

LOCALETTES

Hay and feed at Plumb's.
 5A horse blankets at Fogel's.
 B. F. Muntz was in Bladen Thursday.
 Go to Fred Plumb's for flour or feed.
 Henry Clark was on the sick list this week.
 Dr. E. A. Thomas, dentist, Damerell block.
 Mrs. Nellie Caster went to Hastings Friday.
 E. F. Maxey was up from Superior Tuesday.
 E. B. Smith was in Lincoln the first of the week.
 E. H. Foe was down from Cowles Wednesday.
 Dr. Beck came up from Superior this morning.
 Chas. Hunter was down from Inavale Tuesday.
 Next Tuesday evening, October 31, is Halloween.
 Don Hartwell was down from Inavale yesterday.
 Floyd Pitney is laid up with an attack of the grip.
 Dr. Townsend returned from Beatrice last Friday.
 Miss Cleona Delph went to Crete Tuesday morning.
 James Alexander was down from Bladen Wednesday.
 Joe Fogel sells the 5A horse blankets, best on the market.
 Everything in the harness and saddle line at Fogel's.
 Mrs. George Baylor is enjoying a visit from her father.
 Face massage and ladies' shampoo at Hayes' barber shop.
 Miss Lenore Harman was up from Guide Rock Tuesday.
 The official ballot this year will be about thirty inches long.
 Take your poultry and hides to Plumb. Top prices paid.
 E. G. Bohman of Lincoln was in town the first of the week.
 Mercer's orchestra goes to Riverton tonight to play for a dance.
 A new steel bridge is being built across Elm creek, at Amboy.
 Mrs. Mamie Waskom of Inavale was in town the first of the week.
 August Brinkman was here from McCook the first of the week.
 Dr. and Mrs. Gardner were up from Wymore the first of the week.
 Wm. LaRue is again back on the switch engine in the yards here.
 Mrs. I. Frisbie is visiting with friends in Lincoln and Omaha this week.
 F. Newhouse carries a complete line of ready-made garments for babies.
 John Griffith returned Tuesday evening from Illinois and Michigan.
 Mr. Hare, a Lincoln insurance man, was the guest of O. C. Teel Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Newhouse returned from Omaha Wednesday noon.
 J. F. Winters of Lincoln was a business visitor to Red Cloud Wednesday.
 Earl Craig, Ed Harris and Ralph Clark were up from Superior Saturday.
 Not a rich corporation—but just plain J. O. Caldwell, for hard and soft coal.
FOR SALE—A fine driving horse with buggy and harness. Inquire at this office.
 The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lindley is sick with the whooping cough.
 Walter Roby has moved into the house south of Charley Besse's residence.
 Plumb the feed man will pay you the highest price for poultry, eggs and hides.
 H. C. Richmond, of the Omaha World Herald, was in Red Cloud Wednesday.
 A son of Albert Mefford was kicked by a horse last Friday and had his jaw broken.
 John Dettman returned to Narke, Kan., after a short visit with his folks at Cowles.
 Grant Bailey has taken a position in the Union Pacific railroad offices at Omaha.
 W. C. Frahm, Republican candidate for county treasurer, was in town Wednesday.
 Little Marie Ross has almost entirely recovered from her recent attack of typhoid fever.
 Howard Deisley and daughter, Mrs. Wesley Wilson were down from Inavale Tuesday.
 Robert F. ruse severely sprained his ankle while at work at the round house Tuesday night.

 Leigh Pope has resigned as mail carrier on route 2 and has been succeeded by Chas. Kent.
 If you want to buy, sell or trade your real estate, see The Red Cloud Investment Co.
 Ex Mayor Ross and all of his employees except Vail Fox have started "chin" whiskers.
 Safford Fred of Topeka, Kan., stepson of Will Lindley, has taken a position with Ward Hayes.
 Fred Mandeville returned Monday morning from Kansas City, where he took in the horse show.
LOST—Saturday, a small gray leather pocketbook, containing $5.05. Finder please leave at this office.
 When you get a hair cut, shave and bath at Manspeaker's barber shop you will feel like a new man. Try it.
 Alvin Snapp came up from Webber Wednesday evening to play with Mercer's orchestra at the club dance.
 Roy Dickey has so far recovered from his siege of typhoid fever, as to be able to be on the streets again.
Don't rent—buy a farm. Write for list. I have 62 farms for sale. D. W. GRANT, Norton county, Kan. Dec 14.
 George Beardslee brought in eight hogs Wednesday which averaged about 340 pounds and netted him $165.
 The Indian creek school will be closed for two weeks owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Susie Engels.
 Mrs. Holland of Atlantic City, Iowa, and Mrs. Sill of Omaha are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherwood.
 John Weesner of North Branch has purchased the Ben Ludlow property north of town and will move to Red Cloud.
 Harry Gilham ran a pitchfork in his foot yesterday and as a consequence is not driving Turnure's delivery wagon today.
 Mrs. Lockhart, mother of Mrs. James Burden, suffered an attack of heart failure Wednesday and was very ill for a time.
 Miss Myra Cook came home from Omaha Tuesday for a short visit with her brother Ed, who is here from Seattle.
 Mrs. E. B. Pierce of Kearney, a former resident of Red Cloud, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Warren.
 If you want a loan on real estate for 3, 5, or 10 years time, with optional payments see the Red Cloud Investment Co.
 Charley Phares has resigned his position at M. A. Albright's and is now helping his mother at Newhouse's dry goods store.
 Mrs. Kate Miller returned to her home in Waterloo, Iowa, Wednesday, after an extended visit with relatives in Red Cloud.
 Frank Richardson is taking Jim Amick's place as switchman in the Red Cloud yards, while the latter is in Grand Island.
 A telegram was received in Red Cloud this morning announcing the death at Omaha of an aunt of Mrs. Mike Stroble.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith and daughter, Miss Myra, were in Cowles Wednesday attending the Putnam-Mills wedding.
 The Diederich brothers, who contemplate opening a business college in Red Cloud, were here Sunday looking over the ground.
 Ridge Leggett is one of the lucky ones. In removing the old sidewalk and crossing at Fifth and Seward, he found a total of $4.50.
 Miss Mabel Bradshaw returned to her home in North Branch Wednesday, after her recent illness with appendicitis in this city.
 The members of the Maple Leaf Kensington were up from Guide Rock Wednesday and were entertained by Mrs. George Morhart.
FOR SALE—one house on three lots, also a good piano, little used, household furniture. Apply to Mrs. M. GILROY, Red Cloud, Neb.
 Roy Burden, who has been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism, left Monday for Hot Springs, Ark., in hope of regaining his health.
LOST—between town and the river bridge, a light summer coat, Saturday, Oct. 7. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward.
 Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Grand Island arrived in Red Cloud Tuesday noon for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lindsey.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nienschwander and the latter's mother arrived from Denver Wednesday and are guests at the home of C. H. Strayer.

 W. C. Conyers, "night superintendent," at the Burlington depot, went to McCook Wednesday evening to take the operator's examination.
 The case of the City vs. the Farmers and Merchants Bank has been advanced on the docket off the supreme court and set for hearing in December.
 The Ladies Altar society of the Catholic church will hold their annual bazaar the week before Christmas. The place of holding it will be announced later.
 A little daughter of P. L. Hanson, living northwest from Red Cloud, had the misfortune to fall from a horse, breaking one of her arms, one day last week.
 Will Scrivener has just finished a modern residence for W. E. Bean, four miles north of Inavale. The house has ten gables, and is one of the finest in the county.
 At the sale at Eldrege's yesterday 46 head of cattle were disposed of at fair prices. It was a joint sale by Walter Means, George Abbey and Charley Eldrege.
 The ladies of the Episcopal Guild will give their annual Harvest Home supper at the home of Mrs. Ward Hayes, Monday evening, October 30. Everybody invited.
 The high school juniors are doing some unique advertising for their "Carnival of Nations" and "Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works," which will be held November 15.
 J. L. Cushman of Beloit, Wisconsin, was here the first of the week. He is endeavoring to secure a chorus of 75 voices to render a cantata in this city at some future date.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Spokesfield were in Hebron this week, where they attended the wedding of their niece, Miss Laura Wetherell, which occurred Wednesday evening.
 George Rowson has resigned his position as carrier on rural route No. 4, and expects to return to his former home in Pennsylvania. George Martindale is the new carrier on the route.
 Girls, if you want red lips, laughing eyes, sweet breath and good looks use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The greatest beautifier known. 35 cents, tea or tablets. C. L. Cotting.

Shotguns

$4.25

This gun is well made throughout, of fine quality and good workmanship. Extra fine blued steel barrel, rebounding lock, top lever, fine walnut stock, pistol grip, rubber butt plate, case hardened frame and a good, close shooter.

12 gauge, 30-inch barrel, weight 6 1-2 pounds - - $4.25
 12 gauge double barrel Shotgun - - - $8.25

A good gun and well made.

We have the guns in stock and can deliver the goods. Come in and take your choice.

MORHART BROS. Hardware Co.

COPYRIGHT 1905 BY THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.,

ALWAYS RELIABLE,

First Door North of Postoffice, - Red Cloud, Neb.

Pointers

WILL

$10

BUY A GOOD

OVERCOAT?

It certainly will if you buy it here. We are making a big feature of our Ten Dollar Overcoats this season. The fame of our Ten Dollar Coats and Suits has spread all over the country. Come and see the good things we offer for Men, Boys and Children.

Saunders Brothers handle lumber O. K.; A line that is best on the market today. Unexcelled lumber, well seasoned and dry—No better goods your money can buy. Doors, sash and shingles, and best of screen blinds, Excellent value here you will find. Reliable coal always on hand, Satisfactory goods to meet the demand.
 Bring us your order for building stuff fine; Right here you will find an up-to-date line. On coal and lumber you'll find it is true, Saunders Brothers save money for you.

Indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, kidney and liver disorders, and all stomach troubles positively cured by using Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or tablets. C. L. Cotting.

Cliff Pope, who has been nursing a very bad finger for several weeks, had the finger opened the latter part of last week, and examination showed that the finger may have to be amputated.

Mrs. G. W. Hagar of Litchfield, Sherman county, was in Red Cloud Monday, on her way to Franklin for a visit. She had been visiting at Cowles with her sisters, Mrs. Beal and Mrs. Waller.

Large English Berkshires of either sex and all ages, for sale at farmers' prices; also one bay road colt 4 years old. For particulars inquire of Thos. Polhemus, Guide Rock, Neb., or Guide Rock phone line.

J. F. Edwards of Lyons, Colo., will be the station agent at Red Cloud when Tom McCarl is assigned a run on the road. Mr. McCarl expects to continue to make Red Cloud his home, which will be good news to his many friends here.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul held an interesting meeting at the M. E. church Tuesday evening. At the close of the meeting the members of the brotherhood enjoyed an oyster supper in the basement of the church, which was a surprise provided by the Ladies' Aid society.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Porter arrived Sunday morning from Portland, Ore., where Mr. Porter had charge of the National Cash Register Co.'s exhibit at the exposition. They are visiting at the home of Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. A. A. Pope. After a short visit here they will proceed to their future home in Dayton, Ohio.

In receiving the account of the fire at Bladen last Friday morning we misunderstood the name given by our informant. The names of the victims should have been Piel instead of Teel, an error easy to make when receiving messages over the phone. THE CHIEF and the Bladen Enterprise were the only papers in the county which contained the news of the calamity.

As a result of the football game last Friday one Red Cloud boy will be the gainer of a new shotgun. For a long time he has wanted a shotgun. He is also a member of the high school football team. His parents refused to let him have a shotgun because of the danger attached. His mother, after witnessing the football game, went home and told her husband, she would be willing for the boy to have the gun if he would give up playing football.

C. F. Webster representing the Genesee Pure Food Company of Leroy, N. Y., was a pleasant caller at THE CHIEF office one day this week and before leaving presented us with two packages of Jell O Ice cream powder, for making ice cream. With two packages of this preparation a gallon of the most delicious ice cream can be made in 10 minutes as everything but the ice is contained in the package and requires no cooking, eggs, flavoring or sugar.

Evidently Knows Us.

BLADEN, Neb., Oct. 20—THE CHIEF, Red Cloud, Neb.—DEAR SIR: Inclosed find—dollars on my subscription to THE CHIEF. I expect to run for governor, so thought I had better settle up or I would get it in the neck.

J. W. WRATTEN

P. S.—Now don't get full on the money, but give it to your wife.

Local Grain Market.

(Furnished by J. P. Delaney) Friday, Oct. 27.

Wheat65c
Old shelled corn31c
New shelled corn29c
Ear Corn, new29c
Oats21c
Rye47c
Barley28c

Is Your Farm For Sale?

If it is, do not list it with too many agents. Each one proceeds to knock the other fellow out of a sale. List exclusively with me at a reasonable price and I will guarantee a sale.
 J. H. BAILEY, Red Cloud.

For Sale.

1/2 block in northwest part of town, house of seven rooms with bath, hot and cold water, good barn, six lots fenced for chickens, plenty of fruit and shade.
 Mrs. J. P. HALE, Red Cloud.

Notice of Tax Sale.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned on the 14th day of March, 1904, purchased of the county treasurer of Webster county, Nebraska, at private sale the following described lot sold for delinquent taxes for the year 1902, and situated in Red Cloud, Lot twenty-one (21) in block 31 of the original town now city of Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, taxed in the name of John O. Yeiser. The above named person and all others who claim an interest in the above land will take notice that the time of redemption of said land from said tax sale will expire on the 15th day of March, 1906, after which I may apply for a tax deed for all of the above land that is not redeemed.
 Dated this 26th day of October, 1905.
 C. H. POTTER.