ANDREWS ENDS LIFE

MURDERER OF BESSIE BOUTON COMMITTS SUICIDE.

Was Also Wanted for Murderous Assault on William Ellis at Berkeley, Cal.—Shoots Woman and Himself to Avoid Arrest at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Trapped in his rooms by the police and fully aware that his last avenue of escape had been barred, Milton Franklin Andrews, who murdered Mrs. Bessie Bouton on the top of Cutler mountain, near Colorado Springs, ten months ago, and murderously assaulted and robbed William Ellis, an Australian horseman, at Berkeley, Cal., shot and killed Nulda Olivia, his female companion, and then fired a bullet into his own head, causing instant death. That Andrews, for whom the police of the entire country were searching, was fully prepared for the tragedy that closed his career, was shown by the fact that he acted without a moment's hesitation.

Having learned that Andrews and Nulda Olivia were living in an upper flat at 748 McAllister street, the police department sent a detail of two policemen and two detectives to make the arrest. Although certain that the persons wanted were in the two-room apartment they occupied, the officers received no answer to their repeated knocking on the door. At the moment one of the officers was dispatched for an ax, with which the door was broken open, Andrews fired the shot that ended the career of his companion. The bullet was fired into her right temple and she dropped dead on the bed. When the officers gained entrance to the apartment they found Andrews lying on the floor, grasping his revolver in one hand and a mirror in the other. But two of the cartridges had been fired. Extra ammunition was found in his pockets.

On searching Andrews' remains the coroner's deputies found $130 in gold and an English sovereign, all the money that remained of the $500 of which Ellis was robbed at the time he was lured by Andrews to the latter's cottage in Berkeley. Considerable jewelry was also found on him.

A rambling typewritten statement, that had presumably been written by Andrews, who denied that he had anything to do with the murder of Bessie Bouton at Colorado Springs, was found in one of the dead woman's stockings.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours;

a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
