conducted by Rev. G. W. Hummell. Interment was in the Red Cloud cemetery.

Anna Havel was born at Smerdoff, Austria, July 26, 1867, and was 38 years 2 months and 14 days of age. She came to Webster county with her parents about 30 years ago, and was married to Dennis Finn about fifteen years ago. They have no children, and she is survived by her parents, her husband, who arrived too late to be present at the funeral; and four sisters and two brothers, all residing in this vicinity.

Mrs. L. C. Munger.

Mrs. Ollie May Munger, wife of Len C. Munger, died at her home in Garfield township late Friday evening, from quick consumption. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at 10:30, at Ash Creek M. E. church, conducted by Rev. G. W. Hummell.

Ollie May Sanderson was born in Cerro Gordo, Platt county, Illinois, September 13, 1870, being 35 years and 24 days old when she died. She was married November, 12, 1890, to Len C. Munger, and to them were born two children, the oldest of whom, Ray, 14 years of age, survives her. Besides her husband, mother and son she is survived by three brothers and two sisters, Will, Walter and Roy Sanderson, Mrs. Phlan Leggett and Tena Harris of Springfield, Illinois.
